On account of ill health, and with much regret, I am forced, under my physician's orders, to cease all business activities immediately. Therefore, I will sell at public sale, on the

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13, 1919,
at 11 o'clock a. m., sharp,
RAIN OR SHINE,

my large and valuable herd of unusually high grade Ayrshires and Holsteins which I have carefully selected from several of the choice herds of the country, comprising 15 young cows, recently new milch, and milking heavy, several summer milkers still milking a large quantity, 5 due to freshen during the early fall, and one or two forward springers; 1 handsome 3 year old Ayrshire heifer due by date of sale, 1 2 year old heifer springing bag, 1 3 year old Holstein fresh at date of writing, 5 head of thrifty yearlings, 1 extra nice herd bull, and 1 heifer calf. Included in the sale are two extra large and thrifty pure blooded Yorkshire brood sows purchased at the (Wilson's) Yorkshire sale of pure bloods last spring. (Papers go with these sows, one of which is considered heavy with pig.) One valuable Berkshire boar from a fine producing strain, 3 pigs 12 weeks old, eligible to Yorkshire registry; also 3 extra large 16 weeks' old pigs, eligible to Yorkshire registry. About 50 White Leghorn yearling hens, 1 new-one-horse dump cart, 2 incubators, 1 gas engine, 1 power churn, 1 cream separator, also a collection of miscellaneous articles.

ONE PAIR OF HORSES, extra good, young farm chunks, work well either single or double and will weigh about 2500 lbs., all kind and clever; 100 tons of first quality hay.

This sale will take place at my farm, located about two miles north of Danielson, Conn., just off the state road leading to Putnam, about five minutes' walk from Danielson and Putnam trolley, or the Providence and Danielson cars.

Remember, the above described property must be sold, rain or shine, paid for and taken away at once, on account of my selling the following week for England. I earnestly solicit your patronage to this sale; furthermore, I feel safe in saying that I have as nice a herd of grade cattle as you would wish to look at.

In case of stormy weather, housing facilities are fine.
