The Ke Au Hou sailed yesterday afternoon for Kapaa, in place of the James Makee, laid up for repairs.

A stowaway came down from Vancouver on the Warrimoo yesterday. He was on his way to Sydney.

The brig W. G. Irwin, Williams master, arrived from San Francisco Saturday morning, with a full cargo of general merchandise valued at $25,385.

The Lurline sailed from San Francisco for Hilo on the 10th, and is daily expected at the latter port. She is to bring a large cargo of general merchandise.

H. M. S. Wild Swan was to leave Victoria, B. C., on Nov. 21st, for Valparaiso via Honolulu. She will winter in the South. The Wild Swan may be looked for early next week.

The five-hundred cases of Russian oil which came by the Mount Lebanon has been condemned on account of failure to meet the requisite test. There are some sad and other glad hearts.

The Victoria Colonist of Nov. 15 says: The agents of the Canadian-Australian line have had to refuse freight offering for shipment on the steamship Warrimoo during the last few days, owing to there being a full cargo listed ahead.

International Naval Exhibition.

There is to be held at Kiel from May 25 to Sept. 30, 1896, an International Naval Exhibition. The exhibition is to comprise all products in any way connected with the navy or shipping in general, as well on the sea as on rivers or canals. It is also to give a complete historical review of the development and progress made in shipbuilding and all its kindred industries. The waters of the harbor of Kiel offer excellent opportunity for showing steam or electric launches, sailing yachts, row boats, etc. All inquiries for information should be addressed to "The Committee of the Exhibition, 1896 at Kiel."—N. Y. Maritime Journal.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold, was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short time was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to any one suffering with a cold. WM. KEIL, 678 Selby ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by all dealers. BENSON, SMITH & Co., agents for H. I.

WILL BE CONFIRMED.

Canadian Steamers Will Run to New Zealand as Agreed.

It would appear that reports published in Auckland (N. Z.) papers of November 2d, to the effect that the proposed Vancouver steamship service had been abandoned, are not correct. Advices by the Warrimoo state that the contract entered into by Mr. Huddart and the New Zealand Government will be confirmed by the New Zealand Parliament and the service go into effect at the time agreed upon. This news is also confirmed by late dispatches from New Zealand to the London Times, a copy of which was shown to an ADVERTISER representative by a passenger on the Warrimoo last evening. The steamer called at Auckland on her last voyage to land J. G. Ward, the New Zealand treasurer, and as it was announced that the Canadian-Australian steamers would not again call at New Zealand ports for the present, the papers referred to above construed the statement to mean an abandonment of the contract made between Mr. Ward and Mr. Huddard.
