Slidell Items.

Mr. and Mrs Scott Hughes, of South Point, La., celebrated their silver wedding Dec. 24. Quite a number from Slidell and a few employees of the Queen and Crescent road were delightfully entertained at their lake shore home Mr. Hughes has been in the service of the Northeastern railroad since its construction, and Mrs. Hughes is principal of the public school here. She is a sweet amiable lady and a devoted teacher. Mr. and Mrs Hughes were married in Circleville, Ohio, and came to New Orleans shortly after. The twenty-five years of married life has passed pleasantly and time has dealt kindly with them The home was beautifully decorated with silver ropes, X-mas holly and a profusion of flowers. A dainty lunch was served and table was artistically decorated with roses and chrysanthemums. Many beautiful presents were received and all joined in wishing them many happy returns of the day.

Miss Sarah Hughes, after spending the holidays with relatives in New Orleans, has returned.

Mr. Willie Crary of Slidell visited friends here during the holidays.

Miss Mary B. Semple has returned after spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. S. Love, of New Orleans, spent a few days in Slidell with friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Gazin entertained their friends at a watch meeting last Saturday night in their country home.

A happy New Year to the dear old FARMER.

MRS. S GUZMAN.

He Understood.

Barton Holmes, the lecturer, says that the Indians of Alaska regard white men and canned goods as so closely associated that they are nearly synonymous. Wherever the white man is seen canned meats, fruits and vegetables are found.

When Mr. Holmes visited Alaska recently he carried with him a phonograph, and it was exhibited to an old chief who had never seen a talking machine before. When the machine was started and the sound of a human voice came from the trumpet, the Indian was much interested. He listened gravely for a time, and then approached and peered into the trumpet.

When the machine finished its cylinder and stopped, the Indian pointed at it, smiled an expansive smile, and remarked:

Huh! Him canned white man." Saturday Evening Post.

FORCED TO STARVE.

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky, says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At Watkin's City Drug Store and Jos. S. Claverie, Druggist. Only 25c.

A. D. Ruck, a civil engineer of Detroit, has started from St. Louis to New Orleans. This because he lost a wager made last month in his home city. He and a friend were discussing the Chicago-Michigan University football game, which was about to be played. Buck agreed should the Chicago men lose to walk from St. Louis to New Orleans. Having lost the wager he is now enroute between the cities named. He is to receive $80 a month for the time he is away, and if he completes his walk within ninety days he will receive double pay. He started without a cent in his pocket and must pick up a living as best he can.

PLEASANT AND MOST EFFECTIVE.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasantest remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used. 25c, 50c and $1 00. Sold by J. S. Claverie, Covington, and Crescent Drug Co., Slidell.

Devoe's Phophecies.

Advises Cotton Planters to Hold Their Cotton and not to Burn it.

The New York World is responsible for the following: According to Prof. Andrew J. Devoe, the prophet of Hackensack, N. J, 1905 will see an orange famine, a cotton panic, a bad day for inauguration, a severely hot summer and a cyclonic storm which will sweep the Atlantic Coast from Maine to Florida.

At his home in Hackensack, N. J, Prof. Devoe said yesterday:

"Let all prepare for a small blizzard about Jan. 6. It will continue January 12, 13 and 15. Up to Jan. 25 it will be severely cold. In February it will again become severely cold. On Feb. 6 there will be a big snow storm, but the severest storm of the month will occur between the 19th and 22nd.

Orange planters in the Gulf States who are allowing the fruit to remain on the trees should pick them now because a great storm and killing frost is about to sweep that section. All oranges not picked before Jan. 6 will be destroyed. Cotton planters who are preparing to burn their surplus should store it, because the crop this year will be slim. It will all be burned by the sun

"The important event in March will be the inaguration. The weather on March 3 and 4 will be cloudy and threatening, and a heavy storm is due on the 5th.

"For the United States, 1905 will be a peaceful year But the Russian-Japanese war will have to terminate within the next six months, or the United States and Great Britain will interfere, without bloodshed. Both sides will lose, but Russia will have to evacuate Manchuria.

"A great storm is coming in the middle of May. The summer will be one of the hottest on record; December will be one of the coldest months ever known. Cattle and cotton will suffer terribly from the summer heat.

SENT HER DOUBLE.

"I knew no one for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at J. L. Watkin's City Drug Store and Jos. S. Claverie, Druggist; price 50c.

Byron was parting from the Maid of Athens.

"Athens," her said soulfully, "is the lovliest place on earth. I can never efface it from my memory"

"Why don't you try benzine?" queried the lady, who had the poet's heart for the ounce.

"Benzine?" asked Byron, thinking he had misunderstood her.

"Yes" she responded. "It will remove Greece spots."

And Byron took the night boat for home.—Chicago Journal.

BOUGHT CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY AND SENT IT TO FRIENDS.

Mr F. W. J. Fletcher, a druggist in Victoria, Australia; says: "A customer of mine was so pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which she had used for her children when suffering from colds and croup, that during a fortnight's time she obtained at my shop nine bottles, which she sent to her friends, in different parts of the State, telling them how much good it had done, and advising them to give it a trial." For sale by Jos. S. Claverie, Druggist.
