Saturday, July 27 Norwich Bulletin 1796 1912 Pages Nine to Sixteen

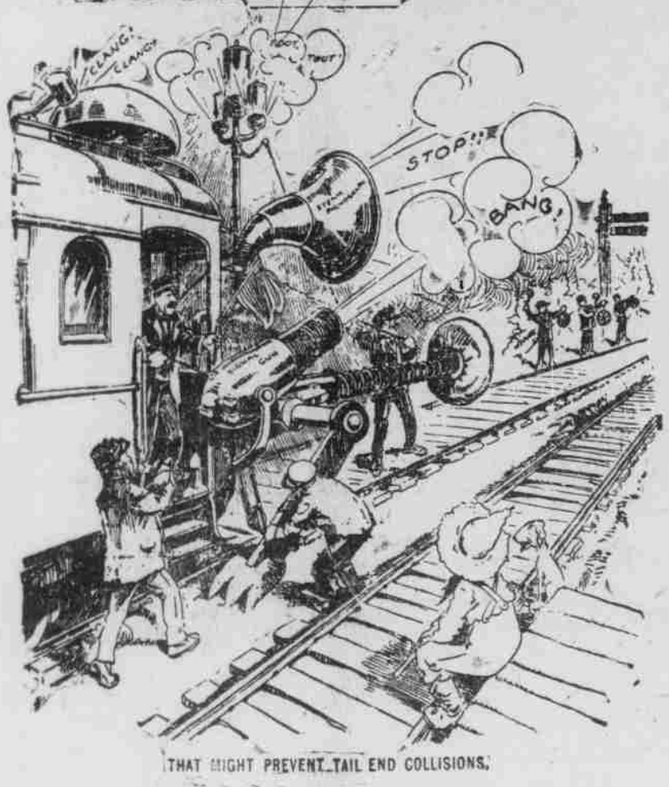
TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

A FEW LITTLE DEVICES FOR THE REAR CAR



THAT MIGHT PREVENT TAIL END COLLISIONS.

The Chief Carpenter.

Los Angeles Times.

NEW YORK HERALD.

WATCH ME THROW HIM, PERKY.

OLD GLORY.

The oldest National Flag in the world with, from July 4, 1912, 48 stars, arranged as shown in the picture above.

At the birth of Old Glory it was a flag of 13 stripes—just as today—but there were but 13 stars in the blue field, for the 13 Colonies, and they were arranged in a circle, as shown above.

THE SEASON OF INCONSISTENCY.

THE DAILY NEWS.

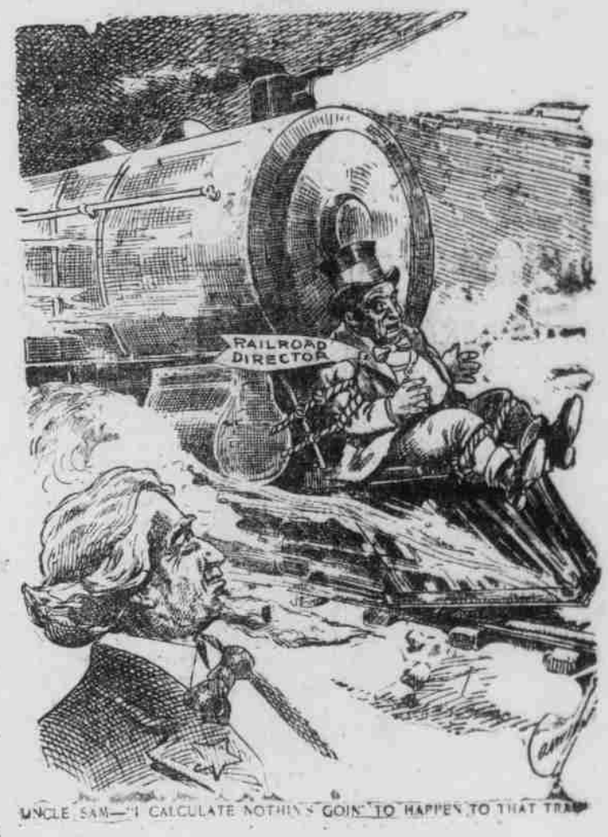
IN THE CITY. ON VACATION.

The New Arrival

Why Doesn't He?

"Hey, Perkins!!"

SAFETY DEVICE FOR PREVENTING RAILROAD WRECKS



UNCLE SAM—"I CALCULATE NOTHIN'S GOIN' TO HAPPEN TO THAT TRAIN"

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT.

HEAT WAVE CONTINUES TO AFFECT MAN AND BEAST.

Prescribing for China.

Dr. Sextupio Syndicate, L. S. D.—"Hum. System still weak, needs waking up. For your case I give a CAPITAL prescription."

LAW AND ORDER IN NEW YORK.

BALTIMORE AMERICAN.

DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES