DAVIS THEATRE.

Complete Change of Programme Tomorrow—Triangle Photoplays and Three Big Keith Acts Today.

There will be a complete change of programme at the Davis tomorrow, and the feature is the realistic and convincing drama of society life, Matrimony, C. Gardner Sullivan's new play, which will be given by the Triangle combination at the Davis theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Julia Dean wears some wonderful creations of Fifth avenue modistes, and Thomas H. Ince has achieved some charming effects in the furnishings of the various rooms in which the action takes place. Howard Hickman as Weston Rossmore, the fickle husband, is the society man to the fingertips, and goes smoothly about his wicked way of falling in love with every siren that casts her eyes his way.

When Julia Dean as the neglected wife suddenly changes her tactics and begins to flirt with all the men she meets there is a subtle change in Hickman as the husband. He begins to lose interest in the women around him in watching the spectacle of his formerly subdued and domestic mate. Finally he thinks it is time to interfere, after he has found that his little hints serve no purpose. On his failure, the way Hickman turns for comfort to the love of his little daughter (Thelma Salter) is the very picture of the fond father. It all ends up with a happy reconciliation when Diana Rossmore thinks the lesson has been sufficiently impressed that it is as much the duty of a man to hold his wife as vice versa.

The Triangle Keystone comedy on this bill is Ford Sterling in His Father's Footsteps, a two-reel Mack Sennett production, in which there are many comic surprises, and shows this noted comedian at his best. There will also be a complete change of vaudeville, including Clark, Raymond and Clark, a trio of clever entertainers; Hayes and Alpoint, the funniest pair in vaudeville, in their original comedy sketch, Hans Nixe's Baby, and Little Alright, the original Japanese artist, who was featured for many years with Barnum & Bailey's circus.

Today will be the last opportunity to see the excellent show now appearing at this theatre. The Triangle feature is Tully Marshall in The Sable Lorcha—a five reel Griffith production—and the vaudeville feature is McDevitt, Kelly and Lucy in one of the funniest acts of the season. There are also two other good acts and a funny two-reel Keystone comedy. Be sure and see this show; it's great.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Maude Allen in The Rugmaker's Daughter, Paramount Feature for Today and Tomorrow.

Wizner's Animals, the feature act which has been causing so much talk about town since Monday, will be seen today for the last time. The dogs and monkeys are particularly well trained and, unlike most animal acts, it has lots of snap and go to it from beginning to end. There is one exceptionally clever monk who is made up as Charlie Chaplin and seems to work all by himself and is continually jumping up and interfering with something else that is going on, using his little Chaplin cane and hat to good advantage. Other acts on the bill are Gladioli, a clever character singer, and Joe Burns, who has a very funny monologue which he delivers in a very interesting manner.

On the picture programme for today and tomorrow will be the 21st number of the Paramount travel pictures and the five-reel Paramount feature, Maude Allen in The Rugmaker's Daughter, a very beautiful picture, well acted and containing much action and beautiful scenes. It depicts a story of the smuggling of expensive rugs from foreign ports to this country and involves a very pretty romantic drama.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Jewel, the Five-Reel Cameo of the Films, With Miss Ella Hall.

Did you ever cry from sheer happiness? See Jewel. Did you ever laugh with a lump in your throat and a mist before your eyes, and little thrills of happiness meandering through your system? If so, see Jewel. Did you ever see a picture so satisfying that you wanted to get away by yourself and think about it and live its scenes over again in memory; a picture so beautiful, so altogether lovely you would rather leave the theatre than have your inward vision spoiled by the next picture on the programme? If so, see Jewel, the captivating, rollicking, heart-appealing drama in five reels at the Colonial theatre today. Life will take on a new aspect the moment you have seen the wonderful picture, and childhood will bloom again in your heart with all its superlative innocence and beauty. Jewel is a child's play for grown-ups, dainty, sweet and humorous, with the laugh that borders closely on the tears. The settings of the play are those of great wealth, and Miss Ella Hall, the famous universal favorite, plays the 13 year old girl, who transforms a house of scheming intrigue into a haven of warmth, love and tenderness. One feels that he is peeping into the hearts and home life of a real family. There are no train wrecks with hundreds of persons killed, but just scenes that when showed at the Broadway theatre, New York, before an audience of hardened film reviewers, there was not a dry eye in the house, many declaring it to be better than many of the more sensational features rolled into one. Miss Ella Hall is the foremost delineator of child characters, not the cheap "kid" work, but artistic conceptions of ideal youth. For tomorrow, The House of Scandals, five reels, with Harold Lockwood, is the feature.

NORWICH TOWN

Mrs. Orrin Carey Dies After a Brief Illness—Adder Killed on Walk—Gold Award Received by Prize Baby.

Mrs. Melissa J. Carey, wife of Orrin Carey, whose death from pneumonia occurred Monday morning at her home on West Town street, after a few days' illness, was born in Plainfield Feb. 22, 1847, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Lamphere. About five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Carey came to Norwich Town from Rhode Island, making frequent visits during these years to their daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Rathbone, in Charlestown, R. I. Another daughter, Mrs. William Hughes, lives in Mystic. There are nine grandchildren. Mrs. Carey was a lovable woman, making friends of all who knew her. Her loss is deeply felt by her husband and children, to whom her devotion was unfailing. She was a member of the First Methodist church and a constant attendant, being in church the last Sunday but one of her life. Mrs. Carey was also a loyal member of the Dorcas Missionary society.

Prize Baby Receives Award.

At the baby contest held last September at the New London county agricultural fair the first prize, $5 in gold, was awarded to Lewis Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eccleston, of Otrobando avenue, and has recently been received by them.

Mrs. Zumbro to Speak.

Mrs. William M. Zumbro will give an address at the missionary meeting this (Wednesday) afternoon in the First Congregational chapel.

January Adder.

Friday morning Henry Eccleston killed an adder two feet long which he found on the sidewalk in front of his house on Tanner street.

Mrs. McConnell Ill.

Mrs. William McConnell of Bliss place is ill with grip and bronchitis.

Miss Maria Allyn of Oneco street is steadily improving from her recent illness.

Finding that the intense cold is penetrating to the cellars, farmers are removing vegetables to warmer places.

Miss Jennie McNamara, teacher of the intermediate department of the West Town street school, is ill at her home on Wightman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccleston of Tanner street had as guests over Sunday Mrs. Eccleston's mother, Mrs. John Botham, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Church, all from Montville.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Coon, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George A. Frink of Otrobando avenue, are now in New London to visit cousins. From there they will go to Plainville before returning to their home in Medina, N. Y.

CLASSED AMERICA AMONG GERMANY'S WORST ENEMY.

Herr Von Heydebrant's Statement in Prussian Chamber of Deputies.

Berlin, Jan. 17, via London, Jan. 18, 5.15 p. m.—In the Prussian chamber of deputies today Herr Von Heydebrand, the conservative leader, referred incidentally to America as among Germany's "worst enemies."

Germany, he said, enjoyed the splendid feeling of being innocent of all the horrors of this war.

"I should not wish to bear the responsibility of our worst enemies among which America must now be reckoned, because it prolonged the war for at least one year," he said.

Discussing taxation prospects, Herr Von Heydebrand expressed the gravest concern at the probable burdens to be placed on the wealthiest classes and feared for the independent existence of the individual states. Things already had gone so far, he said, that the tax payers must place a fifth, a fourth or even a considerably larger portion of their income upon the altar of the country. He warned the imperial government against levying further direct taxes, but admitted that his confidence in the government in this matter was not unlimited. If direct taxes were placed upon incomes and property from all quarters that must lead to the impoverishment of the wealthier classes, he asserted.

Herr Von Heydebrand proceeded to discuss a passage from the speech from the throne promising reform of the Prussian electoral law. He denied there was any need for a change, because the present law, in his belief, meets ideally the needs of the state.

Herr Pachnicke, progressive, called attention to the fact that the purpose of Herr Von Heydebrand's speech was to express discontent with the speech from the throne. He demanded that electoral reform be brought about before the next elections in 1918.

Herr Von Loebel, the minister of the interior, said that the harmonious cooperation of all parties was absolutely necessary to the government. Therefore, it regards it as inopportune to discuss electoral reform at this stage, but is determined to seek a solution of the question after the coming of peace.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

LEGAL NOTICES

To Whom It May Concern:

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Court of Common Council of the City of Norwich, held on the 10th day of January, 1916, the following proposition was submitted by the Committee on Public Works and the final resolution was adopted.

Norwich, Connecticut, Jan. 18, 1916.

Attest: ARTHUR G. CROWELL,
City Clerk and Clerk of the Court of Common Council.

To the Court of Common Council of the City of Norwich, Conn.:

The Committee on Public Works, to which was referred the petition of The Norwich Land Improvement Company, by Vine S. Stetson, and dated Dec. 6, 1915, which was presented to the Court of Common Council at a meeting held Dec. 6, 1915, asking for a sidewalk and the establishment of a grade for the sidewalk on Spring Garden avenue, on the southwesterly side from West Thames street to Woodmansee avenue, and on the northeasterly side from West Thames street to Summit street, beg leave to report that it has given the matter its consideration and recommends that action be taken with reference thereto as follows:

Resolved: That the grade for the sidewalk on the southwesterly side of Spring Garden avenue, in the City of Norwich, in front of the property owned by Lena G. Perkins, M. J. Woodworth, Norwich Housing Company, be, and the same is, hereby established as follows:

Beginning at a point in Spring Garden avenue six feet northeasterly from the southwesterly line of said Spring Garden avenue, at an elevation of .485 foot below the top of the merestone at the junction of the southwesterly line of Spring Garden avenue and the northwesterly line of West Thames street, and running thence northwesterly on a line parallel with and six feet northeasterly from the said southwesterly line of Spring Garden avenue on grades as follows:

555.4 feet, falling 6.15 feet, to a point in Spring Garden avenue six feet northeasterly from the southwesterly line of Spring Garden avenue at the junction of said southwesterly line of Spring Garden avenue and the southeasterly line of Woodmansee avenue.

Resolved: That said sidewalk be, and the same is, hereby laid out six feet wide on the southwesterly side of the above described line its entire length.

Resolved: That the grade for the sidewalk on the northeasterly side of Spring Garden avenue, in the City of Norwich, in front of the property owned by Homer D. Gager, W. C. Young, Daniel C. Young, Jr., E. B. and L. M. Dolbeare, Lula M. Browning, V. S. Stetson and W. C. Young, V. S. Stetson, W. C. Young, The Norwich Housing Company, be, and the same is, hereby established as follows:

Beginning at a point in Spring Garden avenue six feet southwesterly from the northeasterly line of Spring Garden avenue, at an elevation of .804 foot below the top of the merestone above mentioned, and running thence northwesterly on a line parallel with and six feet southwesterly from the said northeasterly line of Spring Garden avenue, on grades as follows:

555.4 feet, falling 6.344 feet; thence 40 feet, level; thence

300 feet, rising 4.071 feet, to a point in Spring Garden avenue six feet southwesterly from the northeasterly line of Spring Garden avenue at the junction of the northeasterly line of Spring Garden avenue and the southeasterly line of Summit street.

Resolved: That said sidewalk be, and the same is, hereby laid out six feet wide on the northeasterly side of the above described line its entire length.

Resolved: That the owners of land abutting on the southwesterly line of Spring Garden avenue, from the northwesterly line of West Thames street to the southeasterly line of Woodmansee avenue; and the owners of land abutting on the northeasterly line of Spring Garden avenue, from the northwesterly line of West Thames street to the southeasterly line of Summit street be, and they are, hereby ordered to lay a stone curb and duly form with asphalt concrete, at their own expense, the sidewalks abutting their respective premises, in accordance with the grades and line described in the foregoing resolutions; and all said sidewalks must be completed on or before the first day of June, 1916, to the satisfaction of the Street Commissioner.

Resolved: That provided said sidewalks are not formed with asphalt concrete and stone curbing, as directed in the preceding resolution, to the satisfaction and acceptance of the Street Commissioner, by the 2d day of June, 1916, the Street Commissioner is hereby directed to lay a stone curb for said sidewalks, and duly form the same with asphalt concrete, in accordance with the intent of the foregoing order.

Dated at Norwich, Conn., this 10th day of January, 1916.

M. H. HOURIGAN,
WILLIAM J. KRAMER,
W. P. BAILEY,
Committee on Public Works.

Resolved: That consideration of the foregoing resolutions relative to the grade, width and construction of sidewalks on the southwesterly and northeasterly side of Spring Garden avenue, in the City of Norwich, between the points described in the foregoing resolutions, be postponed to a meeting of the Court of Common Council, to be held at the Council Chamber in said City, on the 7th day of February, 1916, at 8 o'clock in the evening, and that notice thereof be given in the manner required by law to all persons interested to appear, if they see cause, and be heard in relation thereto.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest: ARTHUR G. CROWELL,
City Clerk and Clerk of the Court of Common Council.

CARRY STOMACH JOY IN YOUR VEST POCKET

Here's a Dyspepsia Remedy That Is Really Guaranteed By Your Own Druggist.

One of the greatest successes in the sale of medicine has been achieved by Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy, and its sale is increasing so rapidly that many druggists have hard work to keep a stock on hand. It is very popular with bankers, ministers, lawyers and others whose business or profession keeps them closely confined, while those who have brought on indigestion through irregular eating, worry, or other causes, have found relief in this reliable remedy.

Mi-o-na comes in tablet form and is sold in a metal box especially designed for convenience in carrying the medicine in the pocket or purse. It is pleasant to take, is instant relief for belching of gas, sourness, heartburn and other distresses attendant upon indigestion. It should help any case, no matter of how long a standing. This remedy has been so uniformly successful that all druggists are authorized to sell Mi-o-na under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it should not prove entirely satisfactory. We doubt if any other dyspepsia medicine ever had a large enough percentage of cures so that it could be sold in this manner. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merits of the remedy.

There is no time like the present to do a thing that ought to be done. If any one has dyspepsia, today is the best time to begin curing it by going to Lee & Osgood or any leading druggist in this vicinity and buying a box of Mi-o-na on this money back guarantee.

A Few Cents And a Little Action

The Bulletin WANT ADS are not an expensive employment bureau. A few cents invested in the right kind of a "Help Wanted" ad usually brings quick and sure returns.

The cost of a three-line ad three times is 45c, six times is 90c, and one time is 15c.

No other way has ever been discovered of reaching so many people at so little cost. To send a one-cent card to the many readers of The Bulletin would cost dollars for postage alone.

It's quicker, better and cheaper to call 480, The Bulletin, when you have an ad. THE RESULTS take care of THE COST.

POETRY

"LET IT PASS."

Be not swift to take offense,
Let it pass!
Anger is a foe to sense,
Let it pass!
Brood not daily o'er a wrong
Which will disappear ere long,
Rather sing this cheery song,
Let it pass,
Let it pass!

Strife corrodes the purest mind,
As the unregarded wind,
Let it pass!
Any vulgar souls that live
May condemn without reprieve,
'Tis the noble who forgive;
Let it pass,
Let it pass!

Echo not an angry word,
Let it pass!
Think how often you have erred,
Let it pass!
Since our joys must pass away
Like the dewdrops on the spray,
Wherefore should our sorrows stay?
Let it pass!
Let it pass!

If for good you're taken ill,
Let it pass!
Oh, be kind and gentle still!
Let it pass!
Time at last makes all things straight;
Let us not resent, but wait,
And our triumph shall be great;
Let it pass
Let it pass!

Bid your anger to depart,
Let it pass!
Lay these homely words to heart,
Let it pass!
Follow not the giddy throng;
Better to be wronged than wrong.
Therefore, sing the cheery song,
Let it pass,
Let it pass!

SNOW.

You can dig it, you can mold it, you can pat it into balls,
You can pile it for a fortress with a cannon on the walls;
You can work it into puddings, you can play that it's a pill,
You can use it in the freezer, or for sliding down a hill;
You can build it into goblins or a fairy's slender shape,
And it makes a lovely ermine for a doll's winter cape;
It's a cushion and a mattress when you tumble down kerflop;
When you're just a little bigger you can snowshoe on its top.
It's a friend that never quarrels and a game without a rule;
When it's very, very heavy, it can keep you home from school.
Though we like the toys that sing and walk and bark and climb and go,
There was never such a plaything as a winter full of snow!

—Marion West, in Scattered Seeds.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

John—The French have gained 400 meters from the enemy.

Auntie—How splendid! That should help to put a stop to those dreadful gas attacks!—London Tit-Bits.
