CHARTER
HOULTON LUMBER COMPANY.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany.

Be it known that on this the 10th day of July, A. D., 1912, before me, Harvey E. Ellis, a notary public in and for the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, all of full age and residents of St. Tammany parish, La., who severally declared that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this State relative to corporations and their organization, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree, and bind themselves as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated wtih them, to form and constitute a body politic in law, for the purposes and objects, and under the stipulations, articles and conditions following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name and title of said corporation shall be the

and its domicile is hereby established at Houltonville, St. Tammany parish, Louisiana; and under its corporate name, said corporation shall have power and uthority to contract sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal, and the same to break and alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, have, purchase, improve, alienate, convey, sell, borrow, pledge, mortgage and hypothecate, under its said corporate name, property real, personal and mixed; to name and appoint such officers, directors, agents and managers or employees as the interest or convenience of said corporation may require; to make and establish by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and regulation of its affairs, as may be deemed necessary and proper, and the same to change and alter at pleasure; and do all other acts and things permitted by law, and as shall be necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation.

Said corporation, unless sooner dissolved, in accordance with its charter, shall exist and continue for a period of ninety-nine years from and after the date hereof.

The President, or in his absence, the Vice President, or in the absence of both, the Secretary, shall be the proper persons upon whom citation and other legal process shall be served; and the President, or in his absence, the Vice President, shall be authorized to bring all suits and legal proceedings on behalf of this corporation.

ARTICLE II.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are hereby declared to be, to operate and run a saw and plaining mill and mills in the parishes of St. Tammany, Tangipahoa and Washington, in the State of Louisisiana, or elsewhere; to manufacture, transport, buy and sell lumber and its by-products; to lease buy and sell timber lands and other real estate; to carry on a general business for the manufacture and sale of turpentine, rosin and their by-products; to cunduct a general mercantile business or businesses; to build, own or lease and operate barges, lighters, sail, gasoline and steam vessels; to construct, maintain, own or lease and operate tramways or log roads, and generally to do all things that are necessary, incidental to or connected with the carrying on of said businesses and the objects and purposes hereinabove set forth.

ARTICLE III.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Five Hundred Thousand and No One-Hundredths ($500,000.00) Dollars, divided into and represented by Five Thousand (5000) shares of the par value of One Hundred and No One-Hundredths ($100.00) Dollars each, which stock may be issued at not less than par for cash, or in payment or exchange for property or rights actually received or purchased by said corporation, provided that all stock shall be paid for in full within six months after same shall have been subscribed for, and no stock shall be issued unless the consideration therefor has been received by said corporation.

All stock certificates shall be signed by the President and Secretary of said corporation, and all transfers of stock shall be made on the books of said company, at its offices on the surrender of the certificate.

No stockholder shall have authority or right to sell or otherwise dispose of his stock in whole or part without first giving the Board of Directors ten (10) days written notice of his intention or desire to dispose of any of his stock or a part thereof, and allowing the Board of Directors or in its default, any stockholder, the first opportunity of purchasing the stock.

This corporation shall commence doing business as soon as Three Hundred Thousand and No-One Hundredths ($300,000.00) Dollars of its capital stock shall have been subscribed for, as above provided.

ARTICLE IV.

The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors which shall consist of three (3) stockholders; a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said Directors shall be elected annually from among the stockholders on the 1st day of January of each year, commencing on the 1st day of January, 1913.

Notice of such election shall be given by two (2) publications in a newspaper published in St. Tammany parish, La., within fifteen (15) days immediately preceding said election.

At said election, and at all other meetings of the stockholders the voting shall be by ballot, and each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote by the owner in person, or by written proxy.

Within ten days of their election as above provided for, the Board of Directors shall elect from among their number a President, a Vice President, and a Secretary and Treasurer, provided one person may hold the office of both Secretary and Treasurer, and all of said officers and directors shall hold their respective offices for a period of one (1) year from the date of their election, or until their successors are elected. But the failure to hold an annual election, or to elect the officers as provided for, shall not result in a dissolution of this corporation but the then Board of Directors and officers shall hold their offices until their successors are duly elected.

Any vacancies occurring in said Board of Directors shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board for the unexpired term, at a meeting called for that purpose, after five (5) days notice in writing, sent by mail to said directors at their last known residence.

The said Board of Directors shall have the power to make all by-laws rules and regulations for the proper management and conduct of the affairs of this corporation, and to change, alter, abolish and amend same at pleasure, and shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by law on this corporation, and as set forth generally above.

The said Board of Directors may also delegate any of said powers in the transaction of the business of this corporation, to committees of their own body or to the officers and agents of this corporation.

The first Board of Directors of this corporation are hereby declared to be William L. Houlton, Fred A. Lewis and Richard G. Latta, with William L. Houlton as president, Richard G. Latta as vice president, and Fred A. Lewis as secretary-treasurer, who shall hold their respective offices until the first day of January, 1913, or until successors are duly elected and qualified.

ARTICLE V.

This corporation may be dissolved by a vote of three-fourths of the capital stock thereof present at a general meeting convened for that purpose after forty days advertisement in newspaper published in St. Tammany parish, La., immediately preceding said meeting and written notices of the objects of said meeting sent to each stockholder thirty (30) days immediately prior to said meeting, at his last known place of residence.

Whenever this corporation is dissolved, whether by liquidation or otherwise, it affairs shall be liquidated by two liquidating commissioners to be elected at a general meeting, and in case of death or disability of any of said commissioners, the surviving commissioner shall appoint a successor from among the stockholders, and together they shall continue said liquidation to its termination.

ARTICLE VI.

This charter may be changed, altered or amended, and the capital stock increased or decreased, by a vote of two-thirds of the capital stock issued, at a general meeting called for that purpose, after thirty (30) days prior notice in writing having been sent to each stockholder at his last known residence, stating the object of said meeting, and forty (40) days advertisement in a newspaper published in St. Tammany parish, Louisiana, in which the object of the meeting is also stated.

ARTICLE VII.

No stockholder shall be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the company on shares of stock owned by him, nor shall any mere informality in the organization herein have the effect of rendering this charter null, or of exposing any stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance due on his stock.

Thus done and passed in my office in the town of Covington, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, on the day, month and year hereinabove mentioned, and in the presence of W. A. White and J. Emmett Williams, competent witnesses who have hereunto signed their names with the said appearers and me, notary after reading of the whole.

(Signed)

Wm. L. Houlton .....2998 shares.
Richard G. Latta .....1 share.
Fred A. Lewis .....1 share

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride.

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskill a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Texas, "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

ITEM NO. 2

THE SQUARE DEAL WINS.

Yes, square dealing every day with every customer will bring results; but you must have the goods, the place, the facilities and the men to do business with. This is what we want to tell you about now. We are located near the junction of the New Orleans and Northeastern and the New Orleans Great Northern Railroads.

We have the same freight rates from all points that New Orleans has; therefore can get goods to our warehouses as cheap as New Orleans merchants can.

We pay less tax.

We pay no rent.

We are located near the depots and drayage is a small item.

We can deliver freight for shipment up to 5 o'clock p. m. every day, thereby guaranteeing immediate shipments.

We are 35 miles nearer the trade we serve (Southeast Louisiana and Southwest Mississippi) than New Orleans, and can therefore make quicker shipments and give you lower freight rates.

We buy in car loads, carry a large stock and can fill your orders

We carry groceries, fresh and salt meat and lard, feed, oil and gasoline, barbed wire fencing all heighths, nails, stoves and ranges, hardware, cutlery, harness and saddlery, furniture, dry goods, notions, shoes, hosiery, hats, clothing, men's haberdashery, trunks, traveling bags, paints, oils, drugs and patent medicines, wagons, buggies, fertilizer, field and garden seeds, dynamite, caps and fuse etc.

Our aim is to carry "everything for the home and farm."

Remember our motto: "Every deal a square deal." Everything sold "your money back if not satisfied."
