For those in search of recreation and a pleasant sail across Long Island Sound steamer of the Montauk Steamboat Company's line plys between New London and points on the eastern end of Long Island—Greenport, Shelter Island and Sag Harbor. A delightful trip may be arranged by taking the boat leaving the foot of State street at 10 a. m., returning leave Sag Harbor 12.30 p. m., arriving back in New London 7.30 p. m.

This means of travel also opens up a new country for the motorist to explore—the fine roads of Long Island being traversed by more of this class of vehicle than any other territory in the world. It is estimated that over 100,000 automobiles tour Long Island every Sunday during the summer months.

Announcements.

S. S. Thresher has returned after spending the Fourth with his family in Mystic, and will be at his office, 14 Alice Building, every week day and evening, except Saturday evening, for the rest of the summer.

BREED THEATRE.

The bill of pictures at the Breed today is one of the best of the season, and includes two especially strong dramatic numbers. "From the Lawyer's Window" is perhaps one of the most unusual and thrilling pictures seen here in some time, and has a powerful plot that is unfolded for the pleasure of the audiences by a company of peerless actors of the famous Pathe cast. This same cast is seen again later on the programme in the feature picture entitled "For the Honor of the Name," which is a worthy successor to the former mentioned one.

A picture that brings a cooling effect is the one entitled "A Romance of the Ice Fields," and in it is seen one of the characters afloat on a cake of ice, rapidly drifting towards the falls, but he is rescued just as he starts to make the plunge and all ends happily.

The singing portion is in the hands of Mr. Bullock, who made a fine impression with his work.

OBITUARY.

Henry P. Brown.

Henry Parker Brown, a civil war veteran, died at his home in South Sutton, Mass., Friday, aged 78 years. For some time he had been in failing health, and death was caused by general debility. Mr. and Mrs. Brown had passed nearly 57 years together, and for 24 years have lived in the present residence.

Mr. Brown was born in Woodstock, Conn., March 14, 1834, son of Stephen and Lydia Brown, one of a family of seven children—two boys and five girls. His early years were passed in Connecticut, and at 20 years of age he went to Manchaug, Mass., and engaged in farming, and learned the carpenter's trade, and also worked as a shoemaker. In 1858 he went to Whitinsville. He served throughout the civil war, enlisting in 1862 in the 25th Massachusetts regiment, Co. C. At the close of the war he returned to Whitinsville, being employed as a carpenter. He was prominent in musical circles, being a bass singer and violin player.

August 5, 1855, he was united in marriage with Miss Margaret Brown, and in 1905 the couple celebrated their golden wedding.

Besides his wife, he is survived by three children, Mrs. L. Warren Smith of Whitinsville, J. Henry Brown, who resides at home, and Walter D. Brown of East Douglas, Mass.

Funeral services were held at the home Sunday at 1.30 p. m. Rev. Geo. H. Young Manchaug officiated. Burial was in Pine Grove cemetery, Whitinsville.

Mrs. H. VON RODEN of LYNDON, KY.

Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Backache, Nervousness, Headaches.

Lyndon, Ky.—"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for headaches, neuralgia pains, backache, nervousness and a general run down condition of the system, and am entirely relieved of these troubles. I recommend your remedies to my friends and give you permission to publish what I write."—Mrs. H. Von Roden, Lyndon, Ky.

When a woman like Mrs. Von Roden is generous enough to write such a letter as the above for publication, she should at least be given credit for a sincere desire to help other suffering women.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

COLCHESTER

Brief State News

Litchfield.—This has been the greatest rose year ever known in this vicinity.

Thomaston.—A rattlesnake 3 1-2 feet long, with seven rattles, was killed here the other day.

Torrington.—All of the factories which have been taking a week vacation resumed work Monday morning.

Stratford.—The movement for Stratford beautiful is pleasing to all its residents and the plans extend to all sections.

Rockville.—Miss Gifford F. Clark of South Norwalk has been engaged by the high school committee as teacher of Latin, to succeed Miss Mildred Wheelock, resigned.

Hartford.—George E. Davis, for seven years a member of the faculty of the Hartford public high school, has been elected principal of the Chelsea, Mass., high school.

Terryville.—Miss Gertrude M. Dudley of Millbury, Mass., was notified Friday of her election by the school board of Terryville as teacher of the high school. Miss Dudey is a graduate of Wellesley college, 1912.

Naugatuck.—Nurses for smallpox patients are expensive luxuries, as shown by the bill of Mrs. Minnie Gage of 14 Central avenue, Waterbury. Mrs. Gage served as a nurse in the isolation hospital for 99 days, and as she asks $5 a day her bill amounts to $495.

Meriden.—The summer school for the benefit of the eighth and ninth grade delinquents opened Monday at the East and West grammar schools. The term will last six weeks and the pupils will be required to take the high school entrance examinations on August 25.

Middletown.—Two of the daughters of Governor and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson were born in Middletown, during the time that the democratic nominee for the presidency was a professor at Wesleyan. The house occupied by the New Jersey executive has since been torn down. It stood on the site of the present Electric house on High street.

Guarded Against Dishonesty.

In the city of London at the time of King John every vintner was required to hang outside his shop an iron vessel with pegs marking the different quantities sold.

Good Work of Barnardo Homes.

Nearly twenty-three thousand nine hundred children have now been sent to Canada from England through the agency of the Barnardo homes.

Melted shellac will mend broken fountain pen barrels.

STONINGTON.

Car Ride to Follow Baptist Picnic—Summer License for Manor Inn—Subscription Lists for Band Concert.

On Thursday the First Baptist Sunday School and members of the congregation will enjoy a picnic to the Wequetequich Casino. At the close of the afternoon they will enjoy a trolley ride to Noank and return.

The caucuses of the democratic and republican voters of Stonington Bow to choose candidates for the offices to be filled at the annual election to be held Monday, July 29, have been called, both for Wednesday evening.

Will Be Granted License.

The Heath Company of New York, proprietors of the Stonington Manor Inn, are to be granted a license to sell liquor during the summer season, the necessary signers having been secured and the application is in the hands of the county commissioners and will be granted as soon as the law permits.

Judge W. A. Breed is visiting in Painsville, Ohio.

For Band Concerts.

Three subscription papers are out for the collecting of $200 to be used in paying for band concerts to be given Friday evening of each week on Cannon Square. Already a good sum has been pledged. The collectors are H. A. Miller, G. W. Haley and J. E. Fairbrother. The wardens and burgesses have allowed the use of Cannon Square and the amount that is to be collected is to pay for the electric lights and paying for the services of the band and for cleaning up the square after each concert.

Personals.

Miss Etta Findlay of Mandeville, Jamaica, is spending the summer at Bella Vista, the guest of Mrs. E. E. Bradley.

Col. and Mrs. Samuel Horn of Winsted, are spending the week at the Wamphassett Inn.

Harry Lang of Mystic was arrested by the state police on Saturday for not having his motor in his boat properly muffled. He was brought before the town court Monday morning and after giving a plea of guilty was fined $25 and ordered to pay the costs. Lang, who is only 27 years old, had the fine remitted and he paid and was discharged.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Town Votes Acceptance of Christopher Allen's Gift of Bridge—Effort to Have Early Train Put Back on C. V. Road.

At the special town meeting held in Stafford Hollow Monday afternoon, it was voted to accept the offer of Christopher Allen to build a bridge across the Willimantic river at Spring street. Resolutions were also adopted expressing the appreciation of the townspeople for the generous gift. It was voted to appropriate $700 to pay one-half of the expense of macadamizing the full width of East street and grading and filling of the Monson road near the Stafford golf grounds.

Condition Serious.

Miss Annie Brunelle, who was taken suddenly ill Saturday afternoon, was taken to the Johnson hospital Sunday and operated on for appendicitis. Her condition is critical.

To Work for Early Train.

Several Stafford people will attend the hearing before the public utilities commission in Hartford today (Tuesday). An effort is being made all along the line to have an early train put on between New London and Palmer. The earliest train from the south to arrive in Stafford now is 10.30 a. m., which makes it very inconvenient for the merchants, especially those who have been in the habit of getting fruit on the early train. The train which has been taken off has been running for about sixty years.

EGG LAYING CONTEST.

Plymouth Rocks Make High Score—Champion Hen Takes a Rest.

The total number of eggs laid during the 35th week of the egg-laying contest at Storrs, was 1802. This is a small increase over the previous week's production, but the brooding season still hangs on. A few birds have started to moult, but they have not started in full swing as yet. Next month will be the worst month for moulting.

A pen of barred Plymouth Rocks, owned by Robert J. Walden of Middlebury, Md., laid 31 eggs for the week, the highest score. A pen of single-comb white Leghorns, owned by Marwood poultry farm of Butler, Pa., laid 30 eggs. The pen of birds in third in the contest, having passed a pen of white Wyandottes. A pen of single-comb whit Leghorns, owned by Susie Abbott of Parksburg, Pa., laid 28 eggs during the week, and also a pen of Paul Van Deusen of Vineland, N. J. There were four pens that laid 2 eggs.

The largest egg weighed 20-100 of a pound. It was laid by a single-comb white Orpington, owned by Alba Brothers of Elmira, N. Y. Another large egg weighing 19-100 of a pound, was laid by a single-comb Rhode Island Red, owned by Arthur S. Bailey of Cobalt, Conn. A second large egg weighing 19-100 of a pound was laid by a golden Wyandotte, owned by W. J. Rogers of Dickson City, Pa. The smallest egg weighed 7-100 of a pound. This egg was laid by a barred Plymouth rock.

The champion hen laid but three eggs in the whole week taking a rest the first of the week. Her record is now 201 eggs in 245 days. This hen is a single-comb buff Orpington, owned by O. Wilson of Carlisle, W. Va. There are over 60 hens that have made scores better than 130 eggs.

The following is a list of the first 10 pens as they stand to date, with the total number of eggs laid by each: F. G. Yost of Sayre, Pa., single-comb white Leghorns, 745; Thomas Brown of Catforth, Eng., single-comb white Leghorns, 722; Marwood poultry farm, Butler, Pa., single-comb white Leghorns, 707; Beulah farms, Hamilton, Ont., white Wyandottes, 702; White Rose poultry farm, Vineland, 695; Toms poultry farm, Toms River, 681; Susie Abbott of Parksburg, Pa., single-comb white Leghorns, 676; O. Wilson of Carlisle, W. Va., single-comb buff Orpingtons, 649; Frederick Peasley of Cheshire, single-comb white Leghorns, 645; Woods Lane farm, Seaman Place, Pa., single-comb white Leghorns, 631.

Cod.

The catch of cod in the United States is third in value of fish caught, amounting to almost $3,000,000, followed by that of shad, lobsters and clams.

True Devotion.

"Do you love me, darling?" she asked. "Sweetheart, I love every hair on your bureau!" he reverently answered.—Michigan Gargoyle.

Then Mr. Knagg Felt Better.

Mrs. Knagg—Perhaps you recall, it was on a train we first met. Mr. Knagg—Yes, but it's too late now to sue the company for damages.

"Trial marriages." Well, marriage always has been more or less of a trial.

Twenty-two Seashore Lots

Fronting Atlantic Ocean, 50x-50 feet of land. I have been fortunate in securing a tract on the seashore, between Pleasant View and Charlestown Beach. These lots have one of the finest beaches along the coast, and the trolley will soon be there! These lots will increase in price right away. All I ask for a lot is $150 cash. Only one lot to a customer, and after July 1st, this year, if any are left, the price will be $200. Write for information; the survey is nearly completed. Arrangements to view the property made by appointment. Transportation free in auto. Investigate.

$1300 will put you in possession of an 80-acre farm, large 10-room house, barn, wagon shed, woodhouse, two henneries and milkhouse; 3 acres all planted, including 1 acre of potatoes; place situated only 1½ miles from Westerly, R. I., and a 10-minute walk to trolley. Owner lives out of the state and will sacrifice if sale is made right away. Possession given at once.

POETRY

NATURE LOVER'S PLAINT.

I am a Nature Lover, and my disposition's kind;
But I wish to know the working of the quadrupedal mind.
Now, if I met a tiger, could I make him understand
That my motives are benignant and my attitude is bland?

Could I convince a grizzly bear that I have no intent
Of aught save pleasant courtesy, and civil is my bent?
That deeds of an unfriendly drift I never think about?
Could I make any big gray wolf impiltiby believe
That if he deem me offish I shall deeply, truly grieve?
That not a single hostile thought within my bosom is,
That all my wishes and desires are right in line with his?

Because, unless I feel that I can dominate his thought,
And make him view my conduct just exactly as he ought,
I think I'd rather not go out to meet a wild beast where
His foot is on his native heath and nearby is his lair.

—Carolyn Wells.

THE DUDE RANCH.

We used to run a cow ranch,
In all that old term meant,
But all our ancient glories
In recent years have went;
We're takin' summer boarders,
And, puttin' it quite rough,
It's now the cowboy's province
To herd the festive dude.

We used to run an outfit,
The greatest in the west;
Our cowboys were the wonders—
Our roundups were the best;
The punchers still are with us,
But now they merely guide
The tenderfoot from Boston,
Who's learning how to ride.

We used to brand our cattle
And ship 'em wide and far;
But now we import humans
From off the Pullman car;
The dudes have got us captured,
And tied, and branded, too;
And the cowboy's readin' Iseen
When his daily toil is through.

—Arthur Chapman, in the Denver Republican.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Employer—You're late again! New Clerk—Well, you said you didn't want a man who watched the clock.—Life.

Geraldine—What did pa say when you asked him for my hand? Gerald—He gave me a delightful travel talk.—Judge.

"Dear me! Quarreling again? You must try to give and take." "That's what I'm trying to learn him!"—London Punch.

Willie—Paw, what does discretion mean? Paw—Picking out a small man when you are looking for trouble.—Tit-Bits.

Winifred—But I think I ought to tell you that my eldest brother is an ex-president. Bertram—No matter, pet. Even that shall not separate us!—Satire.

He—I understand that Mrs. Lux gets $25,000 a year pin money. She—Mercy. What is her husband's business? He—Her husband's dead. He left her a pin factory.—Boston Transcript.

"So you say you're an old-time sailor. Did you ever have any accidents while at sea?" "Once, mum. I dropped a bowl of hot soup in an old lady's lap."—Detroit Free Press.

"My doctor says I ought to ride a horse," said the indolent man. "What for?" "I don't know. Maybe he's tired of treating me for dyspepsia and wants a broken collarbone for a change."—Washington Star.

"Every human being," said the professor, "sends out psychic waves." "Do I send out psychic waves?" demanded the pretty girl. "You do." "And are they marcelled?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Twenty-five dollars fine," said the justice of the peace. "Oh, now, look here, judge," said Wigglesworth, "be consistent. I wasn't going a bit faster than I was last summer when I was up before you the first time, and you acquitted me." "All right," said the justice; "if you feel that way about it we'll make it $50, coverin' both offenses."—Harper's Weekly.

She—Here is a woman who says she only girl to marry is one who has been taught domestic science. He—What sort of education is that? She—It's the sort that turns a kitchen into an experimental laboratory and makes the garbage can a retort of waste tissues and discarded caloric.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

German pianos were sold abroad last year to the value of $10,000,000 against $9,000,000 in 1910 and $7,900,000 in 1909.
