JAMES G. CLARK.—This gifted Song writer is the author of some beautiful poems, and among others the exquisite song which has gone the rounds of the press, and which we re-produce below, entitled "'Tis Sweet to be Remembered." Read and admire it:

'Tis Sweet to be Remembered.

O! 'tis sweet to be remembered
In the merry days of youth,
While the world seems full of brightness,
And the soul retains its truth—
When our hopes are like the morning beams
That flash along the sea,
And every dream we know of life
Is one of purity.
'Tis sweet to be remembered
As the Spring remembers earth
Spreading roses in our pathway,
Filling all our hearts with mirth.

O! 'tis sweet to be remembered
In the summer time of life,
Ere we reach the burning summit
With our weight of woe and strife—
To look backward through the shadows
Where our journey first begun,
And the golden flowers of memory
Turn their faces to the Sun.
'Tis sweet to be remembered
As the breeze remembers day,
Floating upward from the valley
O'er the pilgrim's weary way.

O! 'tis sweet to be remembered
When our life has lost its bloom,
And every morning sun we meet
May leave us at the tomb—
When our youth is half forgotten,
And we gaze with yearnings fond,
From a world where all are dying
To a deathless world beyond,
'Tis sweet to be remembered
As the stars remember night,
Shining downward, thro' the darkness,
With a pure and holy light. —Selected.

VARIETY.

A dentist at work in his vocation always looks down in the mouth.

The prettiest trimming for a woman's bonnet is a good-humored face.

An harangue in Parliament or Congress, in favor of declaring war, may be called a war-rant.

Why should lawyers be classed as members of the feminine gender? Because they are females.

Fame is like an eel—rather slippery, hard to catch, and a good deal harder to hold.

Men are never more offended than when their veracity is suspected.

A man will generally give you his advice without charge, but you will often be cheated if you take it.

A malignant sore throat is a very bad thing, but a malignant throat, not sore, is scarcely any better.

When Socrates was asked why he had built for himself so small a house, he replied, "Small as it is, I wish I could fill it with friends."

A wag being asked the name of the inventor of butter-stamps, replied that it was probably Cadmus, as he first brought letters into Greece.

Excess of ceremony shows want of breeding. That civility is best which excludes all superfluous formality.

Vanity Fair propounds the following: Why was it very strange for John Bunyan to be the author of Pilgrim's Progress? Because all other bunions that ever were heard of impede the progress of pilgrims.

"It is a deplorable condition," says Bishop Sherlock, "to be always doing what we are always condemning." The reproaches of others are painful enough; but when the lash is laid on by your own hand, the burden is intolerable.

Wife (anxiously:) "What did that young lady observe who passed us just now?" Husband (with a smile of calm delight:) "Why, my love, she observed rather a good-looking man walking with quite an elderly female—that's all. A-hem!"

WHICH WAS FIRST.—The following has been proposed for discussion by members of a debating society: Was it the egg or the chicken that first made its appearance on this terrestrial globe? In other words, did the first chicken come out of an egg, or did the first egg come out of a chicken?

A QUESTION.—At best, life is not very long. A few more smiles, a few more tears, some pleasure, much pain, sunshine and songs, clouds and darkness, hasty greetings, abrupt farewells—then our little play will close, and injurer and injured will pass away. Is it worth while to hate each other?

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.—Let the business of everybody else alone, and attend to your own; don't buy what you don't want; use every hour to advantage, and study to make your leisure hour useful; think twice before you throw away a shilling, remember you will have another to make for it; find recreation in looking over your business; buy low, sell fair, and take care of the profits; look over your books regularly, and if you find an error trace it out; should a stroke of misfortune come upon you in trade, retrench, work harder, but never fly the track, control difficulties with unflinching perseverance, and they will disappear at last; though you should fail in the struggle, you will be honored; but shrink from the task and you will be despised.

THE LOSS OF A WIFE.—No man but one who has been called upon to mourn the loss of a beloved companion can appreciate the beauty and truthfulness of the following article which we copy from an exchange:

"In comparison with the loss of a wife all other bereavements are trifling. The wife—she who fills so large a space in the domestic heaven; she who busied herself so unwearily from the precious ones around her; bitter, bitter is the tear that falls upon her cold clay! You stand beside her coffin, and think of the past. It seems an amber colored pathway, where the sun shone on beautiful flowers, and the stars hung glittering over head. Pain would the soul linger there; no thorns are remembered, save those your hands may unwillingly have planted; her noble, tender heart lies open to your inmost sight. You think of her now as all gentleness, all beauty, all purity. But she is dead! The dear head that has lain upon your bosom rests in the still darkness upon a pillow of clay. The hands that have ministered so untiringly are folded beneath the gloomy portals, the heart whose every beat measured an eternity of love lies under your feet. The flowers she bent over in smiles, bend now above her in tears, shaking the dew from their petals, that the verdure around her may be green and beautiful.

FEMALE INFLUENCE AND ENERGY.—I have noticed that a married man falling into misfortune is more apt to retrieve his situation in the world than a single one, chiefly because his spirits are soothed and relieved by domestic endearments and self-respect, kept alive by finding that, although abroad may be darkness and humiliation, yet there is still a little world of love at home, of which he is the monarch. Whereas, a single man is apt to run to waste and self-neglect—to fall to ruin like some deserted mansion, for want of inhabitants. I have often had occasion to remark the fortitude with which women sustain the most overwhelming reverse of fortune. Those disasters which break down the spirit of man, and prostrate him in the dust, seem to call forth all the energies of the other sex, and give such intrepidity and elevation to their character, that at times it approaches to sublimity. Nothing can be more touching than to behold a soft and tender female, who had been all weakness and dependence, and alive to every trivial roughness, while treading the prosperous path, suddenly rising in mental force to be the comforter and supporter of her husband under misfortunes, abiding with unshrinking firmness the bitterest blasts of adversity. As the vine which has long twined its graceful foliage about the oak, and has been lifted by his sunshine, will, when the hardy plant is riffled by the thunderbolt, cling around it with its caressing tendrils, and bind up its shattered brow, so, too, it is beautifully ordained by Providence, that woman, who is the ornament and dependent of man in his happier hours, should be his stay and solace when smitten with dire and sudden calamity, winding herself into the rugged recesses of his nature, tenderly supporting his drooping head, and binding up the broken heart.—Washington Irving.

CHILDREN TEETHING
MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,
which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is
SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS
Depend on it, mothers, it will give rest to themselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.
We have put up and sell this article for over ten years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we never have been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of the magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years' experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it is the BEST AND SURE EST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints, Do NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE—yes ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper, and by Druggists throughout the world.
