HAPPENINGS IN NORWICH DURING 1916

(Continued From Page One.)

Marshall, 22 Cliff St.
2—(Box 14) Shop and tenement, boys with matches, H. Yurman and others, 20 North Thames St.
4—(Box 27) Barn, fire crackers, A. Lacavara, rear 471 North Main St.
16—(T) Store and tenements, smoke from rooms, H. Miller and others, 77 Franklin St.
29—(T) Store and club room, chimney fire, Mary Gilroy and others, 8 Broadway.

AUGUST.

1—(T) Dwelling, chimney fire, Edward Smith and others, 16 Winchester St.
2—(T) Wharf, burning rubbish, City of Norwich, rear Falls Ave.
8—(T) Junction box on pole, lightning, City of Norwich, front 207 Main St.
8—(Box 6) Tenements, lightning, John Edwards and others, 21 Ripley Place.
15—(S) Blacksmith shop, sparks from chimney, Joseph Pfeiffer, 203 West Main St.
15—(T) Store and tenements, cigarette, Mrs. Hedden and others, 35 Broadway.
17—(Box 17) Storehouse and barn, unknown, Town of Norwich, 241 Asylum St.
20—(T) Power boat, unknown, Henry Gebrath, rear 156 Tadman St.
27—(T) Wharf, sparks from locomotive, Peckham's coal yard, rear 58 Thames St.

SEPTEMBER.

1—(T) Tenements, chimney fire, James J. Leary and others, 47 Thames St.
2—(Box 226) Shed, unknown, Michael Talis and others, rear 197 North Main St.
3—(T) Railroad bank, sparks from locomotive, N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., rear 251 Laurel Hill Ave.
3—(S) Stores and tenements, sulphur candle, John Kachieber and others, 180 West Main St.
4—(T) Dwelling, chimney fire, Patrick Sheehan, 332 Central Ave.
7—(S) Dock, soft call burning, Joseph Hall and others, off Laurel Hill Ave.
8—(Box 23) Tenements, oil stove smoking, Oscar L. Brown and others, 20 Elm St.
8—(T) Tenements and pool room, unknown, Ispen & Mirza, 327 Main St.
10—(T) Bridge, lighted cigarette, Town of Norwich, Eighth St. bridge.
13—(T) Stores and tenements, cigarette, Mrs. Hedden and others, 35 Broadway.
16—(T) Restaurant and tenements, towels burning, Chamberlain & Co. and others, 14 Broadway.
22—(T) Automobile back fire, Charles B. Lee, opposite 26 Perkins Ave.
26—(T) Stores and tenements, meat burning, Mrs. Lena Bruette and others, 9 Franklin St.

OCTOBER.

1—(T) Dwelling, smoke in rooms, Mrs. Walter Gallup, 127 Washington St.
1—(T) Dock, sparks from locomotive, Railroad Co., N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. yards.
8—(Box 14) Shed, unknown, Spalding Co., North Cove St.
10—(T) Wharf, burning rubbish, City of Norwich, rear Falls Ave.
12—(Box 24) Shed, sparks from locomotive, Hopkins & Allen Arms Co., North Main St.
13—(T) Dwelling, chimney fire, Ephriam Willings, 124 Maple St.
16—(S) Stores and tenements, gas leak, Louis Atkind, 170 West Main St.
17—(T) City dump, boys with matches, City of Norwich, rear Falls Ave.
21—(T) Automobile, back fire, Frederick Symington, Franklin Square.
27—(T) Open lot, grass fire, Shetucket Co., off Hickory St.
30—(Box 212) Chicken coop, burning leaves, David Congdon, rear 37 Oakridge St.

NOVEMBER.

2—(T) Dumping ground, burning rubbish, City of Norwich, Perkins Road.
3—(T) Open lot, burning rubbish, N. Water Power Co., rear Roosevelt Ave.
4—(T) Open lot, brush fire, N. Land Improvement Co., rear Ward St.
4—(T) Dwelling, gas leak, John F. Casey, 46 West Town St., N. T.
7—(T) Open lot, grass fire, City of Norwich, opposite 279 North Main St.
8—(T) Hen house, unknown, R. Ryshpan, 391 Maple St.
9—(Box 36) Dwelling, children with matches, Aleck Gimbot, 10 Sherman St.
10—(T) Wharf, sparks from locomotive, John O. Peckham, rear 58 Thames St.
10—(Box 14) Shed, sparks from locomotive, Patsy Orlando and others, rear 46 Thames St.
11—(T) Open lot, grass fire, Mrs. Mary Dexter, rear Orchard St.
12—(T) Open lot, brush fire, William Kramer, opposite 715 Boswell Ave.
11—(S) Open lot, sparks from locomotive, Falls Co., rear Chelsea File Co.
11—(T) Open lot, brush fire, N. Land Improvement Co., rear Mountain Ave.
13—(Box 27) Tenements, lamp dropping, John H. Toomey and others, 419 North Main St.
15—(S) Tenements, pouring oil in range, William Rosensure and others, 222 West Main St.
18—(S) Hall and public building, escaping steam, business of Joseph Corporation, 230 West Main St.
20—(S) Open lot, grass fire, Town of Norwich, Munroe St.
21—(Box 13) Shop, chimney fire, Richmond Radiator Co., 120 Thames St.
23—(T) Dwelling, chimney fire, Edward Robinson, 66 School St.
27—(T) Dwelling, burning soot in chimney, E. M. Williams, 124 Maple St.
27—(T) Open lot, grass fire, J. J. Desmond, Spruce St.
27—(T) Open yard, grass fire, James Shea and others, rear 10 Page St.
28—(T) Open yard, grass fire, Matthew Sheridan, rear Roath St.

DECEMBER.

1—(Box 27) Dwelling, defective chimney, Wilson Varrille, 146 Central Ave.
4—(S) Tenements, candle, Herbert M. Short and others, 16 Union St.
6—(T) Open lot, grass fire, Mrs. Mary Dexter, rear Beach and Orchard Sts.
9—(T) Open lot, sparks from locomotive, St. Patrick's Church Co., rear 761 Boswell Ave.
15—(T) Dwelling, chimney fire, Bridget Connor, 336 West Main St.
15—(T) Dwelling, steam heater, Henry H. Vignot, 218 Washington St.
15—(T) Dwelling, rags on smoke pipe, Joseph Hall, 24 Broad St.
16—(T) Tenements, chimney fire, Miss Frink and others, 271 West Main St.
16—(S) Tenements, thawing water pipes, Mike Pagano and others, 102 High St.
16—(T) Tenements and stores, chimney fire, L. Rinello and others, 372 Main St.
19—(T) Bale of wood in yard, spontaneous, Max Gordon & Son Corp., Falls Ave.
20—(T) Dwelling, chimney fire, Mrs. William Blackstone, 266 Washington St.
22—(T) Dwelling, chimney fire, Miss Millie Turner, 55 Broad St.
24—(T) Soft coal fire, spontaneous, Hall Bros., rear Commerce St.

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming — Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

UNCASVILLE

Pupils Who Stood Highest in School Test—Churches Hold Christmas Entertainments—Good Cheer Distributed to the Needy.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles C. Tibbetts returned home from Providence, where Mrs. Tibbetts has been undergoing treatment in a hospital.

Miss Ellen Newton was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Louisa Fox, at the home of her son, Dr. M. E. Fox.

High Stand Pupils.

Preparatory to closing school at the Palmer Memorial school a series of tests in arithmetic was held in the seventh and eighth grades with the following pupils having the highest standing: Margaret Ungerer, 98; Madeline Walsh, 89; Percy Allen, 88; Ida Tavro, 87; Earl Auwood, 86; Theodore Rosenlund, 86; Isadore Florman, 84; Grace Quinn, 84; Eleanor St. Germain, 79; Henry Titsky, 77; Oliver La Bounty, 76.

Judge Dan D. Home recently purchased an automobile.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church remembered the shut-ins with flowers Christmas.

Isadore La Casse of the village has recently purchased a grocery business in Woonsocket, R. I., and will soon move his household goods and family there.

The Thursday Afternoon club omitted its meeting this week.

Christmas Concert.

The Christmas concert and tree held by the Baptist Sunday school Saturday night was largely attended. The tree was loaded with gifts which Santa Claus, impersonated by Deacon Edwin Henry, distributed to the classes.

Miss Elizabeth McKenzie is spending a few weeks with relatives in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Harry Watt, a student at the business college, New London, is employed for a few weeks with the Mohican Co.

Henry Rogers is confined to his home at Hill Top by a severe cold.

Miss Edith B. Taylor of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Semmig of Worcester, Mass., and James Taylor of Detroit, Mich., were holiday guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Taylor.

John Carlton, Jr., spent the holiday vacation with relatives in North Stonington.

Lahrop Miller of Detroit, Mich., is home for a few days' visit with relatives.

Ensign Robert Turner Darrow, U. S. N., whose marriage with Miss Virginia Olive Winter took place Wednesday at Washington, D. C., is a nephew of Mrs. William Webster and is a former resident of this town, a student of the Palmer Memorial school previous to moving to New London.

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Fox entertained recently Mr. and Mrs. Levi Tucker of East Lyme.

Mrs. James Armstrong of Norwich is spending a few days with Mrs. Sarah Wilbur.

Miss Lula Bogue of Providence spent a few days this wek with her mother, Mrs. Charles Bogue.

Sunshine and Good Cheer

The Good Cheer Sunshine society sent out Christmas greetings to the sick shut-ins and needy in form of potted plants, baskets of food and gifts The inmates of the Montville almshouse each received little tokens.

At Methodist Church.

The Methodist Sunday school held a Christmas concert Monday evening, following taking part: Rev. Charles C. Tibbetts, Miss Vera Bartlett, Miss Alice Ramage, Misses Sara Benson, Sarah Botham, Edith Austin and Geneva Eggleston, Mrs. Ramage's class, Miss Winnie Bartlett's class, Ernest Ungerer, Agnes Austin and Rema Ungerer. At the close of the program Santa Claus arrived and with assistance from some of the bodys soon had the gifts from the tree distributed.

Miss Agnes Goodfellow, a student of the Normal school at Willimantic, is spending the holiday at her home here.

Family Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Hart entertained Christmas day a family party, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson, of Norwich, Henry Hart of Natick, Mass., Miss Josephine Hart of South Coventry, Roy Hart, Frank Hart and friends from Hadlyme and Peter Seymour of Worcester.

William Walsh, employed in Mystic, spent the week-end with friends in town.

Mrs. Henry McArdle of Gay Hill had as her guest on Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barry and children of New London, Miss Winnie and Miss Lucy McArdle, James McArdle, of Boston, and Clarence McArdle of New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berth and daughter, Miss Mary Berth, of Hanover, spent the week-end with relatives here.

It has been fine skating on the various ponds in town and the young people have enjoyed it the past few days.

NORTH LYME

Miss Lois Rogers has returned from a visit at Leslie Rogers' in New London.

Mrs. Eva Tucker is spending the holidays at Warren Rogers'.

Miss Dorothy Syme, of South Norwalk, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Francis Purvis this week.

Curtis Rogers of New London has been a visitor at Warren Rogers'.

C. F. Jewett and family spent Christmas at Charles Emily's, in Moodus.

Mrs. William Sisson visited at A. F. Hewitts' in Groton over Christmas.

W. M. Sisson Jr. and N. S. Strong were in New London, Tuesday.

Erwin Rogers spent Christmas with his son, Leslie Rogers, in New London.

BOZRAH

Social Activities of Holiday Week — Dinner Parties—Church Roll Call and Supper.

Edwin E. Lathrop and family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lathrop, of Laurel Hill.

Mrs. O. A. Bishop, Mrs. Edwin Bishop, Mrs. Mary Avery, Mrs. Rhoda Miner and Miss Alice Bishop, motored to Preston, Tuesday, to visit Mrs. Nathan Hall.

Miss Maude Eller spent the week-end at Rock Nook Home, and attended the Christmas tree, Friday evening.

Dinner Guests.

Mrs. Lucretia Lathrop entertained at dinner on Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Davis of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lathrop and children of New London, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Abel and Mr. and Mrs. George Maples.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Maples and Mr. and Mrs. William Corey were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Herrick, of Norwich.

Roll Call and Supper.

The roll call and supper is to be held in the Congregational church next Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Corey have gone to housekeeping at 78 West Town street, their former home.

[Items for this or any other column of The Bulletin must be signed by the sender, or they will not be used.—Correspondence Editor.]

LEDYARD

Pupils of Miss Maria T. Gallup, of Norwich, Give Christmas Entertainment—Many Visitors Monday—Fine Apples From Local Orchards.

The school in District No. 4 closed Friday for two weeks' vacation. Miss Maria Theresa Gallup of Norwich, the teacher, arranged a very pleasing program which was finely rendered by her pupils. The following program was carried out: Carol, Holy Night, school; welcome, Katharine Cubanski; The Christmas Tree, Dorothy Church; The Christmas Box, Carrie Main; A Word to Santa, George Geer; Christmas Lands, Mary Church; The First Noel, David and Marian Geer; Sly Santa, John Barrett; If I were Santa, Marian Geer; A Legend, Elmer Avery; Coming Christmas Morn, David Geer; Shepherd Boy, Leslie Holdridge. A play, Santa and the Runaways, by the entire school. This play was very good and showed much faithful work and careful training.

The room was attractively decorated with evergreens and a large Christmas tree was loaded with presents for teacher and pupils. David Geer, who was very good as Santa Claus, distributed the gifts. There were several visitors.

Notes of the Holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spafford have returned to their home in Glastonbury, having spent Christmas with Mrs. Spofford's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Olin H. Avery.

Miss Nellie Geer was a guest of relatives in Norwich Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Clark attended the funeral of Mrs. Clark's uncle, Mr. Crane, in Poquonnock Sunday.

Arthur D. Barrett, foreman for the American Bridge company, wro is working in Ansonia, spent Christmas with his family in this place, returning Christmas night.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Clark and daughter, Louise, were Christmas visitors of Mrs. Clerk's mother, Mrs. Fannie Lamb.

Mrs. Nellie Main of Preston City was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Holdridge Christmas Day.

John L. Main Ill.

John L. Main, one of the older citizens of the town, has been very ill at his home on Rose Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Avery and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spafford were Christmas callers at Mrs. Isaac A. Chapman's.

Deacon Isaac G. Geer has purchased a horse from Elmer Pierson of Norwich.

Fine Apple Crop.

The nicest apples grown in Ledyard this year, if not in the county, were grown by Representative-elect William I. Allyn. Mr. Allyn together with Mr. Burton, disposes of them in the New London and Norwich markets They are all carried in peach baskets and are readily sold at a fancy price.

LIBERTY HILL

Boy Aged Two and One-half Recites at Christmas Entertainment—Burton James Painfully Burned—Roll Call at Church.

The C. E. society and Sunday school had a concert and Christmas tree at the church Saturday night. The tree was loaded with presents and bags of candy. The program used was Festival Song No. 5. All had a very pleasant time. Charlie Goodrich, Jr., aged 2 1-2 years, gave a recitation.

Mrs. Albert S. Peckham has been ill the past three weeks but is slowly recovering.

Badly Burned.

Burton James, who works at the Willimantic engine terminal, was burned on the side of one leg and is in the hospital at Willimantic. Mr. James was putting damp coal in the engine firebox and the fire flew back.

Creepers in Demand.

There was no meeting Wednesday evening at the church. Everything outside was covered with ice. Creepers were in great demand.

Able Sermon by Pastor.

The pastor of Liberty Hill church, Rev. John H. Knott, preached a very able and interesting sermon Sunday morning on Christmas. The music by the choir included the following hymns: Antioch, St. Louis and Mendelssohn. The anthem was O, Holy Night, by Carrie B. Adams.

Roll Call.

The Liberty Hill church will have its roll call and meeting next Monday night, Jan. 1.

At the homes of Winthrop Davoll and John Clarke were family gatherings Christmas day.

FITCHVILLE

Missionary From Burmah to Speak at Baptist Church — Home Visitors During Holidays.

Rev. Jesse F. Smith, missionary to Burmah, will preach in the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. He will tell about the work in Burmah.

The Sunday school wil meet at 12:15 for the quarterly review. The Christmas concert and exercises will be held in the evening at 7 o'clock.

The prayer and covenant meeting will be held Thursday evening at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Bristol were guests of relatives in this vilage over Christmas.

William Glassbrenner and his sister, Mrs. Lillian Turner of Gardner Lake, spent Christmas with their sister, Mrs. Mary Marra.

Jeremiah Fields of New York and Thomas Fields of Bridgeport, were guests of their sisters, Misses Margaret and Annie Fields over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chappell of New Britain have been guests of Mrs. Chappell's sister, Mrs. Warren Thompson.

LEFFINGWELL

Dinner Party at Deacon Leffingwell's —Concert and Tree at Baptist Church—Skating at East Great Plain.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chappell of New Britain, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thompson and daughter, Arlene, of Fitchville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ross Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon of East Great Plain and Clarence Leffingwell of Norwich spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leffingwell.

Leffingwell Family Gathering.

There was the usual family gathering at the home of Deacon J. C. Leffingwell for Christmas dinner. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Champlin and daughter, Grace, of Arlington, Mass., Mrs. Isabelle Champlin of New London and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Whiting of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ross entertained Mrs. Carrie Parks and Miss Lizzie Parks of Norwich and Joseph Elliott of Providence, R. I., over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Behrish and son Paul of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Beebe.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Doibeare spent Monday and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogers of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Beebe and daughter, Miss Margarette Beebe, of Wethersfield, and Mrs. Isabelle Champlin of New London, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Reynolds.

Harold Odgers of Westerly, R. I., spent Christmas evening at the home of Miss Elsie Beard.

Concert and Tree.

There was a good attendance at the Christmas tree and concert held at the Baptist church Tuesday evening. The following program was enjoyed by all: Organ solo, Little Soldier March, Miss Alice M. Leffingwell; welcome address and prayer, Rev. Lawrence O. Gates; A Toast, Charles C. Leffingwell; solo, Brighten the Corner Where You Are, Miss Carolyn Beebe; recitations, What Happened, Robert Risley; Christmas Time, Eugene Rogers; Respectfully Declined, Kathryn Taylor; A Story, John Rogers; dialogue, Helping Santa Claus, Nola and Mervin Leffingwell; recitation, He'll Try Again Next Year, Charles C. Leffingwell; duet, Santa Claus, Nola and Lois Leffingwell; reading, A Christmas Recipe, Miss Evelyn Beard; reading, The Night After Christmas, Miss Gladys M. Leffingwell; song, Upon the House Top, Charles Leffingwell, Robert Risley and John Rogers; reading, Who Is It? Miss Ida H. Leffingwell. Santa arrived with his pack and with the assistance of the Sunday school superintendent, John H. Rathbone, a gift was found for each member of the school.

Skating at Miner's Pond.

Many from this place have been enjoying the skating at Miner's pond, East Great Plain.

Church Services.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Lawrence Gates will preach on The Changes of Fashions. Sunday school at 12.15 p. m. At the B. Y. P. U. service at 7.30 p. m. Mr. Gates will speak on Lessons to be Learned From the Past—one—How to be a Christian.

New Year's day there will be a special service. Dr. Joel B. Slocum will speak at 11 a. m. Lunch will be served at noon in charge of the Ladies' Aid society. At 2 p. m. the roll call will be followed by the business meeting. There will be special music including a duet by Dr. Slocum and Mrs. Slocum of Norwich.

SALEM

Visitors During the Week—Christmas Exercises at the Church—Punctural Pupils In the Sunday School.

Rev. John G. Hehr of Gardner's Lake preached a Christmas sermon in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

The Y. P. S. C. E. meeting in the evening was led by Nathaniel Clark, assisted by Lawrence Beebe, of New Haven.

Personal Items.

Richard Tibbetts and Milton Gordon were Norwich visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe and daughter Doris, were callers in Lyme Sunday.

Ernest and Lawrence Beebe of New Haven spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beebe.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Hanney entertained relatives from New London and Montville during the holidays.

Arthur Kingsley of Worcester, Mass., spent the first of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kingsley

Mrs. Mabel Gordon and son, Chester of Montville were guests of Mrs. Gordon's mother, Mrs. S. A. Tibbetts, during the Christmas recess.

Visited in Bozrah.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert J. Murray and children, Ruth and Ronald, spent Monday in Bozrah with Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. Phoebe E. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Siminowitz and son, George called on relatives in Hanover the first of the week.

Lawrence Spencer of New London is spending the holidays at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Miner entertained relatives from Millington recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogers, Miss Violet Rogers and Lester Rogers were visitors in East Hadam Sunday.

J. Milton Clark returned to his home in Greeneville, Saturday, after spending a few weeks in town.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL.

Held at the Church Tuesday Evening —Pupils Rewarded for Perfect Attendance.

Christmas exercises were held in the church Tuesday evening, when the following program was given: Song, The Song of Glory, choir; scripture reading and prayer, by the pastor, Rev. John G. Hehr; song, Come to the Lowly Manger, choir; recitations, Christmas Welcome, Helen Rogers; What is Starlight? Alice Rix; duet, Silent Night, Miss Susan Rogers, Mrs. Ella Kingsley; recitations, Christmas Story, Pauline Hutt; A Little Shepherd Boy, Ronald Murray; duet, Beautiful Bells, Mrs. Viola Beebe, Mrs. Cora Hanney; reading, Luke the Second Chapter, 8-14, Miss Susan Miner; solo, Excelsior, Victor Hehr; recitation, Our King, Milton Gordon; solo, Christmas On the Sea, Catherine Hanney; recitations, Little Master Bashful, Lester Rogers; Star of the East, Ruth Murray; duet, King of the Christmas Morning, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Hanney; reading, A Christmas Dream, Miss Minnie Kingsley; recitation, I Belong to a Band, Charles Miner; song, Carol Ye Bells, choir; exercise, The Greatest Gift, Helen Rogers. Ruth Murray, Alice Rix, Catherine Hanney; remarks by the pastor; song, A King Has Come, choir.

At the close of the exercises presents were distributed from a well-laden tree and oranges and candy were given all present.

Perfect In Attendance.

Ruth Murray, Helen Rogers, Miss Minnie Kingsley and Ronald Murray were perfect in attendance at Sunday school during the year and were given special prizes.

The church was prettily decorated by Mrs. Ella Kingsley and Mrs. Amy Miner.

GLASGO

Gifts to Pastor—Children Do Well Selling Red Cross Seals.

School in the Eighth district closed Friday for a vacation of two weeks with Christmas exercises and a tree for the children.

Rev. G. G. Scrivener occupied the pulpit at the Bethel Sunday morning and at Voluntown in the afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. John Thompson were presented a fine turkey for their Christmas dinner, also a Christmas gift of money from the Ladies' Aid society.

Holiday Visitors.

Holiday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorpe of Westerly at W. G. Burdick's, Misses Grace and Gladys Thompson at the parsonage, Mrs. Horace Perkins, William Clark and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Young of Springfield, Mass., Thomas Shaw and family at E. A. Clark's, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Button at Ray Button's, Mabel Blanchard at Dora Eccleston's, Stewart Hill, Benjahin Young of Willimantic at R. H. Young's, Fred Turner at George W. Turner's, Greeneville, where the four brothers and sister met t opsenh wdetETAOIN .. .. to spend Christmas who have not been together since coming from England several years ago.

Reaches Oklahoma.

Word has been received of the safe arrival of Job Thorpe in Guthrie, Okla.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. R. H. Young next Wednesday afternoon.

Mother's Death.

Friends of Ernest Luther sympathize with him in the death of his mother a few days ago in Genoa, Wis., where Mr. and Mrs. Luther attended the funeral services, and arrived home last Saturday, Mrs. Luther having been there since Aug. 18th.

Theron and Byron Kinney are at home from the Academy for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Young returned home Wednesday after spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Clark.

Miss Lillian Miner, teacher in the Boardman district, is spending the vacation with her parents in Norwich.

Sell Many Seals.

The school children have done exceedingly well selling Red Cross seals.

MONTVILLE

Country Club Gives Dance—The Week's Visitors.

Herbert Rogers of Walliston, Mass., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers Christmas.

G. T. Loomis entertained his son, Guy Loomis, of Hartford Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phillips of New Haven and James Phillips of Greenfield, Mass., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips.

Dr. George Gilberts of New Haven and Fred Gilberts of Hartford spent Christmas at the home of their mother, Mrs. Gilberts, of Palmertown.

Fred Lyon of New York and Miss Grace Lyon of North Stonington spent Christmas at the home of Mrs. E. G. Lyon.

New Jersey Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Latimer of Newark, N. J., were guests of Mrs. A. P. Latimer during the Christmas holidays.

Frank Jeffers of Pawtucket, Harold Jeffers of Jewett City and Pratt Allen of Baltic have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jeffers.

Walter Burgess of Jewett City spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burgess, of Palmertown.

Miss Bertha Lyon has returned from New York, where she has been spending several days.

Frank Austin has been confined to his home with an attack of grip. Reuben Austin has been acting as mail carrier during his illness.

The social and dance given by the Country club in Robertson's hall last evening was well patronized.

Miss Agnes Quinn entertained a number of her friends at her home in Pequot Thursday evening. The evening was spent in playing games and with music.

PRESTON

The Christmas concerts held at the Congregational and Baptist churches were well attended, the children entertaining the audiences well.

Rev. and Mrs. L. M. Keneston spent Christmas at their daughter's, Mrs. J. C. Johnson's, in Brattleboro, Vt.

Mrs. George Betting of Poquetanock was a recent visitor at Ogden Stanton's.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Ellis spent Christmas at the home of Mrs. Ellis' father, Amos Baldwin, of Norwich.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Pupils of Wylie School Entertain Their Parents and Friends With Christmas Program.

The Wylie school closed Friday, the 22nd, for the holidays. Twenty-one pupils were present and the following program was presented: Song, Christmas carol, When Santa Claus Comes, Bertha Hall; The Coming of Christmas, Marion Brown; Jimmy Boy's Letter to Santa, Joel Barber; A Christmas Carol, Helen Congdon; Trouble in the Dove's House, Olive Cole; song, Christmas Gifts, school; A Christmas Suggestion, Ellery Pratt; Old Santa Claus, Katherine Clark; Mother Goose Magical Stocking, Ethel Congdon; A Stitch in Time, Julia Sullivan; Ready for Santa Claus, Lloyd Barber; When Santa Claus is President, Howard Gardner; Riding With Santa, Mary Misura; dialogue, Just Like Papa, Helen Congdon, Marian Brown, John Misura; Christmas poem, Viola Cole; song, Christmas Tidings; At Seven in the Morning, Fred Congdon; The Kitten's Christmas, Gladys Young; Alaska Christmas Candle, John Misura; Grandma's Mistake, Gladys Dawley; When Christmas Comes, Albert Dawley; A Rest for Santa, Susan Gardner; play, Christmas Candles, twelve girls; A Plan That Failed, Roy and Clifford Congdon; several Victrola selections were rendered.

The teacher, Miss Marion Blakeslee, was at the organ.

A gaily decorated tree was well laden with presents for the pupils, and all were given candy. A good number of visitors were present. The exercises won commendation for the teacher and pupils. Miss Blakeslee is spending the vacation at her home in Lebanon.

Entertained on the Holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Salem and Harry Holmes and family of Ekonk were Christmas guests at George A. Tanner's.

James Park and family of Ashaway, R. I. Fred Gardner and family of Westerly, R. I., Herbert Phillips and family of Plainfield and Miss Marion Gardner and a lady friend from Westerly, R. I., were Christmas guests at Willard Gardner's.

GOSHEN

Exercises Held Saturday Afternoon — Party at Home of E. L. Waterman Monday.

The program of the Christmas exercises held Saturday afternoon was as follows: Son No. 123, Church Hymnal; recitation, What Does Christmas Mean to You?, Alvin Fargo; recitation, Doris' Christmas Story, Marion Waterous; song, choir, Star of the New Born King; recitation, A Story, Gladys Fargo; Christmas Carol, William Lester; recitation, Natalie Waterman; recitation, Charles Hinckley; song, Jolly Old St. Nicholas, by three girls; recitation, Father Time's Bells, Grace Mahoney; song, Star of Hope, choir; recitation, Santa Claus in His Den, Ruth Fargo; song, Redeemer Divine, Misses Randall, Mr. York, Mr. Randall; exercise, The Children and the Stars, several children; recitation, Viola Banning; song, O Holy Night, Miss Mahoney, Miss Rodman; recitation, Orin Banning; reading, Miss Bessie Randall; recitation, Raymond Mather; song, Grace Mahoney; recitation, Ralph Kenyon; reading, Miss Alice Mahoney; song, From Far Celestral Height, choir; recitation, Ralph Hinckley; recitation, Dennis Aspinwall; solo with chorus, In the Orient Sky; recitations, Dorothy McCall, George Main; Good Night, by two members of primary class; hymn 119, church hymnal; distribution of gifts, refreshments and a social hour.

Tree Left Near Church.

Late Saturday evening a large truck load of Christmas trees passed through here en route to Hartford. Early next morning one of the trees was found near the church, whether from Santa Claus or for other reasons it was left behind remains a mystery.

Short Paragraphs.

Mrs. B. R. York is spending the holidays with friends in Malden, Mass.

Arthur Lathrop of Colt's Arms Co., Hartford, was home over Christmas.

William G. Thomas and family spent Christmas with friends at Norwich Town.

Among those who spent Christmas at the home of E. L. Waterman at Woodland Stock Farm, were Mrs. Isaac Gillett of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartlett of Meriden and Mrs. Orlando C. Tucker of Manchester.

Archie Walkingshaw and Harold Bowen of Chicopee Falls, Mass., were guests at Crystal Spring farm this week.

Miss Florence Browning of Norwich is a guest at the home of her uncle, W. G. Thomas.

Death of Mrs. Speerli.

The parish was shocked Monday to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. J. F. Speerli, former pastor's wife, who died Dec. 17, without warning, in her new home at Belmar, N. J., where the family moved last October. She leaves many friends in this community who sorrow for her death.

Mrs. James Pope has returned home from Worcester, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Noyes.

LEBANON

Grange and Sunday Schools Have Christmas Trees—Nest of Flying Squirrels Found—Meritorius Pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hewitt of Pittsfield, Mass., spent the Christmas holiday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hewitt.

Miss Ella Williams is spending a few days in West Hartford the guest of Mrs. James Smith.

Miss Geraldine S. Oat of Columbia university, New York, has spent a few days this week with Mrs. Robert Lillie.

Mrs. Adell Spaulding entertained on Christmas day, Misses Amy and Alice Lillie of Willimantic, W. P. Lillie, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lillie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lillie and daughter, Arlene, all of this place

Patient at Hospital.

Mrs. E. L. Danielson left Tuesday for Philadelphia where she is to enter the hospital for treatment for the eye. She was accompanied as far as New York by her daughter, Miss Sarah Danielson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kneeland and daughter, Jeanette, of Hartford, spent Christmas with the former's parents, Judge and Mrs. A. G. Kneeland.

Mrs. Emma Warner of North Franklin spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. N. S. Loomis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Fowler were guests Christmas of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reed of Danbury.

George Wilcox of Putnam spent the Christmas holiday with his uncle, E. A. Wilcox.

Found Flying Squirrels.

Christmas day, while in the woods cutting down an old oak tree, Leroy Geer found a nest of five flying squirrels.

Mrs. F. G. Stark of Goshen spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyner of Hebron spent Christmas with the latter's sister, Mrs. George Chappell.

Tree at Grange.

At the regular grange meeting on Thursday evening the members enjoyed a well filled Christmas tree.

Holiday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hewitt entertained on Christmas afternoon and evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hewitt and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hewitt, Miss Hattie Hewitt, Harld Mason, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fowler and daughter, Eloise, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. William Blanchard and daughter, Edna, Morris Burgess, Gladys and George Hewitt of this place and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hewitt of Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chappell entertained on Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant, Miss Clara Grant and Lloyd Grant of North Franklin.

Everett Chappell of Terryville spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Chappell.

Santa Claus Appeared

The First Congregational Sunday school held its annual Christmas entertainment Tuesday evening. There was a cantata by the children entitled Santa Claus' Visit to the Sunday School. Santa Claus was present and distributed gifts to the younger members, after which sandwiches, cake, and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron J. Hoxie of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Manning of Yantic and George Wilcox of Putnam spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoxie.

Miss Ella Peck of Hartford spent Christmas week with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Geer.

Allan Hoxie and a friend in the navy were guests Christmas of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoxie.

Wilton Hoxie of the ship yard at New London spent Christmas at his home in this place.

Miss Gwendolyn Clark of Liberty Hill spent Christmas with C. J. Abell and family.

Charles Abell of New Britain was a Christmas visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Abell.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron J. Hoxie spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clarke of Liberty Hill.

Edward Mason of New London and Alfred Mason of Hartford were week end visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Mason.

Missionary to Preach.

Rev. Edward H. Smith will speak at the First Congregational church on Sunday morning on his work in China.

Mrs. Frank Kingsley spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Frank G. Perkins of Springfield, Mass.

Vernon Boothby of Woodmont spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Boothby.

Steven Carpenter of Worcester, Mass., spent Christmas with his father, Benjamin Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Totten, Jr., spent Christmas with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Totten of Huntington, L. I.

Play and Tree.

The Sunday school of the Baptist church held its annual Christmas entertainment in the chapel Saturday evening. The programme in the evening was a play entitled, Christmas is Coming. Every one enjoyed a well filled tree.

Punctual Pupils.

The following pupils were perfect for the term having no absent marks, tardiness or excuses in District No. 5: Helen Taylor,