More about the Magical Pain Extractor.

This salve is doing wonders, and one half of the cures and benefits that come daily to our notice cannot be published. But we think that what already has been given here to the New York public, should impress upon every family the actual necessity of always keeping this salve in the house, as a little girl's (159 Washington-street) life was saved on the 3d of this month by this salv, from a dreadful scald, and we ask all who do not fully believe it, to go there, and see the child and its mother. A mother will tell you what you must believe. Also in Newark was a child's life, in case of burn, saved by it last week.

* * * Mr. John Lyons, carman, who rides for Wm. McCormick, Esq., auction and commission merchant, No. 18 Courtland-street, had his thumb badly bitten by his horse, so that the nail and the ball of his thumb was split open. The pain from it was dreadful, extending through the whole system; and he thought he should have to give up work, when he went into Messrs. Comstock & Co.'s, 21 Courtland-street, and had applied their MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and in three minutes the pain entirely ceased, the inflammation all was allayed, and no inconvenience was felt at all from it, when at the time he first put it on, the flesh began to grow black, and the first joint very sore and stiff, so that he could not bear to bend or touch it. I think this salve saved me one week's work, or at least nothing could have relieved so instantaneously. He invites all who are any way skeptical to call on him at 18 Court land-street, as he will be pleased to show them his thumb, and tell them personally of its magic effect.

New York, Aug. 10th, 1843.

This only real family salve is counterfeited, and the name of Comstock & Co. must be found, or it is not genuine; it is impossible to be genuine without their fac similie signature.—N. Y. Express.

The Piles and all Sores.

Hays' Liniment is known now to thousands, as a most extraordinary remedy for these afflictions. It is impossible to tell in a newspaper, in such a manner as to obtain full credence, the effects and benefits of this article, so general is the practice of advertisers of extolling articles of no merit. Such personal references will be given, as to bring conviction to the minds of the most unbelieving. Will sufferers only ask among their friends, if they have not heard of or known its effects; and if they do not hear it more warmly praised than any other salve, let them not get it. All fancy or exaggeration is positively excluded from these statements, and it is determined to say nothing of its merits but what could be fully proved by a host of witnesses, in any court of justice. Will you look at the thing and the proofs at the Drug and Book store of Dr. Wm. R. Snelson, Fayette, or at the Drug store of Dr. A. R. Ober, Glasgow, where it may be had?
