MR. EDITOR:

"Sint unicuique sua premia."

Lever says: "when a man stoops to be kicked in this world, he'll always find some kind friend ready to oblige him with the compliment." No sooner did I stoop to vindicate my production from the aspersion of vileness which the Rev. Mr. Green so gratuitously put upon it, than the hue and cry is started after me, as if I were some literary outlaw, some moral lepero; and gents with names and nameless gents take up the view-halloa in diapason fine. One, two, three; two leaders and a flunky set out "to do or die" and make of me such an example to future evil-doers, that none may dare to look askance at "non-resisting pastors," nor doubt their spirit "of meek forbearance."

"It is the wit, the policy of sin,
To hate those men we have abused."

The staccato notes of Mr. Green's fish horn sound the reveille; the roulade of Mr. Bishop announces the gathering, and Mr. "Logic" (the man in the mask, the ami de la maison, the volunteer in a private quarrel,) performs the ouverture de la chasse on some cracked syllogisms and spavined opinions.

And why this alarum?

"A defunct editor," a disbeliever in Missionary politics and the three per cents of the Apostolic dives, has dared to "revisit the glimpses of the moon" and disturb the snugly raked up ashes on the clerical hearth. "I'll cross it, though it blast me," says G; "let me not burst in ignorance," says B; "thou comest in such a questionable shape, that I will speak to thee," says Logic, and

"Unless these b * * * of eternal pains
"Are pardoned their bad hearts for their worse brains," no gentle spirit would ever stand a chance before such claqueurs of an oft' hissed drama.

I have battled against the political ascendancy of the Missionaries, as inconsistent with their nobler and holier functions—as tending to draw disgrace and public contumely on a calling, which none can respect more highly than myself when it is exercised in singleness of purpose and purity of heart—and as proving invariably injurious to the moral and material interests of the converts themselves. I combatted the errors of a class which I believed and still believe to be such, but I mercifully spared the individuals and never yet put my foot on a man's conscience nor my hand on his private life.

This was unpardonable.

From that moment my picture was turned against the wall of their imagination; the public journals in their interest were let loose upon me, and "Christian pastors" stood by with folded arms and approving looks while my good name and moral character were torn to shreds. "What is the use," says Fowler, "of painting moral pictures without we daub the shades on thickly?"

It boots not now to recapitulate the strife; their bitter objurgations and their sore laments. "Time at last sets all things even." They commenced a descent (malgre, bongre) from the political ladder—though some still occupy the highest raund—and I retired from the public life of a Journalist. They could not forego, however, the opportunity of having a parting fling at my expense and put their vise on my passport. Mr. G. steps out of their serried ranks to perform the agreeable duties of sexton, chorister and priest to a "defunct editor;" but, alas for the dignity of the cloth! he only verified the old adage, that "quarrelsome dogs get dirty coats." I admit that in my reply to Mr. G. I may have failed in my usual urbanity, when I called him and his "class of writers" bigoted, stripped and fallen, forgetting the amphibious nature of their pursuits and the delicate ground of their position—but men have sometimes intuitive glances at the truth, and the sequel bore me out in the assertion. Still from my soul I regret having occasioned so great a rumpus among such nice people.

Ere Mr. G., however, was aware of my re-appearance, and his own wounds, the Rev. Mr. B. with breathless haste comes to the rescue and attempts to cover me with a mantle of epithets more aromatic of St. Giles than of Andover. He took the tub of Diogenes for his model of literary architecture and, with greater pride, he trampled on my own. If such their weapons and their future play, there was no other resource left for a gentlemanly writer, than to quit the game, though he forfeited the stakes; and with my best bow and my blandest smile I made my salaam, and even offered my hand at parting. Not so, however. The proffered gage is thrown up and Mr. Logic bars the door.

Well be it so—

"The hand of Douglas is his own."

and now for the last comer.

Mr. Logic has evidently not had the honor of crossing pens with gentlemen, or he would not presume to bandy my name about while he withholds his own. From his style I am strongly inclined to believe him an enfant gatè of the peripatetic school, with a strong dash of wooden nutmegs in his constitution, looking for an opening to pitch in.

I give Mr. L. all credit for not writing "a long article." The sample before me is quite enough to convince the critical student that Mr. L. did not receive "the honors" at Cambridge or Harvard. "Perhaps he had better try" again at Punahou. Luck is all.

Mr. L. will oblige me and remember that "the advocating the use of wine etc" has not yet been proved vile, nor probably will it in his or my life-time. As his major term then is not a constant predicate, an admitted truth, ergo Mr. Green's opinion, as the minor term, is not admissible before such strict logicians as Mr. Logic and myself.

I appreciate the full value of Mr. L's compliment to my honesty. My companions are declared vile, and my honesty is appealed to not to deny the connection! Have we an embryo Chesterfield or Count d'Orsay among us?

I wonder that Mr. L. should make Mr. Green's confusion of mind dependant upon an ex post facto fact; and did he not tell me that his name was Logic, I should be inclined to think his nom de plume but another illustration of "lucus a non lucendo."

Messieurs, I have now picked up your gauntlets and am at your service. But if you would only put the Ancients out of the room, there might be pleasanter sparring and a better clang from the grey goose quill.

Who plays next? A. FORNANDER.

To the Editor of the P. C. Advertiser.

SIR:—In your No. of Oct. 16th, it seems you are inclined to think that the "Bureau of Public Works is not in the proper hands." Perhaps not. We, in this remote region, have no means of knowing the efficiency of that department, except by the liberality of the appropriations, projected, doubtless by said department, for worthy objects here and many otherwheres, and then ending in smoke. Under the old teetotal, non-resisting, public improving regime, a little here and a little there were doled out betimes, but always in the right direction, to assist and encourage public improvements. We were graceless enough then to think these little aids came from niggardly hands, and consequently hailed with delight the high promises shadowed forth in the reports of the Secretary at War. I, for one, gave the Hon. Secretary great credit, for so modest a man, for travelling boldly out of his legitimate duties to assail the Bureau of Public Works. His motives, doubtless, were good, as they always are, and he little dreamed then, I trow, that the arduous duties of that Bureau would ever be forced upon him. I rejoiced at the change and confidently looked for better things, though I must confess I was a little staggered at the engineering lore evinced in the above mentioned reports, which savored not a little of Roman aqueducts, military roads, and Egyptian pyramids.

Pardon me, Mr. Editor, I did not take pen for the purpose of lauding the Hon. Secretary's motives or his engineering abilities, however willing I might be under fitting circumstances to vouch for his industry but simply to say a word or two about our improvements here. Under the old teetotal administration we managed to get a bridge built here at one time and a bridge there at another—a few tools now and then to knock rocks out of the way and cut pathways along the palis, and last and not least a movement was made to erect a bridge over the river of Destruction (Wailuku.) But our war administration has brought every thing to a military halt. We, here, could have endured all this and much more, for we are loyal, and perhaps finally been led to admire the splendid tactics introduced into the Bureau of Public Works, had the Wailuku bridge first been finished upon which we had so much set our hearts. This river, you must know, skirts our lovely town and for many weeks during each year cuts off all travel from the richest portion of our district, on account of freshets, and what is worse, succeeds in immolating a victim or two during the same period.

There was ample appropriation made by the last Legislature to complete the bridge, and we in the intensity of our desire to see it finished, cannot discern the propriety of diverting all the public money to other uses—even to so important a matter as the military. For my part I'm sure I should feel consoled under these grevious circumstances if I was positively assured that the Jackass Artillery, which played so eminent a part in the Hon. Secretary's report, have taken the field. Doubtless you have an abundance of material in Honolulu for such a regiment—if not, the Legislature or that part of it which acted upon the suggestion would be just the stuff. Please let us know about this company of invincibles. Also the prospects for the bridge—We are intensely anxious about these matters. Yours &c., &c. HILO.

P. S. Jake, one of my neighbors, with a haunted hat, requests me to inquire if them "Ambulances" have arriv. He declares that to be the awfulest suggestion ever made by man—"why," he says, "I have dreamed a hundred times since I read that story about the Ambulances* of being piked in battle and then trudged off in that vehicle with my body on one side and my head on the other side. 'Twas plain as daylight." I have advised him to apply to government for a pension. He feels consoled, knowing the state of the treasury.

* See report of Secretary at War for 1855, I believe.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE ELECTRO CHEMICAL BATHS OF DR. BOURNE,

SOUTH-EAST CORNER OF SANSOME and Commercial Streets, opposite the St. Nicholas Hotel, San Francisco, are effecting the most extraordinary CURES of Fever and Ague, Intermittent and other Fevers, Jaundice, Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, the Genital and Urinary Organs, all Sexual Disorders, Paralysis, Neuralgia, including Tic Doloreux, Stiff Joints, and are also employed with astonishing success in DISEASES OF THE EYE.

Also, all Indolent Ulcers, Tumors, Swellings, Abcesses, Cancer of the Womb, all other affections of the Womb, and Cancerous Affections generally, and Scrofula. These Baths seem to be Nature's own chosen medium for effecting cures where all other means would fail without them; and prove beyond the possibility of doubt, to all who take them, the iniquity of Medical practice which poisons the human system by administering to it calomel, arsenic, lead, zinc, iron, antimony, quinine, iodide of potassa, and a whole host of deadly drugs which remain in the system, and are EXTRACTED BY THESE BATHS.

During nearly fifteen years I have never given even a solitary dose of oil or salts, much less any POISONOUS DRUGS, or herbs, and have NEVER seen a case in which they were requisite if Water Treatment was employed. When will the people cease to be such simpletons as to hire men to POISON and BLEED them, while they also retain on their statute books laws against poisoning, maiming, and bleeding CATTLE? Are the members of the human family less worthy of protection than animals? I assert in the face of this entire State and the world at large, that there never was, is not now, and never will be, a case in which calomel, crude mercury, quinine, arsenic, lead, zinc, iron, antimony, iodine, or any other POISON, should have been, or be administered to the human system, or in which bleeding, cupping or leeching, was required; and further, that hundreds of thousands fill premature graves through an ill-timed or over-dose of salts or oil. Let the people ponder on these things, and if the poor and deluded victims of medical rascality desire health, I pledge the honor of one man at least, that I will so employ NATURE'S AGENCIES of Good Food, Air, Pure Water, Exercise, Clothing, the Electro-Chemical Baths, and the Sleeping and Waking Hours, that without a particle of NASTY and POISONOUS medicine, I will so arouse the powers of their systems that if there be any strength left they shall speedily get perfectly well in body, with minds so expanded to the perception of natural philosophy, as thereafter to cause them to set their faces against all professional rogues or fools, and awake them to a knowledge of the evils of entrusting their own vital interest to the keeping others whose interest must ever be antagonistic to their own.

Address, by letter or personally, DR. BOURNE, Water Cure Physician, Sansome Street, opposite St. Nicholas Hotel, San Francisco, importer into this State of the FIRST and ONLY apparatus for giving these delightful and beneficial Electro-Chemical Baths, and whose experience in their use warrants him in speaking of them in the terms he employs. They require great caution in administering them, and Dr. Bourne never entrusts that duty to others, thus avoiding all danger.

☞ So many lying and forged certificates, and PRETENDED editorial recommendations are published, that those truthful statements of facts which Dr. Bourne could offer, are withheld, rather than any should suppose they were merely "got up."

☞ Consultations without charge, and charges very moderate for the benefits conferred.

☞ QUICK CURE—SURE CURE—(if curable)—is the motto of Dr. BOURNE.

PIONEER WATER CURE INSTITUTE,
South-east corner of Sansome and Commercial Streets, opposite the St. Nicholas Hotel, San Francisco.

—o—

DR. BOURNE,
WATER CURE PHYSICIAN,

Having every facility for the scientific administration of Water Treatment, offers the advantages of this natural, rational, and most efficacious mode of curing diseases, to invalids, in either acute or chronic stages of suffering, and especially to those laboring under the RUINOUS EFFECTS OF CALOMEL, and Drug treatment generally.

There are no nauseous or poisonous medicines to swallow or pay for, as DR. BOURNE does not administer any whatever, nor bleed, cup or leech; so it is not only the BEST but CHEAPEST system for restoration to health.

☞ In Chronic or Acute Rheumatism, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Isthmus Fever, ALL Nervous and Sexual disorders—in fact, in all cases, the WATER CURE is of UNEQUALED VALUE.

Apply personally, or address by letter, as above.

☞ PARTICULAR NOTICE. ☜

The "Russian," Digger Indian! Turkish, or Egyptian "Steam Baths,"—the invention of barbaric minds—with all their EVIL CONSEQUENCES to Weak Lungs, Palpitating Hearts, and debilitated Digestive and Nutritive Organs, are NOT Water Cure, and bear no more relation to that glorious system than does a horse to a red herring, notwithstanding all the false representations to that effect. Dr. BOURNE is the Pioneer and only Water Cure Physician on the Pacific Coast, and is daily demonstrating his skill in his art with the highest success—curing those whom the medical fraternity had placed almost beyond the confines of hope; such being the general character of the cases demanding and receiving relief at his hands. Let them continue to come and be HEALED and converted, to this wiser and better way.

NEW MUSIC!!!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING lately returned to the Islands, begs leave to inform the ladies and gentlemen of Honolulu that he intends to devote himself solely to the exercise of his profession, with its various branches.

Lessons given on the PIANO FORTE, VIOLIN, and ACCORDEON, with instructions in the FRENCH LANGUAGE. The undersigned would also beg leave to offer his professional services at private Soirees or evening re-unions. Piano Fortes well tuned and strung—and to those families who may chose to confide their instruments to his charge and contract by the year, he engages at the rate of $12 per annum, payable quarterly, to keep them in constant good order, and will pay monthly visits for that purpose. Manuscript or engraved music neatly and correctly copied, and poetry of every description put to melody.

Terms moderate.

The countenance of his former friends and the public in general is respectfully requested.
18-tf C. G. ST. CLAIR.
