Deep-Rooted Prejudice.

A Yankee, boasting of his inveterate hatred of everything British, is living in a neighboring city with a colonist family. He takes every opportunity to have a slap at brother Bull, and the colonist does what he can to defend the venerable gentleman.

'You are arguing (said the colonist) against your ancestors.'

'No, I'm not.'

'Who was your father?'

'A Yankee.'

'Who were your forefathers?'

'Yankees.'

'Who were Adam and Eave?'

'Yankees, by thunder?'

Seriously speaking, it will take a century to dissipate the rancor engendered by the unnatural war of 1812! Where is the press in such an exigency? Unfortunately, the press of our day seems more inclined to keep alive such unnatural animosity than to neutralize it. As the poet says:

"'Tis true, 'tis pity—and pity 'tis, 'tis true."

—— Some gentlemen being met tavern together, for want of diversion, one proposed play; 'but,' said another of the company, 'I have fourteen good reasons against gaming.'

What are they, said another.

In the first place, said he, I have no money.

O! said the other, if you had four hundred reasons you need not name another.

—— A bookseller advertises 'new children's books.' This is somewhat like the man who advertised 'red children's stockings—black men's leather gloves—plain ladies' fur soles and mahogany children's claim!'

Seven Deadly Sins.

1. Refusing to take a newspaper.
2. Taking a newspaper and not paying for it.
3. Not advertising.
4. Getting married without sending out of the wedding cake.
5. Making the printer officiate at a funeral.
6. Heading the manuscript in the compositor's hand.
7. Sending abusive letters to the editor.

For the first and second offences absolution can't be granted. The fourth is impracticable. The fifth is death by the law. For the balance dispensation can be received by expert bulls from the Pope of Rome.

—— A New Orleans paper states that there is a hog in that city, with his ears so far back that he cant hear himself squeal.

Locked Jaw.—The oldest case of this disease which stands recorded must be that referred to by a Scotch clergyman while preaching to his congregation on the subject of Daniel in the lion's den, and his miraculous deliverance from so imminent a peril, thus proceeded:

'An' what do you think was the reason why the lions didn't tear Daniel to pieces, and eat him up, even as a cat eats up a mouse? I dare say non o' ye can tell, non. Very well, I'll jist tell ye how it was—the Lord above he gin' 'em the lock'd paw."

This beats all medical records to chips.

—— The editor of the Sandusky Register lately called at the house of a girl he is 'afier,' where he had the following conversation with the Irish servant girl:

Editor. Is Miss W. at home? (with a sweet smile.)

Biddy. She is, sir. (Scratching her head.)

Editor. Is she engaged? (Twirling his hat, and trying to look 'killing.')

Biddy. Engaged, is it? Faith, and I cant say, sir; but she kissed Mother V—— last avening as if she never seen the likes ov him, and its engaged that i believe they are, sir!

—— A Danish writer speaks of a hut so miserable that it did not know which way to fall. This is like the man that had such a complication of diseases that he did not know what to die of, and so lived on.

☞ A foppish fellow advised a fellow not to marry a poor gir', as he would find matrimony with poverty, 'an up-hill work.'

'Good,' said his friend, 'I would rather go up hill than down, any time."

Miss. & Ten. Railroad.

FROM AND AFTER MONDAY, Jan'y 12th, through Mail Train will leave Memphis daily (Sundays excepted) at 7:30 a. m., and arrive at Como at 10:05, a. m.

Returning, leaves at 10:30, a. m., arrive at Memphis 1 p. m.

This train connects daily at Como with J. P. McAlexander & Co's daily line of six-horse Coaches for Panola and Grenada—staging reduced to fifty-two miles between Memphis and Grenada; through in eighteen hours. The traveling public may rely on this being the shortest and cheapest route to Grenada, Canton, Jackson and Vicksburg.

The Freight train will make daily trips (Sundays excepted) from and after Monday, January 19th, to Como. It will be expected that consignees will have arrangements made to receive their goods at that station on arrival, as the company have only temporary arrangements for taking care of freights and will not be responsible for the loss or damage to the same at the station.

Passengers are requested to purchase tickets before entering the cars, and save payments of extra fares.

Baggage checked to all stations on the Railroad, and no baggage will be received without being checked.

Each passenger will be allowed one hundred pounds of baggage by the Railroad and sixty pounds by stage, but no article will be carried as baggage that is not incident to the person of the passenger.

In case of loss the Company will hold themselves responsible for an amount not exceeding fifty dollars.

Negroes, when traveling alone, must have a permit, naming the point to which they are to go, and specifying that they are to travel by railroad, or they will not be carried.

THE HEALTH OF MISSISSIPPI.

This section of country has never been so healthy as has been this season, and the cause of it is the large quantities of

M'LEAN'S
Celebrated STRENGTHENING Cordial and BLOOD PURIFIER

That has been used. Now it has become an indispensable remedy in every family. For children having the Summer Complaint, Hives, Blotches on the skin, &c., it is an infallible remedy. When taken it neutralizes any morbid or billious matter in the stomach or bowels, strengthens and invigorates the digestive organs, and causes healthy secretions of the liver and kidneys. This is the reason why it has proved so efficacious in curing Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Bowel Complaint, Pain in the Stomach, &c.,—It has cured many that were afflicted for years with Chronic Diarrhœa.

M'LEAN'S STRENGTHENING CORDIAL

is a certain remedy for Weakness, Faintness or Debility, Sick Stomach, Billiousness; Headache, Bad Breath, Dizziness, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, or any disease of the kidneys, womb or bladder. It will restore the feeble, sickly, pale and emaciated to health and strength. There is no mistake about it—we can refer to thousands to prove that fact.

One tablespoonful taken every morning, fasting, is a certain preventive for Cholera, Chills and Fever, &c.

Also, M'Lean's Volcanic Oil Liniment.

J. H. M'LEAN,
Sole Proprietor.

☞ I. H. Pike, wholesale agent for the whole South. Orders sent to Bynum's creek will be promptly attended to.

"STAR GALLERY."
219 Main street, Memphis, Tennessee,

ARE ASTONISHING THE WORLD with their NEW and VALUABLE PROCESS of making LIFE-SIZED Portraits, direct upon Canvas, and colored in Oil, by one of the first artists in the country.

They have been to great expense in procuring the exclusive right for making these celebrated Photographs on canvass, and having fitted up an entire new STUDIO for this branch of the Art, they are prepared to execute all orders sent to them by mail from Daguerreotypes, or any other kind of picture that may be sent. In copying from a Daguerreotype a lock of hair should accompany the picture, with a full description of color of hair, eyes, complexion, etc.—all pictures warranted perfect likenesses. This is the only opportunity of securing a life-like picture from a faint resemblance of a dear friend. Being colored in oil upon canvass it is imperishable. Persons visiting the city should not fail to visit PARK & PERPLOW'S Studio of FINE ARTS, where all kinds of PICTURES known in the art, are made in the most perfect style and finish.

ONE MONTH LATER!

FROM the "Photographic and Fine Art Journal," published in New York City, November number, page 352:

"THE MELAINOTYPE.

"This style of picture we have spoken of in a former number, and we can only add here that our prediction as to the capability of superseding the Ambrotype is fast becoming realized. There is a pleasing artistic effect about them that can never be produced by the Ambrotype. This, together with the perfect ease with which they can be made, the certainty of their everlasting quality, and the impossibility of their destruction by any but accidents which would be the ruin of an ambrotype, will secure their general adoption."

W. H. DeSHONG,
181 Main street, opposite Worsham House, Memphis, Tennessee, has the exclusive right of that city for the MELAINOTYPE PATENT. They are much superior to the Daguerreotype, Ambrotype or Spherotype, and cost just the same. Give them a fair trial. n42-3m
