HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

consisting of 1 mahogany dresser, 2 oak dresser, several tables, stands, chairs, beds, bed springs, bed quilts, mattresses, 1 ice box, 1 parlor stove, kitchen range, 1 three-burner oil stove (new Perfection), 1 four-burner oil stove, new five-gallon oil can, chairs, pictures, dishes, lamps, wash boiler, wash tubs, 1 porch hammock, 1 swing chair, 2 settees, carpets, rugs, oil cloth and other articles too numerous to mention.

will be sold at 1 o'clock, consisting of 50 acres of land, about eight acres of woodland, the balance divided in mowing and pasture. The buildings are in fine condition. The house consists of nine rooms, has running water and is in fine repair. The barn is 38 feet by 36 feet, has running water, has stable in basement which stanchions 18 head of cattle. Large hen house, built two years ago, 150 feet by 13 feet, has concrete floors. This building would cost to build today $2,000. Large hen yard all fenced off. The farm is located within about three miles of Willimantic, which is a good market, about a mile from the railroad station, near school. This would make an ideal poultry farm.

Auctioneer's Statement: The tools are most all new, having been bought in the last year, some of them having never been used. Anyone wanting to buy a good pair of horses should attend this sale, as they are absolutely all right in every way. The farm is up in good condition and anyone wanting to purchase a good little home in the country should investigate.

For further information inquire of Abraham Buntman. Telephone Willimantic division. If stormy, sale next fair day. Caterer in attendance.
