SEVENTH DISTRICT COURT FOR THE PARISH of Orleans, No. 9284.—By virtue of a writ of fieri facias against Marie Eliska Brugier, wife of Amilcar F. Roux, to me directed by the honorable the Seventh District Court for the parish of Orleans, in the above entitled cause, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, Royal street, between Canal and Customhouse streets, in the Second District of this city, on TUESDAY, April 30, 1872, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to wit—

A CERTAIN LOT OF GROUND, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, rights, ways, privileges, servitudes and advantages thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, situated, lying and being in the Second District of this city, on Orleans street, between Dauphine and Burgundy streets, having, French measure, on a plan drawn by John Communy, late surveyor, October 3, 1842, and deposited in the office of Jules Saint-three in the book of plans, in the office of Charles Boudousquie, late a notary public in this city, thirty-five feet front on Orleans street, bounded on the right side by the property of Charles Guesnard, or assigns, on which side the whole depth is seventy-one feet eight inches, and on the left side by an irregular line running from said Orleans street, and perpendicular to same, forty-four feet six inches, thence said lot narrows, and parallel with Orleans street, two feet nine inches, thence, perpendicular to Orleans street, twenty-seven feet two inches, which said irregular line divides said lot from property of Adelaide Alva, or assigns, so that said lot measures thirty-two feet three inches wide on the rear line to each of thirty-one feet seven inches and one line, by the following depths, viz: one hundred and forty-nine feet eight inches and five lines on the side line of lot number one, adjoining the Foucher property, one hundred and forty-nine feet eight inches and seven lines on the dividing line between lots numbers one and two, one hundred and forty-nine feet and nine inches on the dividing line between lots numbers two and three, and one hundred and forty-nine feet nine inches and one line on the dividing line between lot number three and the rear of lots numbers four to eight inclusive. Lots numbers four to thirteen, inclusive, adjoin each other, and measure, each, twenty-nine feet eleven inches and five lines front on Edmund street, by one hundred feet in depth, and a width in the rear to each of said lots numbers four, five, twelve and thirteen, of twenty-nine feet eleven inches and four lines, and to each of the other lots of twenty-nine feet eleven inches and three lines; and lot number four forms the corner of Edmund and Delord streets, and said lot number thirteen the corner of Edmund and Henry streets. Lots numbers fourteen and sixteen measure, each, thirty-two feet seven inches and five lines front on Henry street, and lot number fifteen measures thirty-two feet seven inches and six lines front on Henry street, with a width to each on its rear line of thirty-one feet seven inches and one li. e, by the following depths, to wit: one hundred and forty-nine feet nine inches and one line on the dividing line between lot number fourteen and the rear of lots numbers nine to thirteen inclusive, one hundred and forty-nine feet and nine inches on the dividing line between lots numbers fourteen and fifteen, one hundred and forty-nine feet eight inches and seven lines on the dividing line between lots numbers fifteen and sixteen, and one hundred and forty-nine feet eight inches and five lines on the dividing line between lot number sixteen and the rear of lot number nine. Being the same property acquired by J. J. Alston, defendant herein, by purchase from Frank C. Remick, as per act passed before Andrew Hero, Jr., a notary public in this city, on the eighteenth of July, 1870.

2. A CERTAIN SQUARE OF GROUND, together with the improvements thereon and all rights and privileges thereto belonging, situated in the Sixth District of this city (bated) in the parish of Jefferson, in this State), in that part thereof commonly called Burtheville, designated by the number one hundred and twenty-one, and bounded by the line of the Foucher de Cire property and Story, Delord and Edmund streets, as per sketch of the same and other property made by J. A. D'Hemecourt, surveyor, and annexed for reference to an act passed before Selim Magner, late a notary public in this city, on the fifth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine: which said square measures one hundred and ninety-one feet seven inches and six lines front on Story street, one hundred and ninety-one feet seven inches and six lines front on Delord street, two hundred and forty-nine feet front on Edmund street, and two hundred and forty-nine feet front on the line dividing it from the Foucher de Cire property, all American measure. Being the same property which J. J. Alston, defendant herein, acquired by purchase from George Bevan, by act passed before Andrew Hero, Jr., notary public in this city, on the seventeenth day of May, 1870.
