BREED THEATER.

High Class Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.

A large assembly of first-nighters attended the Monday evening presentation of the very interesting bill at the Breed theater. Truly, variety being the spice of life, this if a very spicey programme, covering as it does a picture of the time of Louis XV. and one occuring in Rome during the old days, and even a New England scene of great beauty, this one being the feature picture of the week. It is entitled The Girl at the Old Mill, and is a love story, woven about some rural characters, and contains many of the most interesting and beautiful views seen in a long time. The scene at the mill, with the old flume, undershot water wheel, and a generous supply of ducks, is one that makes this a very successful film, and one that never fails to make a hit.

A splendid Roman picture is In Bondage, and is a great innovation in the moving picture world.

The very attractive bill includes The Scar, hand colored; Sammy Celebrates; Nick Carter's Double, Calling Day and A Rude Awakening.

One of the hits of the evening was Mr. Cooper's pretty song, You'll Be Sorry Just Too Late," as was Madam Morelle's "I Miss You More and More Every Day."

GIRL FARMERS.

Two Meriden Stenographers to Raise Fruit and Chickens in West Indies.

Two Meriden girls are going about 1,500 miles away to embark in the business of raising chickens and oranges.

Miss Marion E. Pomeroy and Miss Anna M. Marshall sailed Saturday noon on a Ward line steamship for Havana, and from there will journey to the Isle of Pines, some distance south of Cuba, and there locate. The girls have about thirty acres of land in this famous garden spot and this will be devoted to orange groves and chickens.

Miss Pomeroy has for some time been employed as stenographer at the factory of E. Miller & Co., and is an expert shorthand writer, as is also Miss Marshall, who has been stenographer with Simpson, Hall & Miller of Wallingford. Miss Marshall is the daughter of W. H. Marshall, foreman of the Journal press room, and Miss Pomeroy is a cousin of Miss Mary E. Pomeroy, assistant city clerk.

The young women have been studying the situation for some time, and after careful investigation decided to purchase the land, and already have a home in course of building there, so that on arrival they will have a house ready for occupancy. The land is so fertile and the climate so good that almost any tropical fruit or vegetable may be raised, and the oranges from that section are said to be very fine.

The girls also understand that there is a splendid market for chickens in Havana and that their eggs and chickens can be profitably disposed of there. They are taking incubators with them and will begin at once to get chickens for early market.

Teacher from Boston.

Miss Ora Galusha of Boston has been appointed teacher in the Bethel High school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Alice Brown of White Plains, who returned to her home on account of illness. Miss Galusha is a graduate of Vassar.

CHILD'S NIGHT DRAWERS.

Paris Pattern No. 2609 — All Seams Allowed.

White eiderdown, French or Canton flannel, flannelette or cambric are used for these comfortable little garments, which the restless child should have in preference to the usual night gown, as they are far warmer and afford more protection from the cold. The front of the one illustrated is gathered to the square yoke, and the bishop sleeves are gathered into cuffs of the material finished with a narrow edging of lace. The drawers are made with or without feet, according to taste, and close at the center-back with small pearl buttons.

The pattern is in five sizes—1 to 9 years. For a child of 4 years the night drawers require 3 yards of material 27 inches wide or 2¾ yards 36 inches wide, 1¼ yards of edging.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

Order through The Bulletin Company Pattern Dept., Norwich, Conn.

Danbury Dog Settled Account in One Day's Work.

John Evans of Danbury has a dog which is a successful fox hunter. The country surrounding Mr. Evans' place is quite thickly populated with foxes and occasionally they try to get a meal from Mr. Evans' chicken yards. Mr. Evans' hound has learned the ways of the foxes and early Saturday morning he started out. He laid for Mr. Fox on his way down to the chicken yard and caught him. When the dog came home he brought his prize, a big gray fox. "The dog has paid his license for this year, all right," said Mr. Evans. "With the bounty for the fox and the price of the fine skin he did a good day's work."

SPANISH SWINDLE

Has Been Transferred to South America.

Representative Frank Arrigoni of Durham has received several letters from South America asking him to help a political prisoner out of jail. The writer claims to have a large sum of money hidden away and offers to divide the amount with Representative Arrigoni. Mr. Arrigoni has consulted a lawyer and several telegrams have been sent to New York in an effort to catch the swindlers. The scheme is only a variation of the old Spanish swindle that has been worked so successfully.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. The Lurid Glow of Doom was seen in the red face, hands and body of the little son of H. M. Adams, of Henrietta, Pa. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Lee & Osgood Co.

"Dignity Is What We Use To Conceal Our Ignorance" is Elbert Hubbard's definition of the word dignity.

Unquestionably Elbert is correct, and every thinking person will agree with him.

Think of the people with dignity and compare those having it naturally. He who has it naturally, combined with ability, is a great success in life. Those with assumed dignity are—well, they are understood and discounted by the public.

We've no dignity, natural or assumed, and if its use was attempted by us the public would discount it. Let the public estimate us correctly; give us credit for a thorough knowledge of the photograph business; for doing work at reasonable prices. Years of experience in this business exclusively entitles us to it.

40 HORSES 40

Another carload just here, making a total of 50 need on hand. I don't think a better lot of horses can be found in any stable, and anyone to equal this bunch will have to go some. Ten nice big drafters in pairs and single. Balance chunks, drivers and general purpose horses. Furthermore, no dealer in Connecticut can sell horses of the same class cheaper than I can, or will. At the same terms, for cash, I will undersell them all. Come and see me or telephone.

HORSES

I will have One Hundred Horses at my stables this week for sale. These horses are all fresh Ohio and Iowa horses. They are bought by my buyers direct from the farmers and are all choice horses. I don't buy horses in Chicago, St. Louis or Indianapolis markets, where the horses are full of distemper; but are all fresh, and that is worth a good deal to the buyer who buys them. I have twenty head of large draft horses that will weigh 3400 pounds to the pair, twenty express horses and some very handsome farm chunks. These horses are all well broke, single and double. Saddle Horses and Fast Pacers.

I wish you would please call at my stables before buying anywhere else. I am sure I can satisfy you and sell you horses for less money than any man in New England for the quality that I handle. I have done lots of business in Norwich with the best of firms. I know I can save you 10 per cent., and that is worth looking after.
