speculators to the prejudice of the people.

Resolved, That we condemn that section in the late distribution bill which excludes foreigners from a participation in its benefits, and we believe it originated in the same political party that passed and supported the alien and sedition laws.

Resolved, That the whig congress, by contracting a debt of $12,000,000, in violation of their often repeated declarations, have verified the saying of a Roman consul, in the early days of that celebrated republic, "that professions and promises made before an election were not always fulfilled after it."

Resolved, That the late elections in Indiana, Ohio, Maine, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Georgia, New York, Mississippi, and Michigan, show that "the sober second thought of the people" will produce the triumph of democratic principles.

Resolved, That the whig party, in the new tariff, taxing the necessaries and exempting the luxuries of life, have given another proof of their adherence to their acknowledged creed: "Let the government take care of the rich and the rich will take care of the poor."

Resolved, That the people find, in the prices of produce and of labor, how false were the pledges of the federalists, and they mourn the absence of those good old times when democracy was predominant, and are determined again to re-establish what, in an evil hour, they were persuaded to put down.

Resolved, That, when state after state, heretofore considesed impregnable as the strong-holds of democracy, yielded to the seductions of artful federalism, our own Illinois continued steadfast in her democratic faith, and, as one of the seven stars in the political hemisphere whose light would not be dimmed, she sent forth the exhalations of her splendor among her betrayed sisters, to light them back to truth, justice, and virtue. In the recent elections we have our reward and our consolation, and it shall not be said that we, who stood the storm when waves were rough, are to let our light go out, in a season of such rejoicing and splendor to the cause of democracy, as that which now gladdens us from all parts of the Union.

Resolved, That the minority of the recent congress, in their firm and able resistance of the federal measures proposed, are entitled to the thanks of the democracy of Illinois. Our principles, in their hands, are sure of a good defence, and the people only want the occasion to add to their numbers, that their rule shall be in the ascendant.

Resolved, That democracy has its foundation deep in the everlasting fountains of humanity; that it rests for its support on truth and justice; its safety is in publicity; it eschews all partial and unequal legislation; and is sure to find sympathy with the masses, because it seeks the common good of all mankind.

Resolved, That federalism in power forgets right, is haughty and tyrannical, supports monopolies and partial privileges, takes to its bosom exacting banks, and provides only for the rich, leaving the poor to become dependants upon their stinted bounties.

Resolved, That, in a depreciated currency, the people are suffering great evils; that their patience, under suspended banks, has become exhausted; and that their demoralizing and mischievous influences can no longer be tolerated by a people who feel any proper impulses of justice and propriety.

Resolved, That we will continue to rally under the democratic banner, with this motto: "Union, harmony, concession, self-denial, every thing for the cause, nothing for men."

On motion of Mr. Prentice, of Shelby,

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed by the chair to act as a State Central Democratic Committee for the year 1842, and that they appoint committees of vigilance and correspondence in the several counties throughout this State.

Whereupon, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen, said committee, viz:

David B. Campbell, James Shepherd, and G. R. Wheeler, of Sangamon; James H. Ralston, of Adams; Thompson Campbell, of Jo Daviess; Nelson W. Nunnally, of Edgar, and John A. McClernand, of Gallatin.

On motion of Mr. Buffum, of Madison,

Resolved, That we urgently recommend to the Democracy of the several counties to require from their candidates of the Legislature at the approaching State election an assurance, that they will not under any circumstances, favor, advocate, or vote for, but on the contrary, oppose with all their might, any measure legalizing or acquiescing in the further suspension of specie payments by the Banks of this State.

On motion,

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to the officers of the Convention for the dignified and impartial manner with which they have performed their respective duties.

On motion,

Resolved, That the proceedings be published.

After several excellent addresses from several of the delegates, which elicited much applause, the Convention, on motion, adjourned sig. &c.

YORKVILLE STORE.

Messrs. Boughton & Parke,

[from the City of New York,]

RESPECTFULLY invite the attention of the public to a large and fresh stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, &c.

Which they have selected with great care, and now hold on sale at the old stand of R. S. DUryea, Esq., at Yorkville, Kendall county, Ill.

Good and desirable new Goods—no puffing;

Fully believing this, we shall let our goods tell their own story. Deeming it unnecessary to enumerate the particular articles and quantities, we shall ask the attention of the good people of Illinois to our general stock; assuring them that at all times it will give us pleasure to exhibit our goods, and trust that qualities and prices will not fail to please.

Perhaps it will not be amiss, to ask the ladies to examine some articles that may not be found in every country store. We refer to a lot of a new and splendid article for dresses;

Alapaca Lustres, for Cloaks; Sup. Blk. & Blue Blk. Rose De Soi Silks; Highland Plaids, for winter dresses.

Which, together with a large woodcock of STAPLE GOODS, makes our stock equal to any in the State.

Here we would just observe, that our long acquaintance and connexion with New York merchants will give us advantages that should be equalled. Call and see.

MANSION HOUSE

AND GENERAL STAGE OFFICE.

Ottawa, La Salle County, Ill.

THE subscriber having taken this commodious establishment recently kept by Ware & Lawton, in the south-east corner of the Public Square, is now prepared to accommodate the travelling community.

The situation is pleasant and central, being contiguous to the Post Office and Court House, and in the business part of the town. A daily line of stages arrives and departs for the East and West.

Private families who desire spending a short time in this city, will be furnished with parlors and chambers calculated to please the fancy, and render comfortable the most fastidious guests; and travellers will always find those accommodations which are always desired,—and the strict attendance of servants.

It would be superfluous to add that the table and bar will always be furnished with the choicest viands and liquors; and with a wish and exertion on his part to give entire satisfaction to those who may honor him with a call, he anticipates a liberal share of public patronage.

C. B. WARE.
