Produce and Groceries at Wholesale and Retail.

WILLIAM CATO, respectfully informs the citizens of Holly Springs and Marshall County, that he is now receiving, in part, his stock of Produce and Groceries, and will in a short time have a large and general assortment, and intends to keep constantly on hand, most of the leading articles usually kept in his line—which he feels assured he can sell for cash, at prices that will be satisfactory to all who may wish to purchase.

Persons from the adjoining Counties East and South of Marshall, wishing to purchase smal stocks, may find it to their advantage to give him a call.

Planters are particularly requested to favor him with a call before they buy elsewhere, at Jos. Mosby's old stand East of the Square, two doors North of Messrs. Hatchel & Norfleet's Cabinet Shop.

SALE OF LOTS
IN THE TOWN OF COMMERCE.

THE undersigned commissioners, appointed by the Hernando Rail Road and Banking Company will, on Monday the 29th of October next, proceed to sell at public sale, the very valuable property of the town of COMMERCE, on the Mississippi river, well known as Bridges' and Fletcher's Point. Commerce is located on the bank of the Mississippi, about 40 miles below Memphis, 52 miles west of Holly Springs, and 22 west of Hernando, the county site of DeSoto.

In calling the attention of the public to this point we think it unnecessary, and would be supererogatory to indulge in the too common [illegible] such occasions, of empty boastings a[illegible] descriptions. We would only say th[illegible] siet in question, we believe to be the [illegible] and convenient that can be obtai[illegible] Mssissippi; that it is a beautiful an[illegible] ation; in evidence of which, persons [illegible] dice upon the place who have lived t[illegible] 12 years, and whose robust health seems to warrant them a life of half a century to come.

This town we think offers to capitalists or enterprising foreigners the means of sure speculation; fo- it is surrounded and governed by such circumstances as must impel it to onward improvement. It has the promised support of a [illegible] extent of back country, which for its produ[illegible]ness, and the enterprize of its citizens, is [illegible] surpassed [illegible] in the far-famed valley of the [illegible]ssissippi. the road of the traveller [illegible] Carolina, [illegible] and Alabama, whose spi[illegible] enterprise [illegible] him to the far west, o[illegible] great em[illegible] the South; and whils[illegible] the promise[illegible] dioad, under charte[illegible] State Legisla[illegible] Rng directly from [illegible] the rich interi[illegible] river, it has o[illegible]rce with the wor[illegible]

We invite fo[illegible] to visit Commerce a[illegible] for themselves [illegible] to our immediate fe[illegible]zens. we be[illegible] to say, that in calli[illegible] you for your favor and patronage to this enterprise we do not address your sympathy or liberality; we appeal to your interest and patriotism; we deem it out of place, and superfluous to attempt argument to convince you that it is for our individual and common interest to have a town of exportation and trade within the borders of our own State. It is not a question for argument, but [illegible] made plain, by even volumes of proofs in every one's experience. The southern portion of our great State has a growing and flourishing city at which to export and trade; the middle has equal facilities, whiles the North, equal in natural strength and resources to either, is yet tributary to Tennessee.

The object of our enterprise is to give to North Mississippi equal advantages with the middle and southern parts of the State, and if our fellow-citizens but will it, and will give us the right hand of fellowship, whilst the South has her Natchez, the middle her Vicksburg, the North shall have h[illegible] COMMERCE.

W. H. BAYLISS,
L. D. HENDERSON,
Commissioners.

August 11, 1838.—2-6w

There will be a good road constructed from Commerce to Hernando by the 15th of Oct. next, which is now under contract.

The terms of sales will be on a crdit of one and two years.

[illegible]ROPOSALS

[illegible] Dresden, Weekly county. Ten., [illegible] Newspaper, to be styled

THE TENNESSEE PATRIOT.
EDITED BY J. LEIGH.

THE custom of the times has rendered it necessary that those who would assume the responsible station of Editor, should first lay before the public an expose of the principles by which the proposed publication will be governed—together with the course which it is designed to pursue amid the vexed political questions of the day. To do this, is the object of the following remarks.

The more candid of all political parties do not attempt to disguise the fact, that a large majority of the people of Tennessee are from principle, Democratic Republicans of the Jeffersonian school—attached to doctrines advanced and the course pursued by the late administration. It is true that an attempt has been recently made by some of her recreant sons, to persuade their allies abroad, that Tennessee has forsaken the ground she has so long and so proudly occupied, and that she is now ready to be transferred, as a willing bride, to the arms of whomsoever the leaders of the whig party may select as her future spouse; but the more intelligent part of the community know that the warriors of New Orleans and their sons are made of sterner stuff—that their flag has never fallen before a foreign foe—and that it never can be lowered in the presence of a domestic enemy of their country and its institutions.

Meanwhile it is notoriously true, that every press in this district (with one honorable exception) has gone over to the ranks of our enemy, so that in many instances the people are deprived of the means of forming a correct judgment with reference to important political measures. Frequently does it occur, that for the purpose of obtaining local news, members of the Democratic party are compelled to patronise a press, devoted soul and spirit to the propogation and diffusion of sentiments which we hold to be alike unconstitutional and impolitic; and as in many cases, they are either unable or unwilling to subscribe to more than one newspaper, they are far from being as fully acquainted with the views and intentions of their own party, as they should be; whilst we have no doubt that many honest men are Federalists, simply because they do not know how selfish are the views and how ignoble the aims of the SOI DISANT leaders of their party.

That these difficulties may be obviated in this portion of the State, the PATRIOT will be forthwith established. It will not be a violent party print, nor will it abuse those who may chance to differ with us in sentiment. On the contrary, its columns shall always be open to the temperate discussion of any political question. Believing that, next to the Immortal Washington, the country is most indebted to ANDREW JACKSON for the preservation of those liberties which were purchased with the blood and treasure of the glorious Heroes of '76—warmly attached to the principles which marked his administration, and convinced MARTIN VAN BUREN, THE REJECTED OF THE SENATE, is, from the long and confidential relation which he sustained toward "the sage of the Hermitage," better qualified than any other candidate likely to be before the people at the next election, to carry out those principles; we shall accord to him our humble support, and shall advocate the measures which have so far marked his administration.

We will support a system of internal improvements to be carried on under the patronage of the States, and will oppose any system of the kind intended to be supported by appropriations from the Treasury of the General Government. We will advocate a prudent and judicious system of banking institutions under the authority of the States, and will oppose a National Bank whatever form it may assume; the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, and any tariff not rendered necessary by the wants of the Government.

A portion of the paper will be devoted to light reading—considerable attention will be paid to agriculture, and the usual space occupied with an account of the markets, foreign and domstic intelligence, &c. &c. In a word, we intend to make it a NEWS PAPER, designed to amuse as well as instruct, for the old and the young, the Farmer, the Mechanic, and the Merchant, the grave and the gay, the studious and the severe.

CONDITIONS.

The Patriot will be published weekly, at three dollars per annum, in advance; or four dollars at the end of the year. The first No. will make its appearance about the 15th of November next.

The lands mentioned in said deed and which will be offered for sale are the West half Section No. 19, Township 4, and Range 1, West, of the basis meridian. Also, so much of the North East quarter of the same section as lies on the West side of Chewalla Creek, supposed to to be about 83 acres—the sale to be made at the Court House, in the town of Holly Springs. Those lands are said to be of good quality, situated South-eastwardly, and six or seven miles from Holly Springs, and have been sold at twelve dollars per acre.

EXTRAORDINARY CASE.

QUEBEC, MAY 18, 1837.

Dear Sir—An article called Dr. S. Hewes' Nerve and Bone Liniment, came to my knowledge about two months since, through our friend Mr Campbell, and I procured a bottle and had used of it for a week without any material change, until one morning I found myself under the exercise of very uncommon feelings, imagining that could I be helped up I could stand and walk. I requested my family to aid me, but they were unwilling I should trust myself on my feet, not having for the last FOURTEEN AND A HALF YEARS ever even made the attempt to stand, but my confidence was so great that they consented to assist me from my bed. I found I could use my legs with apparent ease, but could not bear my weight on my feet. With support however, I could place one foot before the other with a facility that astonished me and all around me. They led me twice across the room, I sat down with feelings of happiness that I never before experienced; the idea that I was once again to be restored to the world ran through my frame like an electric shock. My family surrounded me in tears of joy, and the excitement so completely overcome me that I fainted. The same day I walked three times across the floor, again bearing a little weight at each time on my feet. I then used crutches for a few days, when my strength had so far become re-established, that I could cross the floor without the least aid. My advancement from this time has almost been incredible; I can walk two hundred yards and back with ease, and my children, (the bedrid are often blessed like me with near a dozen) have been so overjoyed that they could scarcely eat or sleep, and Mrs. Cossing seems to feel half a score of years younger herself. You well recollect how much bent together I was when you were last here; I have entirely overcome this. If I looked as odd as I felt when I began to walk, I would have been gazed at in astonishment. I have seen many of my old acquaintances, some of whom did not know me at all, and others would scarce credit their senses, and would hardly have been more astonished though one had risen from the dead. I have now every confidence that I am a well man. I think this article is the most extraordinary of any I ever heard of, and if it not extensively made known to the public, I think the proprietors are very culpable. If you know the persons in New York selling it, you had better show them this letter and let them refer to you, or publish this if you think it would aid the distressed. Remember me to your family.

Yours, very truly,
ETHAN C. CORNING.

YEAST POWDERS!

THESE powders are an admirable substitute for yeast in making all kinds of buttercakes and light bread, and have the advantage over that article in making the batter perfectly light the instant they are mixed. Notice.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber on the 19th day of August last, my negro boy—about 19 years of age, about six feet high, very stoutly built, and very likely, it is supposed that the said boy carried off a grey horse, thin in order and a pair of saddle bags.
