Modern Woodmen in New London Parade—Commercial Travelers Working up Springfield Party—Degree Work by Sachem Chapter—Fourth of July Picnic for Germania Lodges—Whists and Dance.

HIBERNIANS.

Division No. 1, A. O. H., successfully conducted a whist and dance in T. A. B. hall on Thursday evening with a large number attending, who enjoyed the play at cards from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock, and the dancing that followed. The general committee in charge included Michael J. Dwyer, president of the division, Patrick Murphy and M. J. Malone, who were assisted during the evening by John E. Donnelly, Michael Houlihan, James McCarthy, D. J. O'Neill and Michael O'Connor. Those to take prizes were the following: Firsts—Walter Hynds, 39, a silk umbrella; Miss Annie O'Neill, 44, a silk umbrella; seconds—John McCarthy, 35, a necktie, and Miss Bessie Swanton, 42, a salad dish.

There were also tables for the game of forty-five, at which Frank J. Murtha, president of Division No. 2, and Michael Fogarty were tied when the scores were counted up for first place. On the cut Mr. Murtha took the prize, a box of cigars.

Drew's orchestra played for dancing until midnight.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

Norwich council, No. 720, held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening at the Buckingham Memorial and is to hold a third stated meeting this month on the evening of the 31st so as to take action on names that are before the council for membership. The brothers of Norwich council are getting right into line for the county initiation which is to take place in New London on June 2d, and will have a larger number to present for initiation than the council has shown at any time for the past four or five years. E. S. Willard has been made chairman of the committee to look after the transportation of the council members for this occasion and the arrangements are for them to leave here on the 6.45 p. m. trolley. A party of twenty-five to accompany the candidates is in prospect, including most of the council officers. The work for the county initiation is to be performed by a team made up from the Connecticut grand council.

EASTERN STAR.

Sachem chapter, No. 57, Worthy Matron Annie L. Rawson presiding, held a meeting of much interest and with a good attendance on Wednesday evening at the Buckingham Memorial. After the regular business was transacted there was initiation, which was nicely carried out, and was followed by refreshments served under direction of the entertainment committee.

L'UNION ST. JEAN BAPTISTE D'AMERIQUE.

Lafayette council, No. 307, held only a brief meeting Thursday evening in Foresters' hall, as there was nothing but routine business to be transacted. The plan to decorate the French soldiers' graves in the Norwich Town cemetery, which was brought up at the former meeting, has resulted in a decision to postpone this until next year, principally for the reason that it was thought by the majority that the time was too short now to make the arrangements.

MODERN WOODMEN.

Members of Ionic and Norwich camps of this city and Cochegan camp of Montville took part in the big demonstration and parade in New London on Thursday night which was a welcome to National Lecturer Edward F. Burns of Rock Island, Ill., who was the principal speaker at the open meeting held in Lyric hall. New London camp, No. 7523, and White Oak camp, No. 10,608, had their degree teams in uniform.

With red fire and torches the Woodmen marched around the Sailors' and Soldiers' monument, down Bank street, through Howard to Bliinman, to Reed, and back to Lyric hall by way of Bank and State streets. Four stalwart Woodmen, Simon J. O'Connor, Benjamin Boylen, John McGarry and Dennis J. Heffernan, rode on prancing steeds at the head of the procession. About 150 Woodmen were in line, marshaled by Capt. Charles B. Field.

In the rear of the parade was an auto, driven by Brendt Erickson, which contained National Lecturer Burns, State Deputy Joseph R. Hughes of Hartford, Venerable Consul Christopher G. Collins of New London camp and Venerable Consul M. Christian Rassmussen of White Oak camp.

On the return to Lyric hall, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion, State Consul William T. Connor of New London opened the meeting. He spoke of Woodcraft in New London and the state and introduced Mr. Burns and Mr. Hughes. The former spoke interestingly of the career of the order and was emphatic in his praise of the work being done at the sanitarium for consumptives established by the Woodmen at Colorado Springs.

Miss Jennie O'Brien sang, accompanied by Mrs. Stevens on the piano. Prof. James Melcher, assisted by Simon J. O'Connor, performed in sleight-of-hand and tricks of magic.

The meeting is expected by those who had it in charge to cause a big boom for the M. W. of A. in New London and vicinity.

UNITED COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.

All things are shaping up finely for a big delegation of the members of Norwich council to attend the grand council meeting in Springfield, June 9-10-11, so that from the indications some of the local members are counting on seeing the local council among the prize winners for proportionate attendance. Many of the Norwich men will be accompanied by their wives and ladies.

The first two days—Thursday and Friday—will be largely occupied with the business sessions, but on Friday evening there is to be a lawn fete. Saturday, the 11th, is the parade day, when the councils having the largest number in line get prizes in proportion to their membership, and it is here that Norwich stands a chance to win out, it is thought. The Springfield council is not telling just exactly what the other entertainment plans for the day are to be, withholding this announcement till Friday evening, the 10th, but they are saying enough to raise the highest expectation of a royal good time. All that the Norwich members are hoping for this time is good weather, so that they will not have to have a rainy day parade like last year in Providence.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.

Last Monday evening Sebequonash council, No. 11, held its regular meeting in Foresters' hall, Pocahontas Ada Lathrop presiding, having a good attendance. In the two meetings in next month the business of the council will be nomination and election.

The business meeting was followed by the Neosha club whist, which will be the last for a little time, as the important business meetings next month will interfere with whist evenings. They had 17 tables playing, and the following were the prize winners: Firsts—Miss Anna Bresnan, fancy dish, 44; Walter Hynds, pair of suspenders, 45. Seconds—Louisa Manchester, match receiver, 40; E. Porter Rogers, hanging candlestick, 27. Consolations—H. E. Lewis and Mrs. H. Rich. Bad weather has followed the club on all the evenings this season, as they have not had a fine night, but their gatherings have always been pleasant social affairs. They are soon to be resumed.

SONS OF HERMANN.

Germania lodge, No. 11, has decided upon July 4th as its picnic day to celebrate its anniversary, and is to have Herwegh lodge of New London and the lodge from Hartford to help in the celebration. The regular anniversary date is June 11th, but the celebration could not be held just then because of other conflicting engagements which would take away a good number of the lodge members, so that the later date was chosen. The committee is to meet soon and select the place for the picnic, which is to be made one of the best events conducted in years by the German people of this city.

REBEKAHS.

At the last regular meeting of Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F., they received and accepted an invitation from Hope Rebekah lodge, Na. 19, of Westerly, R. I., to visit them on the evening of Thursday, June 2d. The lodge in Westerly is to have a visit then from the president, vice president and board of officers of the Rhode Island state assembly.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

Sedgwick corps, No. 16, at its meeting on Friday afternoon at the Buckingham Memorial had a large attendance and much of the time was spent in discussion Memorial day plans. All the members were given to understand that they had very earnest invitations to come out and help on that day, although there are special committees in charge, but there will be work for every hand to do. One new member was initiated. A report of social interest was received from the corps president, Mrs. Eva W. Caulkins, who was the representative at the Noroton Solliers' home on visiting ady last week.

GRAND ARMY.

One new member for the Citizens' corps was taken in on Friday evening at the regular meeting of Sedgwick post, No. 1. The concluding arrangements of the observance of Memorial day were made, and everything is reported ready for Monday.

SONS OF VETERANS.

Sedgwick camp, No. 4, held a meeting on Friday evening in the Buckingham Memorial, adjourned from last Monday evening, and initiated three new members in good form. Commander Alvin O. Fairbanks conducted the meeting, and final arrangements were made about the part the Sons of Veterans are to take in assisting the Grand Army on Memorial day. By the next meeting the camp's degree team will be in form to work.

TO ORDAIN FIVE PRIESTS.

Ceremony in St. Joseph's Cathedral Next Monday Morning—Willimantic Candidate.

The Right Rev. Bishop Nilan will on next Monday morning ordain to the priesthood the Rev. Paul Keating, the Rev. Denis Moran, the Rev. William Cavanagh, the Rev. Andrew Komara and the Rev. Caspar Panik. The ceremony will begin at 9.30 o'clock at St. Joseph's cathedral, Hartford.

The Rev. Paul Keating is a native of South Manchester and received his early education in the local public schools. He is an alumnus of St. Thomas' seminary, Hartford, and St. John's seminary, Brighton, Mass. He has been a prefect of discipline at St. Thomas' seminary.

The Rev. William Cavanagh of Norwalk made his classical course at St. Bonaventure college, Allegheny, N. Y., and his immediate studies for the priesthood at the Grand seminary, Montreal, and St. John's Brighton, Mass.

The Rev. Denis Moran was born in Willimantic and made his grammar school studies at St. Joseph's parochial school. His college course was made at St. Thomas' and Montreal college. His philosophy and theology were made at St. John's, Brighton.

The Rev. Caspar Panik of Olyphant, Pa., was born in Hungary and completed his studies for the ministry in St. John's, Brighton.

The Rev. Andrew Komara of Olyphant, Pa., made his college course at St. Thomas' and his philosophy and theology in St. John's, Brighton.

Ford Breaks Auto Sales Record for New York During Week Ending April 9th

It has broken this record every week since, and still maintains the lead as the largest seller.

The printed statement herewith is a true and accurate list of auto registrations in New York state for the week ending April 9th, 1910. The Ford not only leads the list, but it is the largest registration of any one car for any one week since the beginning of the automobile industry. All of which goes to show that the public have awakened to the fact that $950 is enough to pay for an automobile, and that a Ford at this price is just as desirable from every standpoint as that of a much higher-priced machine.
