A CARD.

I desire to notify my many friends in St. Mary's County, and to new customers, that I have discontinued and sold out my General Merchandise business at Ridge, Md., and have removed to Baltimore City, engaged in other pursuits.

In severing my connection with the good people of this section of the county, with whom I have done business many years, I desire to express my sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude, for their courteous treatment and liberal patronage.

The business will be conducted by my son Harry Shuman, who will collect all outstanding bills due me. ...
