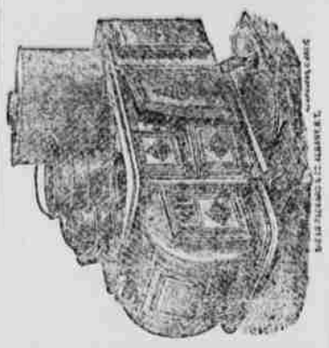
THE

AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.



After twenty years experience in the manufacture of stoves, we become convinced, some six years since, that a vast amount of money was being expended by the people of this country, in buying cheap and almost worthless stoves, a large portion of which was wasted; and that true economy consisted in having the best stoves that could be made, notwithstanding the price was higher. With this view we proceeded to construct the American Cooking Stove, and spared no pains or expense to make it the best and most perfect stove that could be made. And we have experimented with it, and carefully watched its operation for the last six years, and when an improvement suggested itself, we have at once adopted it, and we have several of these improvements secured by letters patent. In this manner, we do not hesitate to say we have brought it to a higher state of perfection than has heretofore been attained in cooking stoves. The recent improvements in this stove has added largely to its convenience and effectiveness. In all the varieties of stoves we manufacture, we study usefulness, durability, conveniences and economy in operation, rather than cheapness in price, and in so doing we are satisfied we study the interest of those purchasing our stoves.

For sale by

M. H. WELCH, Middlebury, Vt.

ALBANY, September 19, 1867.

☞ The American Cooking Stove has just been awarded two first premiums, one for coal and one for wood, at our County Fair, and the following telegram has just been received from the State Fair at New Jersey:

FAIR GROUNDS, TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 19, '67

To Shear, Packard & Co., Albany, N. Y.:

The American cooking Stove was awarded two first premiums over all others, at our Fair to-day "Hurrah" ISAAC DUNN & SONS.

Thus it will be seen that the superiority of the American is so marked and decided that when ever and wherever it is put on exhibition and comes under the examination of practical and scientific men, it sweeps the board and takes all the premiums.

These Stoves are for sale by

M. H. WELCH.

BUFFALO, Sept. 6, 1866.

Messrs. SHEAR, PACKARD & Co.:

Gentlemen: Enclosed find draft for amount of your bill for the seven-inch American Cooking Stove. The stove arrived all right and I am running it with waste shingles, which I buy at a shingle factory, at a cost of seventy cents per week; and I can run it with coal, at $9 per ton, for less. I used to run an eight-inch for eighty-four cents per week.—coal $9 per ton—and kept fire night and day. I have sold hundreds of stoves of stoves, but I say, without prejudice (now that I am out of the stove business) I have never seen so economical, convenient, well arranged and durable a stove as the American, and think its equal has not yet been furnished to the American market.

Yours truly, S. P. ROSE.

For Sale by M. H. WELCH.

BERKERSHIRE, Mass., Sept. 15, 1866.

SHEAR, PACKARD & Co.

Gents: Last winter I used one of your American Improved Stoves, and having used in years past, the "Stewart," I am prepared to say that for all purposes the American is preferable. We feel we cannot well do without the American in our family. Yours truly,

J. F. CROWT,
Minister of the Gospel.

SCHENECTADY, April 26, 1866.

Messrs. SHEAR, PACKARD & Co.,

Gents:—I have been for some time using one of your Improved American Cooking Stoves, and I must, in justice to you, add my testimony in favor of its many excellent qualities and superior merit. It is a splendid baker, quick and sure in all its operations; economical in fuel, and in point of workmanship and finish seems to be perfect; and as the people become familiar with its great superiority over all others, its sale must be largely increased.

Very respectfully yours,

WILLIAM WELLS,

Prof. Modern Languages, Union College.

A REMARKABLE STRAWBERRY

THE GOLDEN QUEEN.

(From the Rochester N. Y. Express July 21, 1867.

GOLDEN QUEEN STRAWBERRY.—Mr. J. B. Cline, No. 8 Howell street, an extensive grower and propagator of fruits, sent us yesterday (July 22) a quart of the Golden Queen Strawberry, which is probably the last of the present season; this fruit is quite well known for its superior flavor, and we need only speak now of its other advantages in lateness of ripening and productiveness. As it comes after most of the other berries are dried up and out of bearing, it uniformly brings a higher price, especially where its excellence has been proved. Its large size also makes it an attractive market berry, and its productiveness a most profitable variety for market. The Golden Queen has sold in this market from thirty-five to fifty cents per quart, and of its productiveness, a circular, issued by Mr. Cline, will be ample testimony.

Send 3 cent stamp and get one of Mr. Cline's circulars and price list of Strawberry, Grape, Fruit and Ornamental Trees; also, showing a printed cut of the Ontario Grape, single bunches weighing nearly 2 lbs; very early, tender and sweet. Address
