OMNIBUS LINE.
P. H. Patterson, & Bro.

We respectfully inform the travelling public that we have running in connection with all the Rail Roads terminating at Memphis, a regular line of Omnibuses, for conveying passengers and baggage to and from the Depots, Hotels, and any other part of the city. Our Omnibuses will be found at the doors of the different Hotels in sufficient time for every train of cars starting from this point.

As the United States Mails are carried on this line, passengers will find it much safe to patronize us, as the cars never leave until the Mails are delivered by us.

By strict attention and promptness to the travellers wants, we hope to share a share of the public patronage.

THE HEALTH OF MISSISSIPPI.

This section of country has never been so healthy as has been this season, and the cause of it is the large quantities of that has been used. Now it has become an indispensable remedy in every family. For children having the Summer Complaint, Hives, Blotches on the skin, &c., it is an infallible remedy. When taken it neutralizes any morbid or bilious matter in the stomach or bowels, strengthens and invigorates the digestive organs, and causes healthy secretions of the liver and kidneys. This is the reason why it is proved so efficacious in curing Diarrhea, Dysentery, Bowel Complaint, Pain in the Stomach, &c.—It has cured many that were afflicted for years with Chronic Diarrhea.

M'LEAN'S STRENGTHENING CORDIAL,

a certain remedy for Weakness, Painter or Debility, Sick Stomach, Biliousness, Headache, Bad Breath, Dizziness, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, or any disease of the kidneys, weak or bladder. It will renew the feeble, sickly, pale and emaciated to health and strength. There is no mistake about it—we can refer to thousands to prove that fact.

One tablespoonful taken every morning, fasting, is a certain preventive for Fevers, Chills and Fever, &c.

Also, M'Lean's Valuable Oil Liniment.

J. H. M'LEAN,
Sole Proprietor.

FROM AND AFTER MONDAY, July 13th, through Mail Train will leave Memphis daily (Sundays excepted) at 7:30 a. m., and arrive at Como at 10:05, a. m.

Returning, leaves at 10:30, a. m. arrive at Memphis 1 p. m.

This train connects daily at Como with J. P. McAlexander & Co's daily line of stage coaches for Panola and Grenada—staging reduced to fifteen miles between Memphis and Grenada; through in eighteen hours. The travelling public may rely on this being the shortest and cheapest route to Grenada, Canton, Jackson and Vicksburg.

The Freight train will make daily trips (Sundays excepted) from and after Monday, January 19th, to Como. It will be expected that consignees will have arrangements made to receive their goods at that station on arrival, as the company have only temporary arrangements for taking care of freights and will not be responsible for the loss or damage to the same at the station.

Passengers are requested to purchase tickets before entering the cars, and save payments of extra fares.

Baggage checked to all stations on the Railroad, and no baggage will be received without being checked.

Each passenger will be allowed one hundred pounds of baggage by the Railroad and sixty pounds by stage, but no article will be carried as baggage that is not incident to the person of the passenger.

In case of loss the Company will hold themselves responsible for an amount not exceeding fifty dollars.

Negroes, when travelling alone, must have a permit, naming the point to which they are to go, and specifying that they are to travel by railroad, or they will not be carried.

Pope & Brothers.
Cash Dealers in Fancy and Domestic Dry Goods,
No. 285 Main Street, Memphis,

Are now receiving their splendid stock of fall and winter Goods. All the beauty and elegance to be found in dress goods we have in our establishment. Our Dress Silks consist in all the various fabrics and manufactures to be obtained in the European markets. The richness of the Chinas, Ambres and Moires, Antiques, Striped Silks, cannot be surpassed in gaiety and elegance—yet the silk robes are said to be more so worn. Every article of dress can be found by examining our stock.

CLOAKS!

The Brazillian is a graceful mantean, which is adapted to the fall season. The Cantier, the Morocco, the Hispania, the Lounge and Tourists, are suited to the several different styles of dress for which they were manufactured, which cannot fail to satisfy the most fasty. We are determined that no city shall surpass Memphis in fine goods. The ladies of this section need not incur the expense nor be troubled by going abroad for these things.

NEW HARDWARE STORE!
Hawks, Smith & Co.,
Importers of Foreign and Dealers in American Hardware,

Nos. 304 & 306 Main street, Memphis, between Union and Monroe sts.

To the Merchants, Planters and Mechanics of Panola county:

The subscribers are opening the largest and best selected stock of Hardware, Cutlery, Agricultural Implements, Iron, Nails, Cordage, &c., ever offered for sale in this section of country, among which may be found—

Agricultural Implements, Iron, Nails, Cordage, Tin Plate, Tinners' materials, Blacksmiths' and Carpenters' Tools, Table and Pocket Cutlery, Shovels, Spades, Hoes, Axes, Corn Mills, chargers of all kinds, Oakum, cotton, sisalia and jute Cordage; Builders' materials, of every variety and in large quantities.

We would most respectfully call the attention of the merchants of this section of country to the fact that, purchasing as we do, our goods at as low figures as any house in New York, Boston or Philadelphia, we are enabled to compete with them in prices, and are determined to do so. To the planters, we would say, that in the selection of our goods, we have endeavored to promote their interests as well as our own. Our stock of Tinners' materials will always be found full and complete, and at lower prices than any other concern in this city. Our tools of all kinds have been selected personally and from the very best makers. All we ask is a fair and careful examination of our stock and prices.

Will, for the future, present rare attractions to the Bibliographer and Bibliomaniac. Mr. Cleaves' experience, (from assiduous and unremitting attention to the business for fifteen years past) and Mr. Guion's acknowledged energy and activity, are the surest guarantees to the community for the fulfillment of their promise to make their establishment the resource of the literary world. Having now "ample room and verge enough" to give scope to their cherished intention of exhibiting to the Southwest a Bookstore in the broadest sense of the phrase, they now ask respectfully that all will call and determine for themselves whether "the performance is in keeping with the high-sounding manifesto."

For the Religious World!

Protestant and Catholic, Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal and Baptist, of whatever sect, we propose keeping the standards of their respective faith, and the "trade mark" of their daily life.

The World in General!

Such as desire an acquaintance with the extensive range of literature at the present day, will find upon our shelves all that the Press, that mighty engine of knowledge, sends forth of ancient or modern classics, of history, poetry, philosophy or belles lettres.

Professional Men

Will be furnished with all the authors, legal or medical, ancient and modern, European and American, which may be desired. Particular attention will be given to this hitherto neglected branch of the trade. In a word, our purpose is to keep always on hand Religious, Political, Scientific, Mechanical, Legal, Medical, School and Miscellaneous Books.

Stationery.—Foreign and American Blank Books, of all kinds and sizes; Copying Presses; Book Checks and Notes; Pencils, Pens, Ink, Paper—letter, note and cap; Envelopes, of all sizes; Wafers, Sand, etc., to furnish to the trade in the city and out, and to individuals, at wholesale or retail, as reasonably as may be desired, to supersede, in brief, the necessity of going elsewhere to supply their wants.

All our departments are complete. We solicit a continuance of the liberal patronage we have heretofore received, that we may have inducement to keep them so. Call and Examine.
