Home and Around.

HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP R.R.—WINTER ARRANGEMENT.—TIME TABLE.—On and after Sept. 16th, passenger trains will arrive and depart as follows:

Mail Train leaves Mt. Dallas at 1.10 p. m., arrives at Huntingdon at 4.21 p. m.; leaves Huntingdon at 9.05 a. m., and arrives at Mt. Dallas at 12.18 a. m.

Accommodation Train leaves Saxton 7.30 a. m., and arrives at Huntingdon, at 9.20 a.m.; leaves Huntingdon at 4.35 p. m., and arrives at Saxton at 6.27 p. m.

An adjourned court is in session this week. The attendance is slim, and the business seems to be ditto.

Assistant Assessors will soon be after calling upon our citizens for incomes and special taxes. Be ye also ready!

On last Saturday the Lutherans of St. Clairsville took the initiatory steps to build a new brick church the coming summer.

We notice that the subject of supplying our public schools with libraries, at the expense of our State, is favorably discussed in many newspapers.

Our Supreme Court has decided that the seller is bound to make a deed, and as a deed without stamps is worthless, the seller is bound to furnish them also.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO.—The best place to buy good brands of cigars and tobacco, is at Crouse's. Dan keeps up a reputation for selling none but the best.

Are you insured against loss by fire? If not, take out a policy at once at the Bedford Insurance Agency, Jno. G. Fisher, Agent. None but the best Companies represented.

The accommodating Regulator man, No. 2 Anderson's Row, is selling off his large stock of boots and shoes, queensware and glassware, &c., &c., at unprecedentedly low prices. Now is your time to buy.

INTERESTING DIALOGUE.—

Radical No. 1—Which is the organ of the "Republican" party of Bedford county, the Bedford Inquirer or the Bloody Run Press?

Radical No. 2.—Yes!

On last Saturday a vote was taken on the question of Postmaster for this Borough. A. S. Russell, J. G. Minnich and John Arnold were the candidates. The vote stood as follows: Russell, 170, Arnold 34, Minnich, 11. Russell's majority over both, 125.

The Reformed congregation of St. Clairsville have purchased four acres of land, adjoining the old church, for the purpose of making a cemetery.—Our informant tell us that no labor or expense will be spared to make the spot beautiful and attractive.

EGGS-ITING EGGS-AGGERATION.—It is now proposed to sell eggs by weight, instead of by the dozen. An exchange hopes not. Some eggs are very heavy—when they contain juvenile chickens; and to purchase poultry in that condition, at present prices, is by no means economical.

VELOCIPEDIANA.—The velocipede mania has fairly taken root in several of the cities of the country. It is all the talk, and already have schools been opened wherein to learn the knack of propelling and riding the curious but simple vehicle.

"Mud, mud, mud," is in everybody's mouth; and we have even seen it all over men's hats during the last week. Never have we beheld our streets in such wretched "stick-in-the-mud" condition. The bottom seems to have dropped out of some of them and gone to China.

SAW MILL BURNED.—On last Saturday night the saw mill of John Conrad, Esq., of Union tp., was destroyed by fire. Besides the mill the loss was increased by the destruction of shingles, seasoned lumber, &c. A lot of carpenter's tools were damaged. The fire is supposed to have originated from a stove in the mill in which fire had been during the day.

YOUNG HORSE THIEF.—Samuel Baily, a boy 15 years of age, stole a horse from Charles Stuckey, with whom he had been working, in Bedford tp., week before last, started off down the pike, and was overtaken about 3 miles east of Bedford, and the horse taken back. The boy then went back to Schellsburg, and on last Wednesday a week, stole a horse from the stable of Charles Colvin, and was pursued and overtaken near Johnstown, and arrested by Eli Rininger, brought to this place and lodged in Jail to await his trial.

The old hackneyed question, "Who discovered America" has been eclipsed by the following, which has become the subject of serious debate in every Radical meeting held in this county: "Which is the organ of the Radical party of Bedford county, the Bedford Inquirer or the Bloody Run Press? At last accounts the party was divided on the subject, the renegade Democrats taking sides with the Press and the regular "old lines" with the Inquirer. As soon as this troublesome question is disposed of, the novel one of "Which is the front end of a wind-mill" will be taken up. Elaborate essays have already been prepared by several young Rads on this all absorbing topic.

FIRE.—On last Saturday evening, about 8 o'clock, the usual quiet of our town was disturbed by the cry of "fire." This was occasioned by the discovery of fire in the splendid hardware establishment of Messrs. Hartley & Metzger, on the corner of Pitt and Richard streets. A large crowd of people was soon on the spot, the doors of the store were forced open, when it was found that the room was so densely packed with smoke that it was almost impossible to get near the fire, which was raging in the back part of the building. When the fire was reached, a liberal application of water soon conquered the destructive element. The loss sustained by the parties will reach in the neighborhood of $1,000, which is fully covered by insurance.

TOLL.—There are no less than six toll gates between this place and Somerset, going by the Somerset and Bedford Turnpike; that is a gate for every 6½ miles. If each gate keeper were made to use a shovel fifteen minutes in every twenty four hours, the road might be made passable. We doubt, however, whether these toll-houses were established for any such purpose. At any rate the road is now, and has been for several weeks, closed, at several points, by snow-drifts, which a little shoveling might remove. The toll, however, is the same, drifts or no drifts. We say to this company, keep open your road or close your toll houses.

AN ELECTION.—The Radicals of this neck of the woods, held an election on Saturday last, for the purpose of indicating their choice for Postmoster.—Mr. A. S. Russell received a large majority of the votes polled. Democrats are generally well satisfied with the result. Mr. Russell was a soldier who served his country faithfully, is a gentleman and will make an excellent Postmaster. He has been, during the last four years, clerk for Mr. Loyer, the present efficient Postmaster, who, though a Democrat, resigned some time since in favor of Mr. Russell, and secured the appointment of the latter by President Johnson. As the masses of the Radical party hereabouts have confirmed President Johnson's appointment, we presume the U. S. Senate will do likewise. "Our member of Congress" elect will scarcely object, although he and his immediate friends forgot to vote on Saturday last.

AN ACT to incorporate the Citizens' Co-operative Mutual Life insurance company of Bedford, Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Samuel L. Russell, O. E. Shannon, F. Benedict, W. A. Edwards, J. W. Dickerson, Daniel R. Anderson, E. F. Kerr, B. F. Meyers, Jacob B. Williams, Jeremiah E. Black, S. S. Fluck, J. W. Hughes, John Lutz, T. H. Lyons, J. R. Durborrow and J. M. Shoemaker, and their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body politic and corporate in law, under the name, style and title, of the Citizens' Co-operative Mutual Life insurance company of Bedford, and that by that name shall have perpetual succession, shall have a corporative seal, and be able to sue and be sued, implead, and be impleaded in all courts of record, and elsewhere, to purchase, receive, have, hold and enjoy, to them and their successors, such real estate as may be required by said company to carry out the objects of the said corporation, and to receive and invest all moneys in stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other security, as the said corporation, their successors or assigns may deem proper for the benefit of the association, and to sell, mortgage, and reinvest the same, according to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

Section 2. Any persons under the age of sixty years may become a member of the saidassociation, under such rules and regulations as shall be adopted by the by-laws of the company, and by signing an agreement to pay one dollar and ten cents on the death of any member, which each member shall be liable for, and in default of payment thereof, after thirty days' notice, shall cease to be a member, and shall forfeit all right, title and interest, in any insurance in said company, together with the amount he or she may have previously paid.

Section 3. The corporators aforesaid shall have the power to appoint a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, or such other officers as may be required to carry out the objects of said corporation, to serve until an election shall be held for the same, also to ordain, establish and put into execution such by-laws and regulations as may be necessary for the government of said company, not in contradiction of the charter, or of the Constitution of the United States, or of this Commonwealth, and generally to do all and singular the matters and things which to them it shall lawfully appertain to do for the well being of the company, and the due ordering and management thereof.

The incorporators named within, will meet on Tuesday, March 2, for the purpose of organization.

Persons who have chewed tobacco for twenty years, say that they can not bear to taste it after using a box of Heckerman's tobacco cure.

Everybody, who desires a good suit of clothes, made from the best materials, and in the latest and most fashionable style, will go to R. W. Berkstresser's clothing emporium, 1 door west of the Washington Hotel, and make their purchases.

Heckerman's tobacco cure is only 25 cts a box. Use no other.

Envelopes can be had at the Inquirer Book Store, from 10 cts. to 30 cts pr. pack. Note paper and foolscap from 15 cts. to 30 cts. pr. quire.

I want to rouse each sleepy head,
Who stand upon the brink,
Where yawning gulfs disclose the dead,
Who might, but did not, think.
I want to warn the living ones
Who blindly grope along,
Ye fathers, daughters, mothers, sons,
What perils round you throng!
Look out, my reader, are you free,
Or do you wear the mark?
Most all are blind and cannot see,
Yea, groping in the dark.
Catarrh, a demon in the head,
Consumption is its son;
Kills hosts, yea, countless millions, dead,
Perhaps you may be one.
That hacking, hawking, spitting, shows,
Catarrh effects your head,
Matter and slime in throat or nose,
Runs down your throat instead.
Your lungs and liver soon will show,
Consumption has its birth;
Catarrh, its sire, will feed it too,
'Till you return to earth.
If colds affect your head and throat,
ANNIHILATOR buy;
Now don't forget what I have wrote,
Or think this subject dry.
WOLCOTT'S ANNIHILATOR cures
Catarrh—the demon flies;
It saves the lungs, good health insures,
And Catarrh quickly dies.
I want to gratify my friends,
Who wish to understand
About PAIN PAINT, its use, its ends,
And why its great demand.
I want to show you, plain as day,
Why PAIN PAINT stops all pain,
That you may never have to say
"I'll not try paint again."
PAIN PAINT will cool but never stain;
Pumps inflammation out;
'Tis harmless on the breast or brain,
A trial stops all doubt.
When inflammation leaves the frame,
All pain will cease at once;
Remove the cause, 'tis all the same;
None doubts unless a dunce.
The pores will ope and drink PAIN PAINT;
Absorbents fill with ease;
Restores the weak, the sick, the faint,
The greatest skeptic please
Evaporation cools the place
As inflammation flies;
Hot blood at the absorbent's base
Makes PAINT in vapor rise.
'Tis thus PAIN PAINT removes all doubt,
Removes the very cause
By pumping inflammation out;
On this we rest our cause.
Wolcott's Pain Paint is sold at all Drug Stores; also, Wolcott's Annihilator, for the cure of Catarrh and Colds in the head. Sent by express on receipt of the money, at 181 Chatham Square, N. Y. R. L. Wolcott, Prop. feb26tw
