Be it known that on this seventh day of the month of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-fourth:

Before me, Harvey E. Ellis, a notary public, duly commissioned and qualified, in and for the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses herein after named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, all of full age, who severally declare that, availing themselves of the provisions of Act 112 of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, for the year 1882 and the laws of the State relative to the organization of Corporations for Literary, Scientific, Religious, Charitable, and other purposes, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree and bind themselves as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law, for the objects and purposes and under the stipulations, articles and conditions, following, to-wit:
