OMNIBUS LINE.

P. M. Patterson, & Bro.

respectfully inform the travelling public that we have running in connection with all the Rail Roads terminating at Memphis, a regular line of Omnibuses, for conveying passengers and baggage to and from the Depots, Hotels, and any other part of the city. Our omnibuses will be found at the doors of the different Hotels in sufficient time for every train of cars departing from this point.

As the United States Mails are carried on this line, passengers will find it the most safe to patronize us, as the cars never leave until the Mails are delivered by us.

By strict attention and promptness to the travellers wants, we hope to secure a share of the public patronage.

OUR NEW FIRM.

It affords me pleasure to announce to my friends and the public that I have associated with me my former partner, James S. Wilkins, and my well known assistant, Thomas Hill, under the facetious style of F. H. CLARK & CO.

The new firm will start with an efficient force in each mechanical branch, the Watch department being under the supervision of Thomas Wilkins.

Stock full at all times of the latest fashions, and prices as low as the same quality and style of goods can be purchased in New York and Philadelphia.

I am thankful for the liberal patronage extended to me during my fifteen years' residence in Memphis, and my aim will be to merit its countenance.

F. H. CLARK.

NEW HARDWARE STORE!

Hawks, Smith & Co.

Importers of Foreign and Domestic Hardware,

Nos. 304 & 306 Main street, Memphis, between Union and Monroe sts.

To the Merchants, Planters and Citizens of Panola county:

The subscribers are opening the largest and best selected stock of Hardware, Cutlery, Agricultural Implements, Iron, Nails, Castings, &c., ever offered for sale in this section of country, among which may be found—

Agricultural Implements, Iron, Nails, Castings, Tin Plate, Tinners' materials, Blacksmiths' and Carpenters' Tools, Table and Pocket Cutlery, Shovels, Spades, Hoes, Axes, Corn Mills, Cross cut saws, Hands, Oakum; cotton, manila and Cordage; builders' materials, of every variety and in large quantities.

We would most respectfully call the attention of the merchants of this section of country to the fact that, purchasing as we do, our goods at as low agencies as any house in New York, Boston or Philadelphia, we are enabled to compete with them in prices, and are determined to do so. To the planters, we would say, that the selection of our goods, we have endeavored to promote their interests as much as our own. Our stock of Tinners' materials will always be found full and complete, and at lower prices than any other concern in this city. Our tools of all kinds have been selected personally from the very best makers. All we ask is a fair and careful examination of our stock and prices.
