PAY UP!—Our friends who have paid their subscriptions have our hearty thanks. Those who have not yet paid, will receive our thanks if they will call at our office and pay on Court week, or send the money by friends attending Court. We have, also, accounts for job work, estate advertising, &c., which must be settled. We need money. Come, friends, you know that we have been indulgent. Let us see now whether you appreciate our leniency.

Commenced operations—the workmen on the Court House steps.

Everybody wants and nobody seems to have—money.

Is it a sign that the present year will be unlucky because it begins and ends on Friday? Superstitious ones may think so but we hope they are few.

Be sure to examine the Inquirer Book Store advertisement in another column. Everything in the Book and Stationery line at city retail prices. Call and examine the stock.

The editors of the Republican and Democrat, published at Greensburg, have been sued for libel. Some scoundrel did not get as much as he deserved. Of such is editorial life.

Cap't James Pott, late editor of the Fulton Republican has been appointed to a first-class clerkship in Surveyor General Campbell's office. Lucky dog!

During 1868 Bedford county had 23 representatives in the Western Penitentiary, at Allegheny, for the support of whom the tax-payers had to hand over $845,75.

The GAZETTE now circulates extensively in every part of Bedford county. It goes to every Post Office, and in every town and township. Advertisers who make use of our columns will find it a good paying investment.

The farmers of Adams county hold monthly meetings, which are generally well attended, and at which everything relating to the productions of the soil are investigated and discussed. Adams county should not stand alone in this matter.

FOR SALE.—An excellent CABINET ORGAN, in Walnut case, with two sets of Reeds and two Stops. This Organ is as good as new, is well adapted for the family circle, or a small church, and will be sold at a bargain. Any person wishing to examine the instrument, can do so by calling at jan22tf THIS OFFICE.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—Late on last Saturday night a youth bewildered by benzine and almost frenzied from fright, told a terrible tale of a dire disaster, the scene of which he located on Thomas street. It appears that he and another youth, whose name, in the excitement of the moment he had forgotten, were passing along said street to Pitt, and the said street being then and there somewhat too narrow for their nocturnal perambulations, they ventured beyond its limits and came upon the platform of an old well, the planks of which, (like those of some political organizations) had from long usage become decayed, when, as ran the story of the excited youth, his cham broke through and went to the bottom, crying for help, which informant was unable to give. To rescue his friend from this perilous condition, he gave the alarm aforesaid. Considering his condition, grave doubts were entertained as to the correctness of the story, yet a party of stalwart men and brave, accompanied by "ye local" who was itching for an item, proceeded to the spot and found the platform sufficiently broken to admit the body of a man. The story might be but too true, thought we. Experiments, well known to science, were made to ascertain if any one had really gone through the aperture in the platform. All efforts proving fruitless, it was resolved to postpone further investigation till morning. When Sunday came and the benzine had evaporated and the youth had shaken himself together, his recollections of the incidents of the evening before were more vivid. He remembered of having himself staggered upon the platform, broken through and been rescued from a sudden and unexpected plunge into the bowels of terra firma. He had mistaken the man. He had been chasing a phantom, and was on the verge of making a first class local for us, and a melancholy end to his existence.

Moral—Beware of benzine, especially if your business calls you to the vicinity of dilapidated wells.

ADVERTISE YOUR SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Every spring there are many sales of personal property in Bedford county. They are generally advertised by hand bills alone. The most efficient means of calling the attention of buyers to their vendues is neglected by a majority of sellers. They do not seem to be aware of the fact that a sale advertised in the newspapers of the county, is brought before the immediate notice of hundreds who never see the bills which have been so carefully posted in taverns and other places. When asked to advertise their sales in newspapers, many people object on account of the expense. They forget that a single additional bidder on any one article of value, will realize from twice to ten times the amount an advertisement in the newspapers would cost. In other sections of Pennsylvania the people are wiser, and some of our exchanges come to us with long columns full of advertisements of personal property sales. Any man who tries it, will be abundantly satisfied of the wisdom of his act before his sale is half over. He will find in the large crowds of bidders present, a corroboration of all we have said, and when he comes to count up his gains, will give the newspaper credit for many dollars which he would not otherwise have received. Our job office is unsurpassed, and we get out bills that cannot be excelled; but an advertisement in the GAZETTE will do more to draw a large crowd of good bidders to a sale than any number of the handsomest bills that can be printed. Try it, and you will certainly be convinced of the truth of what we say.

SLIGHTLY MIXED.—The Fulton Republican under the head of "Philadelphia Murders" says the following; "There are more criminals charged with murder, awaiting trial, than in any other city in the United States. Scarcely have the citizens got over the scare and horror of the "Hill" murder, than they are startled by the murder of Mr. Rogers, under the most atrocious circumstances. To say nothing of the bad grammar, as a news item this is decidedly rich. The "atrocious" murder of Mr. Rogers took place in New York, a small village in a neighboring State, of whose geographical existence the editor of the Republican no doubt has no knowledge. He is about as well informed on the current news of the day as he is on politics. Poor fellow! he can't help it.

THAT FAMOUS BIRD.—The Express Office was the scene of considerable excitement the other day, which was caused by the presence of a rara avis in the shape of a live eagle, which had been brought from Fulton county by Mr. Harry Hutton. His birdship was honored by the visits of many who had never seen a specimen of this bird made famous in Fourth of July orations and song. This one, in possession of Harry is a fine specimen of his tribe, but as we are not well enough booked in Ornothology we will not venture the opinion as to whether he belongs to that species so closely allied to the Star Spangled Banner.

See advertisement of Dr. C. N. Hickok in another column for building plans, &c. We need say no more to recommend the Doctor's skill as an artist than to remind the public that he is the architect of the Union School House, so universally admired, and of the new Episcopal Church now in course of erection and which promises to be a queen of architecture.

ON COMMITTEES.—Mr. Longenecker, our member at Harrisburg, has been placed upon the following committees by the Speaker: Judiciary, General, Agriculture, Military and Banks. Mr. Longenecker is a young man of good business habits and we predict will be a useful member of said committees.

The farmers in some parts of Wisconsin are beginning to bring in their wheat, having become tired of waiting for higher prices.

The goods sold by us are described in printed slips or checks, which are sent to any address at the rate of ten cents each, in clubs of ten, twenty, thirty, forty, sixty, one hundred, one hundred and fifty, two hundred, &c. For a dollar the receiver can buy the article described in the check, or exchange it for any one of two or three hundred other articles in our circular. As a guarantee of the worth of every article sold by us, any article on our checks can be exhanged for a White Bed Quilt or a Silver Plated Revolving Table Castor, with Five Bottles. Read what the great paper of the Northwest, Toledo Blade (Nasby's paper), says of us:—
"What We Saw at The Hub.—Curiosity led us, while recently in Boston, to visit the dollar establishment of Messrs. Eastman & Kendall. Their trade has become so immense that they now occupy four stories in the elegant block No. 65 Hanover Street. The name of this firm has become as 'familiar as household words' throughout the Middle and Western States, while as prompt and honorable business men they are endorsed by the best firms in their own city. Their Club system of selling goods has done more, we believe, during the past few years to keep down the prices of domestic articles in every day use, than all other influences combined. Most of their goods are manufactured expressly for them, as, for instance, cutlery made to their order in Sheffield, England, and imported in large quantities for their dollar trade alone."
Now is the time to get signers and send in clubs. Ladies specially wanted as agents.
Partial list of articles allowed as commission to any one sending in clubs:—
Club Of Thirty. [$3.] 21 yards of elegant bleached or unbleached cotton cloth. Photograph album, 100 pictures, elegant morocco binding, revolving oval band, silver plated table castor, 5 bottled, ladies' dress pattern, a ladie's richly-ornamented black walnut writing desk, fancy cassimere pants pattern, large white all linen table cover, white lancaster counterpane, 20 yards calico, alhambra red quilt, ladies' morocco shopping bag, good cottage clock.
Club Of Sixty. [$6.] 42 yards bleached or unbleached cotton cloth, fashionable dress pattern, 3 1-2 yards wool cassimere for pants and vest pattern, fashionable woolen shawl. White marseilles counterpane, lady's large genuine morocco shopping bag, lady's fashionable cloak pattern, pair good white woolen blankets, black alpaca dress pattern, 4 yards double width waterproof cloaking, 6 yards farmers' good wool frocking, set misses furs muff and collar.
Club Of One Hundred. [$10.] 66 yards good bleached or unbleached cotton cloth, one yard wide, lady's or gent's new silver hunting case watch, fashionable thibet dress pattern, elegant black alpaca dress pattern, one pair of good white woolen blankets, large size, ladies' fashionable double woolen shawl, two large, fine, bleached linen table covers, with one dozen large sized dinner napkins to match, 25 yards hemp carpeting, 4 1-2 yards fine cassimere for suit, one dozen ivory handled steel bladed knives and forks, one dozen Rogers' best silver plated forks on white metal, portable sewing and embroidering machine, 7 1-2 yards double-width waterproof cloaking, set of furs, muff and collar
It is impossible to give a complete list of goods, but agents desiring articles not named above, will please mention them, and we will accommodate them if possible. If you have a club ready, or intend to raise one for any other house, don't fail to send it to us, and at the same time ask for our New Circular and Mammoth Exchange List. Parties acting as agents for other dollar houses in this city, will please send us their address, and that of a dozen or so of their male and female friends, as we can make it for their advantage to do so.—Male and female agents wanted as usual.
SEND MONEY IN REGISTERED LETTERS in every instance, and we guarantee that it will come perfectly safe.
