GERMANS ABANDON COAST CAMPAIGN

Berlin Report Attributes Failure to the Flooded State of the Country

BRUNT OF ATTACK NOW SHIFTS TO YPRES REGION

A State of War Now Exists Between Turkey on One Side and Russia, Great Britain and Servia on the Other—Ottoman Government Appears as House Divided Against Itself—Germans Have Been Victorious in Naval Battle Off the Chilean Coast—By Closing of North Sea All Cargoes Destined for German or Austrian Consumption Must Now Run Gauntlet of British Inspection in English Channel, the Strait of Gibraltar or the Suez Canal.

London, Nov. 3.—That the German army has abandoned its attempt to hack its way along the Belgian coast to Calais is agreed by all the official reports tonight. A combination of inundated country, the remnant of the Belgian army under King Albert and the activity of the British warships seemingly all contributed toward ending the costly struggle.

A Berlin report attributes the failure of the Germans entirely to the flooded state of the country, where the water in places is over a man's head; but it declares that the army of Emperor William withdrew in good order and without losses.

Scene Shifts to Ypres

After nearly three weeks of desperate fighting, the brunt of the attack has now shifted to the Ypres region, where the English army of Field Marshal Sir John French, reinforced by East Indians and territorials, apparently must meet another onslaught. To the scene of this contemplated battle, according to reports, Emperor William has gone to give encouragement to his men by his presence.

A state of war between Turkeyy on the one side and Russia, Great Britain and Servia on the other, exists, yet the Ottoman government appears as a house divided against itself, one part seemingly being desirous of war, while a conservative section is trying to smooth over the situation arising from the attacks upon Russian ports and ships by Turkish war vessels directed by German officers.

Russia Welcomes War With Turkey

Russia apparently has welcomed the war and will not give the Turks a chance to draw back, while the British cruiser Minerva has smashed the Turkish base of operations against Egypt at the head of the Gulf of Akabah.

The Turkish ambassador in London has as yet made no arrangements to leave and the embassy still maintains a conciliatory attitude.

The closing of the North Sea to all shipping, except that which places itself under the protection of the British fleet, is recognized as the first stroke of Admiral Baron Fisher, thet new first sea lord of the admiralty, and as one of the most important events of the war. All cargoes destined for German or Austrian consumption must now run the gauntlet of British inspection in the English Channel, the Strait of Gibraltar or the Suez canal.

TURKISH MINISTER DETAINS SPECIAL TRAIN

Bearing British and French Subjects from Constantinople.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The Turkish minister of war ordered detained a special train bearing British and French subjects from Turkey which Ambassador Morgenthau had arranged on Sunday to leave Constantinople.

The minister of war declared until Turkish subjects in Egypt as well as England and France were given assurances of protection and permitted to leave the country all British and French subjects would be held in Turkey.

Ambassador Morgenthau cabled the American government that before the British ambassador left he had given Mr. Morgenthau assurances that all Turkish subjects in the British empire would be permitted to leave.

Mr. Morgenthau's latest despatch, dated 5 p. m. Sunday, said he had been informed by a member of the Ottoman cabinet of the sinking of two Turkish vessels by the British fleet off the port of Smyrna and of the crossing of Russian troops on the frontier of Erzerum.

BRITISH WARSHIPS WORSTED BY GERMANS.

One Sunk and Another Disabled Off the Chilean Coast.

Valparaiso, Chile, Nov. 3.—The German warships Gneisenaul, Scharnhorst, Nurnberg, Leipzig and Dresden today attacked the British fleet off Coronel, Chile. The British cruiser Monmouth was sunk. The cruiser Good Hope was very badly damaged and as he was on fire is supposed to have been lost. The British cruiser Glasgow took refuge in he harbor of Coronel and is now bottled up.

The German battleships Scharnhorst, Nurnberg and Gneisenau anchored at Midday today in Valparaiso harbor uninjured.

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 3.—The British cruiser Glasgow is also said to have been badly damaged in the naval battle off Coronel.

GERMAN CONSUL ASSAULTED AT TABRIZ, PERSIA.

Took Refuge in American Consulate With Other German Subjects.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The German consul at Tabriz, Persia, was assaulted and took refuge in the American consulate with other panic-stricken German subjects, according to a message to the American government late today from Minister Caldwell at Teheran.

American Consul Paddock at Tabriz is extending temporary refuge and protection to the German subjects, but the Russians in Persia are threatening to arrest and expel all Germans.

The Persian authorities have gathered up the archives of the Turkish consulate at Tabriz and sent them to Petrograd.

BRITISH SUBMARINE SUNK BY MINE

Thrown Out by German Cruiser Which Was Being Pursued

London, Nov. 3, 9:47 p. m.—The British submarine D-5 was sunk in the North Sea early this morning by a mine which was thrown out by a German cruiser retreating before British cruisers. Two officers and two men of the submarinne were saved. This information is contained in an admiralty report issued here tonight. The report says a German squadron fired on the British gunboat Halcyon, which was patroling, wounding one man.

Various naval movements were made the report continues, as a result of which the Germans retreated rapidly, and although shadowed by the light cruisers, they could not be brought into a sea action.

The rear-most German cruiser in her retirement threw out a number of mines and the submarine was sunk

ANGLO FRENCH SQUADRON BOMBARD DARDANELLES FORTS

Damage to Forts Cannot be Estimated—Forts Replied, But No Ships Were Hit.

London, Nov. 3, 11:40 p. m.—The secretary of the admiralty announces that a combined British and French squadron bombarded the Dardanelles forts at long range at daybreak this morning. The forts replied but no ships were hit, only one shot fallign alongside them.

The statement adds that the damage to the forts cannot be estimated, but that a great explosion, accompanied by dense volumes of black smoke, occurred at the Holles fort.

CALL TO DRIVE AMERICAN SOLDIERS FROM VERA CRUZ

Thousands of Proclamations Calling Upon Citizens to Arm Themselves

Mexico Cityy, Nov. 3.—When it became generally known today that the Washington government had failed to comply with the request of the Mexican foreign office that the United States fix a definite date for the evacuation of Vera Cruz, Mexican Scottish Rite Masons printed thousands of proclamations, calling upon the citizens to arm themselves and drive the invading foreigners from the shores of Mexico.

VILLA'S TROOPS MOVING TOWARDS THE SOUTH

No Answer from Convention to Carranza's Refusal to Accept His Successor.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 3.—Without answering General Carranza's refusal today to accept his successor as provisional president of Mexico, the Aguascalientes conference has ordered an extensive movement of Villa troops toward the south.

FEDERAL TROOPS FOR ARKANSAS COAL FIELDS.

To Maintain Order in the Hartford Valley Coal Region.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Secretary Garrison today ordered four companies of the Fifth United States cavalry from Fort Sheridan, Illinois, to Fort Smith, Arkansas, to maintain order in the Hartford valley coal strike district. Major Nathaniel F. McClure, who has been with the troops in the Colorado mining fields, will command the force.

All the troops at Fort Sheridan, four companies, will leave Chicago tomorrow in response to the order from Washington to maintain order in the Hartford valley (Arkansas) coal strike region.

Statement by Former Speaker Cannon

Danville, Ill., Nov. 3.—Former Speaker Joseph G. Canunon tonight made the following statement:

"The returns give evidence of the intent of the people of the United States to return the republicans to full control and in 1916 the voters will have a republican house and senate and a republican president."

Emperor Nicholas Leaves for Front.

Petrograd, Nov. 3.—Emperor Nicholas today left for the front, accompanied by General Soulkhomlinoff, the minister of war.

Dover, via [illegible] Nov. 4, 12:35 a. m.—The rep[illegible]g circulated that the Germ[illegible]nas come out from its base. [illegible] also reported from Dunkirk that four battleships and four cruiesrs have put to sea from Kiel.

REPUBLICANS GAIN 27 MEMBERS IN HOUSE.

Seven Democratic Seats in New York Overturned.

New York, Nov. 3.—Returns up to midnight, with many congressional districts unheard from, showed republican gains of 27 members of the house of representatives. At that hour seven democratic seats in New York state had been overturned; five in Illinois, with prospects that this would be increased still further; four in New Jersey; three in Pennsylvania, with probabilities of more in accordance with the general result in that state; one in Indiana; one in Maryland; two in Massachusetts; five, the entire state delegation, in Connecticut, and one in Ohio, former Representative Nicholas Longworth, of the First district, having defeated Representative Stanley E. Bowdle, who retired him to private life in the democratic landslide two years ago.

Democrats Increase Lead in House.

Indications at that hour were that the democrats might increase the present majority in the senate from ten to twelve, the reported victory of Roger C. Sullivan in Illinois over Lawrence Y. Sherman making a difference of two votes. Results in California, Kansas, Colorado, Indiana, Oregon and South Dakota were still in doubt and nothing had been heard from the contest in Washington between Wesley L. Jones, republican, and W. W. Black, democrat.

Late returns indicated the re-election of Senator William P. Dillingham, republican, of Vermont, over Charles A. Prouty, progressive democrat. Democratic leaders were claiming victory for Senators Chamberlain in Oregon and Shively in Indiana. Republican leaders expected to claim Kansas for Charles Curtis and South Dakota for Representative Charles H. Burke. Little had been heard from the fight in California or the senatorial fight in Colorado, where Senator Charles S. Thomas was meeting with determined opposition.

Among democratic members of the house retired were FitzHenry, O'Hair, Borchers and Balz of Illinois; Korbly of Indiana; Phelan and Thacher of Massachusetts; Townsend and Walsh of New Jersey; O'Brien, Teneyck, Clancy and Gittings of New York; Bowdle of Ohio; Donahue, Logue of Pennsylvania. M. Claide Kelly, progressive, of Pennsylvania, also was defeated. Democrats gained one member in Kansas, W. A. Ayres being elected to the place made vacant by the candidacy of Victor Murdock for the senate.

PRESIDENT WILSON READ THE ELECTION RETURNS.

Once He Stood by the Telegraph Operator for Awhile.

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Wilson read the election returns tonight as they were received over a special wire at the White House, displaying keen interest in every contest, though he made no comment for publication. He spent most of the evening with his family, reading bulletins aloud as they were sent in. Once he went over to the executive offices and stood by the telegraph operator for awhile. With him were Professor and Mrs. Edward Elliott, the latter Mrs. Wilson's sister, who came to Washington with the president late his afternoon from Princeton, where the president went to vote.

News of the election of Charles S. Whitman, republican, as governor of New York, was received by the president without show of surprise. Mr. Wilson went to bed shortly after 10 o'clock without learning th ctuoeem o'clock without learning the outcome of the fight for the control of the next congress. Before retiring he was informed of Republican victories in New York, Connecticut and some other states.

SOUTHERN STATES REMAIN SOLIDLY DEMOCRATIC.

Not a Break in Any Thus Far Heard From.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 3.—The entire democratic state and congressional ticket was elected in Texas today.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 3.—Senator Fletcher and the entire Florida democratic congressional delegation were re-elected today.

Richmond, Va. Nov. 3.—All democratic congressme in Virginia were re-elected today.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 3.—Georgia today elected to the United States senate the democratic candidaes, Hoke W. Smith, and Thomas Hardwick. Nat E. Harris, democrat, was elected governor. All democratic congressional nominees were elected.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 3.—United States Senator E. D. Smith, democrat, was reelected and Richard I. Manning, democrat, was elected governor in today's election. All seven democratic congressional nominees were elected. Neither Smith nor Manning were opposed.

Country-Wide Republican Gains

WHITMAN OVERWHELMS GLYNN IN NEW YORK STATE

PROGRESSIVES FELL OFF

Former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon Returned to Congress—In Pennsylvania Senator Penrose Was Triumphant—Gov. Walsh, Dem., of Massachusetts Reelected—Results in Other States.

New York, Nov. 3.—Sweeping republican gains throughout the country which reached a climax in this state by the overwhelming victory of Charles S. Whitman for governor and James W. Wadsworth to succeed Elihu Root in the United States senate, were indicated tonight in real returns of the general elections.

Progressive Vote Fell Off

Heavy falling off in the progressive vote in many states, the return to congress of Former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, decisive republican gains in New York and Illinois in the house membership and the overwhelming defeat of Repreeantative A. Mitchell Palmer by Senator Boies Penrose in Pennsylvania were features of the early returns. Democratic leaders, however, were pleased by a triumph in Massachusetts, where former Representative Samuel W. McCall was defeated for the governorship by Governor Walsh.

Democrats Retain Control of Congress

Early returns indicated that the democrats would retain control of congress with approximately no change in the senate majority, but by a decidedly reduced majority in the house. At a late hour results in Illinois, Indiana, California and Colorado as to the senatorship were in doubt.

Uncertain in Illinois

In Illinois Roger C. Sullivan, who had the indorsement of most administration leaders, Secretary of State Bryan excepted, was leading in Chicago and Cook county by a large plurality over Senator L. Y. Sherman, republican, and Raymond Robins, progressive, but Senator Sherman was running ahead in the country district and was claiming the election.

How Indiana Stands

Senator Shievely, democrat, found in the Indiana early returns a strong opponent in Hugh Miller, the republican candidate with Former Senator Beveridge, the progressive candidate, polling a smaller vote than had generally been expected. Senator Shively's vote began to pick up at a late hour and administration leaders were claiming his election.

In Colorado, Senator Charles S Thomas, democrat, was being hard pressed by Hubert Work, the republican candidate.

Penrose a Winner

The triumph of Senator Penrose in Pennsylvania over A. Mitchell Palmer, democrat, who was one of the original supporters of Woodrow Wilson, and Gifford Pinchot, progressive, was overwhelming.

Kansas Uncertain

The senatorial fight in Kansas also was uncertain, according to early returns. Charles Curtis, former republican senator, Congressman George A Neeley, democrat, and Representative Victor Murdock, progressive, engaged in a spirited contest for the seat of Joseph L. Bristow.

Senators Re-elected

Senators re-elected as the result of hard battles were Frank B. Brandegee, republican, of Connecticut, who was opposed by Governor Simeon E. Baldwin; Albertus B. Cummins, republican, of Iowa, who defeated Representative Maurice Connolly; John Walter Smith, democrat, of Maryland; William J. Stone, democrat, of Missouri; Jacob H. Gallinger, republican, of New Hampshire, who was opposed by Representative R. B. Stevens.

Democratic senators in the south were:

Democratic Senators in South Re-elected.

Democratic senators in the south were re-elected without difficulty, new senators from southern states chosen being Representative Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama and Representative Thomas W. Hardwick of Georgia. Former Governor J. C. Beckham, democrat, of Kentucky, was chosen for the long term.

Francis E. McGovern, republican, was elected, according to the early returns, to succeed Senator Stephenson, republican, from Wisconsin.

Triumph of Joe Cannon.

The triumph of former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, republican, over Frank I. O'Hair for representative in the 18th Illinois district, seemed certain on the early returns. Other Illinois republicans who were turned out of the house in the last democratic landslide who will be returned to congress were William B. McKinley, Charles A. Fuller and John A. Sterling. Republicans also made gains in New York, Oscar W. Swift defeating Representative James H. O'Brien in the Ninth district; Rollin B. Sanford defeating Representative Peter G. Ten Eyck; Walter W. McGee succeeding to the seat of Representative Joseph R. Clancy, and R. L. Haskell, republican, was elected in the 10th district, formerly represented by Herman Metz, democrat.

Republican Gain in Indiana.

The defeat of Representative Charles A. Korbley, democrat, of Indiana, by Morrill Moore also marked the general trend of republican gains throughout the country. Sereno E. Payne, republican, of New York, one of the oldest members of the house, in point of service, was re-elected without difficulty.

Roosevelt Man Far in the Rear.

Election of state officers resulted in a few turnovers. In New York Governor Glynn, the democratic candidate for re-election, was defeated decisively by District Attorney Whitman, republican. Frederick M. Davenport, progressive nominee, in support of whose candidacy ex-President Roosevelt devoted most of the campaign, was left far in the rear, his vote being exceeded by that of William Sulzer, who was deposed as governor last year.

In Tennessee also a change in party control was indicated. Early reports indicated the return of Governor Ben W. Hooper, the republican incumbent, by Thomas C. Rye, democrat.

CONNECTICUT AGAIN IN REPUBLICAN FOLD

By Sweeping the State for All the Important Offices Contested For

BRANDEGEE WINS WITH PLURALITY OF 11,733

Judge Marcus H. Holcomb, Republican Candidate for Governor, Has Plurality of 14,074 Over His Opponent—Entire Congressional Delegation Will be Republican—State Senate and House Also Republican—One Feature of the Day Was the General Slump in Progressive Vote Which Did Not Reach 6,000, Compared With 35,000 Votes Two Years Ago.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 3.—Connecticut returned to the republican fold today by sweeping the state for all the important offices. Frank B. Brandegee was returned to the United States senate, his plurality over Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, with a few towns missing, being 11,733. Judge Marcus H. Holcomb of Southington was swept into the gubernatorial chair with a plurality of 14,074 over Lieutenant Governor Lyman T. Tingier. All the repkublican candidates for office on the state ticket were elected by substantial majorities.

The entire congressional delegation will be republican. Former Congressman Ebenezer J. Hill turned the tables on Jeremiah Donovan, who defeated him two years ago. Likewise former Congressman John Q. Tilson defeated Thomas L. Reilly, atoning for his defeat by Mr. Reilly at the last election. Bryan F. Mahan was defeated for reelection by his fellow-townsman, Richard P. rFeeman. P. Davis Oakey defeated Augustine Lonergan for reelection, as did James P. Glynn over William Kennedy. The senate and house will be republican.

One of the features of the day was the general slump in the progressive vote. Two years ago the progressives polled nearly 35,000 votes. Today the vote did not reach 6,000. Willard C. Fisher of Middletown, the progressive gubernatorial candidate, led Herbert Knox Smith, the party's candidate for United States senator, the respective votes being 5,488 and 5,258.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—Governor David I. Walsh, democrat, was leading, according to returns from upwards of three-quarters of the state in today's election, but it was uncertain whether the democrats had been able to again secure other places on the state ticket. Figures at hand for lieutenant governor gave Grafton D. Cushing, republican, a slight lead over his democratic opponent, Lieutenant-Governor Barryy, with the probability of winning by a small margin if the same ratio of increase was shown.

The smallness of the progressive vote, which last year gave the party second place in the state, was a feature of the election. In many small towns the progressive vote for head of the ticket fell off from 50 to 75 per cent and in the first 886 election districts compiled the total for Joseph Walker, the party nominee for governor, was but 22,916, as against 92,510 for Charles S. Bird, who headed the ticket a year ago.

Congressional figures were slow in coming in. Early returns indicated little change in the complexion of the Massachusetts delegation. Allen T. Treadway in the first district, Frederick H. Gillett in the second, Calvin D. Page in the third, S. A. P. Gardner in the sixth and William S. Greene in the 15th, all republicans, were reelected by substantial majorities.
