VOL. XXXI. MIDDLEBURY, VT., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1866. NO. 20.

"The wonderfull progress of Medical Science during the past six years only, makes it possible for the conscientious Physician to declare, now, that CONSUMPTION is as CERTAINLY CURED as Intermittent Fever, and as CERTAINLY PREVENTED as Small Pox."—Charles E. Kipp, M. D., LL. D., etc

KING'S PREPARED PRESCRIPTION,
[Made from the Prescription of Rev. Chas. E. King, M. D., LL. D., &c., [So confidently presented to the public for the Prevention and Cure of CONSUMPTION,
(IN ITS MOST ADVANCED STAGES.)
For the Radical Cure of ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CATARRH, and all affections of the THROAT and AIR PASSAGES; for General and Special Derangements of the NERVOUS SYSTEM; and for all Functional Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels.

It immediately increases the strength and deepens the color of pale blood. It subdues the Chills and Fever, and diminishes the Expectoration. It checks the night sweats, always in seven to fourteen days. The appetite is at once invigorated, and the patient rapidly gains flesh; the cough and the difficult breathing are specially relieved; the sleep becomes calm and refreshing; the evacuations regular and uniform. ALL THE GENERAL SYMPTOMS DISAPPEAR WITH A REALLY ASTONISHING RAPIDITY.

The PRESCRIPTION should be used in every case where the Physician commonly prescribes "TONICS," IRON, ACIDS, BARK, QUININE, COD-LIVER OIL, WHISKEY, &c. and in every case, by whatever name known, in which there is exhibited any one or more of the following

SYMPTOMS:

Difficult or Irregular Breathing, Loss of Breath, Cough, Wasting of Flesh, Bleeding from the Lungs, Loss of Strength, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, Night Sweats, Flying Pains through the Shoulders, Chest, Face or Limbs, Nervous Headache, Nervous Prostrations, Giddiness or Dizziness, Excessive Paleness, Sore Throat, Drowsiness, Sleeplessness, Sour Stomach, Heart-Burn, Oppression or Sinking of the Stomach before or after eating, Remittent Fever, &c., &c., and especially in all Female Disorders or Uterine Irregularities, such as Difficult, Painful, Suppressed, Scanty, Excessive, Delayed, Premature or too Frequent Menstruation.

STATEMENTS FROM PATIENTS, &C.

"Your Prescription saved my daughter's life, and has saved me hundreds of dollars."—Rev. E. Humphreys, Remsen, N. Y.

"We bless God for the benefit we have received from your Prepared Prescription."—Rev. P. Peregrine, Boschergh, Penn.

"Every one to whom I have recommended it has benefited much by its use."—Rev. C. D. Jones, Racine, Wis.

"I have had Nervous or Spasmodic Asthma for eleven years. During the last six years I never had an uninterrupted night's rest. It often seemed to me that I would die before I could get air into my lungs. I was haggard and spiritless, and endured as great fear from 'shortness of breath,' that I was compelled to take frequent rests in walking from my residence to my place of business.

"The night before I obtained the 'PREPARED PRESCRIPTION,' was the worst I ever passed. On obtaining the remedy, I took a teaspoonful at noon and again at night, and slept all night without waking. I have not had a broken night's rest since. * * * * I no longer look 'haggard,' have gained in strength and spirits, and am not at all afflicted with 'shortness of breath.' I shall be glad to have any one afflicted with Asthma call and see me.

"EZRA C. LANGDON,
"No. 314 Fourth St., N. Y."

The "PREPARED PRESCRIPTION" is put up in a $1 bottle, and is sold by Druggists generally, or orders may be addressed to the Sole Proprietors, OSCAR G. MOSES & CO., 27 Cortlandt Street, N. Y. Consultation Free. Circulars, containing particulars of many cases successfully treated, will be sent free by mail.

PROFESSOR VAN BUSKIRK'S
GREAT GERMAN
LIVER REMEDY.
[illegible] the private practice of one of the most eminent Physicians in Germany, is now offered to the Public at a low price. When [illegible] has proved to be a safe and perfect remedy, it will take precedence of all other medicines in use. It is the latest discovery in Medical Science for the treatment of a class of diseases more common and dangerous than any other class, growing out of DERANGEMENTS OF THE LIVER.

Few persons are aware of the Debilitating and General Derangement of the whole system produced by a Morbid or Unhealthy Action of the Liver, and yet, not one person in ten is so fortunate as not to have suffered in some way from these Morbid Conditions. Health of course is dependent, in a great measure, upon the Purity of the Blood, and the Purity of the Blood is directly dependent upon a Healthful Functional Action of the Liver.

The diseases arising directly or indirectly from Affections of the Liver can not, of course, be enumerated in a brief advertisement; nor is such an enumeration necessary.

PROF. VAN BUSKIRK'S
GREAT GERMAN LIVER REMEDY
Strikes at the root of All Diseases which originate in Derangements of the Liver, Jaundice, Acute or Chronic Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Sallow Countenance, Sick Headache are promptly and radically cured by Professor Van Buskirk's Liver Remedy.

Hundreds of testimonials might be given from persons who have been permanently cured after trying other remedies, without any beneficial effect, but ONE TRIAL of the Liver Remedy is better proof to the afflicted than a volume of recommendations.

This medicine is Purely Vegetable, and does not contain either ☞ Mercury, Aloes, Gamboge, Scammony, or any drastic drug.

Sold by all Druggists. Price one dollar per bottle. Ask for Professor VAN BUSKIRK'S GREAT GERMAN LIVER REMEDY, and take no other. One dollar and fifteen cents, either in stamps or currency, sent to any Advertised Agent, or to the Proprietor, OSCAR G. MOSES & CO., 27 Cortland Street, New York, will ensure a bottle of the medicine by return mail, post-paid.

LIFE — HEALTH — STRENGHT.
LIFE—HEALTH—STRENGTH.
LIFE — HEALTH — STRENGTH.

Hundreds and thousands annually die prematurely, when, if they would give the Great French Remedy,

DR. JUAN DELAMARRE'S
Celebrated Specific Pills.

Prepared by GARANCIERE & DUPONT, No. 214, rue Lombard, Paris, from the prescription of Dr. Juan Delamarre, Chief Physician to the Hospital du Nord en Lariboisiere, a fair trial, they would find immediate relief, and, in a short time, be fully restored to Health and Strength. It is used in the practice of many eminent French physicians, with uniform success, and highly recommended as the only positive and Specific Remedy for all persons suffering from General or Sexual Debility, all derangements of the Nervous Forces, Melancholy, Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Emissions, all Weaknesses arising from Sexual Excesses or Youthful Indiscretions, Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Prostrations, Nervousness, Weak Spine, Lowness of Spirits, Dimness of Vision, Hysterics, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Impotency, &c.

No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change it produces in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as an unfailing cure to the maladies above mentioned.

Suffer no more, but use The Great French Remedy; it will effect a cure where all others fail, and, although a powerful remedy, contains nothing hurtful to the most delicate constitution.

Pamphlets, containing full particulars and directions for using, in English, French, Spanish and German, accompany each box, and are also sent free to any address when requested.

Price One Dollar per box; or six boxes for Five Dollars.

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world; or will be sent by mail, securely sealed from all observation, by inclosing specified price, to any authorized agent.

Addison County Agricultural Society.

By request of a number of citizens we republish the following which was in our columns April 4th.

The Addison County Agricultural Society will hold its Twenty-third Annual Exhibition at Middlebury, on WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY, Sept. 19th, 20th and 21st, 1866.

The Officers of the Society take this opportunity to present to the public their Twenty-Third Annual Premium List. The Board of Officers for the present year have spared no pains in revising the List, so that we may unhesitatingly say that we present one larger and more varied than any similar society in the State. The Hall will be fitted up for the accomodation of the ladies, whose spirit and good taste have already placed us under many obligations. We hope and expect to be still more deeply indebted for their contributions on the coming occasion. We have heretofore heard it remarked that the ladies hesitate to present their articles for exhibition, as there were insufficient arrangements made to protect them. We assure them that there will be a sufficient police force to protect all articles on exhibition in both halls. The ladies are requested, if possible, to have all articles entered for exhibition on the first day of the Fair, so that the committees may have a better opportunity for making their awards.

It is hoped that the breeders of fine stock will turn out, one and all, and bring their animals to the exhibition and make it one of the best ever held in the United States.

We cordially invite all to come with the assurance that they will find greater variety of fine stock than can be found at any like exhibition, and that there will be every effort made for the comfort of visitors. It was voted at our last meeting (which was held at the Addison House, Feb. 21) to leave off the committee and premiums on sheep, and invite all in the State and out, to come in with their sheep and make a voluntary show. It was voted to let horses from all parts come and compete with us; also to offer liberal purses for trotting as a partial inducement to all owners of fine horses to enter the list. Field Crops and Fat Cattle were stricken off the list. We urge all who intend to exhibit stock to make their entries previous to the first day of the Fair if possible. It is desired that all stock exhibited should be entered upon the society's book, so that a true and correct report can be made. All animals and articles competing for the premiums must be entered by 9 o'clock, A. M., on Thursday, Sept. 20th, when the books must be made up for the Judges.

The sheep pens will all be numbered and those wishing to have pens reserved must enter the number of pens and their numbers, with the Secretary, previous to first day of the Fair. Those at a distance can secure pens by writing to the the Secretary.

Committees are requested to report at the Secretary's office upon their arrival and register their names, and receive tickets admitting them during the Fair.

Fees of membership, one dollar; which will entitle the person thus becoming a member, to the exhibition for premiums of as many animals and articles as he chooses to enter; also to a member's ticket which will admit himself and wife at all hours of the Fair.

Price of admission, 25 cts. Double Teams, 50 cts. Single Teams, 25 cts. Horse and Rider, 50 cts.

All teams will be charged the above, unless actually on the ground for competition.

Arrangements have been made with the Rutland & Burlington Railroad to carry passengers to and from the Fair for fare one way.

A THRILLING STORY.

John Taylor was licensed when a youth of twenty-two to practice at the bar. He was poor but well educated, and possessed extraordinary genius. He married a beauty, who afterwards deserted him for another.

On the 9th of April, 1840, the court-house in Clarksville, Texas, was crowded to overflowing. An exciting case was tried. George Hopkins, a wealthy planter, had offered a gross insult to Mary Ellison, the young and beautiful wife of his overseer. The husband threatened to chastise him for the outrage, when Hopkins went to Ellison's house and shot him at his own door. The murderer was bailed to answer the charge. This occurrence produced a great excitement, and Hopkins in order to turn the tide of popular indignation, had circulated reports against her character, and she had sued him for slander. Both suits were pending—for murder and slander.

The interest became deeper when it became known that Pike and Ashley of Arkansas, and S. S. Prentiss of New Orleans, by enormous fees, had been detained to defend Hopkins.

Hopkins was acquitted. The Texas lawyers were overwhelmed by their opponents. It was the fight of dwarf against giant.

The slander case was for the 6th, and the throng of spectators grew in numbers as well as excitement: public opinion was setting in for Hopkins; his money had procured witnesses who served his powerful advocates. When the slander case was called, Mary Ellison was left without an attorney—all had withdrawn.

'Have you no counsel?' inquired Judge Mills, looking kindly at the plaintiff

'No, sir, they have all deserted me, and I am too poor to employ any more,' replied the beautiful Mary, bursting into tears.

'In such case, will not some chivalrous member of the profession volunteer?' said the Judge, glancing around the bar.

The thirty lawyers were silent.

'I will, your honor,' said a voice from the thickest part of the crowd, behind the bar.

At the sound of that voice many started—it was unearthly, sweet and mournful.

The first sensation was changed into laughter, when a tall, gaunt, spectral figure elbowed his way through the crowd, and placed himself within the bar. His clothes looked so shabby that the court hesitated to let the case proceed through his management.

'Has your name been entered on the rolls of the State?' asked the Judge.

'It is immaterial,' answered the stranger, his thin bloodless lips curling with a sneer. 'Here is my license from the highest tribunal of America!' and he handed the Judge a broad parchment. The trial went on.

He allowed the witnesses to tell their story, and the defense to lead off. Ashley spoke first, followed by Pike and Prentiss. The latter brought the house down in cheers, in which the jury joined.

It was now the stranger's turn; he rises—before the bar, not behind it—and so near the wondering jury that he might touch the foreman with his long, bony fingers. He proceeded to tear to pieces the arguments of Ashley, which melted away at his touch like frost before a sunbeam; every one looked surprised. Anon he came to the dazzling wit of the poet-lawyer, Pike. Then the curl of his lip grew sharper, his smooth face began to kindle and his eyes to open, dim and dreary no longer, but vivid as lightning, red as fire globes and glaring as twin meteors The whole soul in the eye, the full heart streamed out of his face, Then without bestowing an allusion to Prentiss, he turned short around on the perjured witnesses of Hopkins, tore their testimony into shreds, and hurled into faces such terrible invectives that all trembled like aspens, and two of them fled from the court-house. The excitement of the crowd was becoming tremendous. Their united souls seemed to hang upon the burning tongue of the stranger; he inspired them with the power of his malignant passion; he seemed to have stolen nature's long-hidden secret of attraction. But his greatest triumph was to come.

His eye began to glance at the assassin, Hopkins, and his lean taper fingers assumed the same direction. He hemmed the wretch with a wall of strong evidence and impregnable argument cutting off all hope of escape. He dug beneath the murderer's feet ditches of dilemma, and held the slanderer up to the scorn and contempt of the populace. Having thus girt him about him with a circle of fire, he stripped himself to the work of massacre.

Oh, then it was a vision both glorious and dreadful to behold the orator. His actions became as impetuous as the motions of the oak in a hurricane. His voice became a trumpet filled with wild whirlpools, deafening the ear with crashes of power, and yet intermingled all the while with a sweet undersong of the softest cadence. His forehead glowed like a heated furnace, his countenance was haggard like that of a maniac, and ever and anon he flung his long and bony arms on high as if grasping after thunderbolts.

He drew a picture of murder in such colors that in comparison hell itself might be considered beautiful; he painted the slanderer so black that the sun seemed dark at noon-day, when shining on such an accursed monster, and then, fixing both portraits on the sinking Hopkins, fastened them there forever. The agitation of the audience nearly amounted to madness.

All at once the speaker descended from the perilous height. His voice wailed out for the murdered dead and living—the beautiful Mary, more beautiful every moment as the tears flowed faster—till they wept and sobbed like children.

He closed with an exhortation to the jury, and through them to the bystanders; he advised the panel, after they should bring in a verdict for the plaintiff, not to offer violence to the defendant, however richly he might deserve it; in other words, "not to lynch the villain, but leave his punishment to God." This was the most artful trick of all, and the best calculated to insure vengeance.

The jury returned a verdict of $50,000; and the night after Hopkins was taken out of bed and beaten almost to death. As the court adjourned, the stranger said:

"John Taylor will preach here this evening at early candle light."

He did preach, and the house was crowded. I have listened to Clay, Webster and Calhoun to Dwight, Bascom and Beecher, but never heard anything in the form of sublime words even remotely approximating to the eloquence of John Taylor—massive as a mountain, and wildly rushing as a cataract of fire.

WHAT IS WHITE A MAN?—The Supreme Court of Michigan has worried itself very much of late in attempting to discover what is a white man? A simple mind, unaccustomed to subtle distinctions, would find no difficulty in deciding, but would say that a white man is a man who is white. But such stupidity must arouse the disgust of every profound philosopher. It has been clearly established by the laws of every Southern State, and several Northern States, including Michigan, that a man may be a white man and at the same time be a black man. Everything depends upon the cartilage of the nose. "A certain peculiarity of the nose," says the scientific testimony taken before the Circuit Court of Wayne County, "is an infallible indication of African blood." This is truly an appalling fact, and may lead to the amputation of a large number of noses—for if a man is only a nigger by reason of that organ, let him cut it off, and instantly he rises in the scale of races. With his nose, no matter how handsome it is, he is a born inferior, destined to follow his nose upon a down yard career. Without his nose such a man may dine with the President. Let every man then, look to his cartilage; for we greatly fear that black men with pretended white noses are common. The hair proves nothing—so the scientific authority has established—for a black man may, even without a wig, have a white man's hair. Wool or hair, the mulatto may have either, but cannot have both. Besides, he may be bald, and then what becomes of the test? Under these circumstances, all persons with hooked proboscises may be suspected of a sinister design to conceal their cartilage; but the candid snub-nose which is always turned up for the inspection of the world, must at once remove suspicion. Whenever the reader has any doubt that an apparently white man may really be a negro in disguise, he has only to approach the person and, with a polite apology, examine with his fingers the cartilage of his nose. According to the appearance of the cartilage he may then either bow, and say, "I am satisfied, my dear sir, you are not a negro;" or "Leave me, vile impostor: with that cartilage do you dare to pretend to be white?

Such an examination was actually made in Michigan before the Circuit Court referred to. An unfortunate man named Dean, being entirely ignorant that he was a negro, attempted to vote at a local election, and was arrested for violation of the laws. He br
