S. C. MERCER, Editor.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862

To Correspondents.

Our correspondents must allow us to take our own time for reading their communications. We have no time to be read to. It is literally impossible.

Please Notice.

We have no time to transcribe communications. We sometimes receive communications with a scrap of confidential information written on the back of the manuscript. Of course if we use the manuscript we have to re-write it, and this imposes entirely too much labor on us. We have no time for such work.

Notice to Club-Makers.

The Editor will be greatly obliged to persons making up clubs for the UNION if they will remit to the publishers and not subscriptions are sometimes mixed up with private information in such a manner as to cause needless delay and trouble to all parties.

Rally to Arms!

By authority of the Federal Government, I propose to raise a Battalion of Cavalry for service and home protection in Tennessee. Arms, Horses, Saddles and Clothing will be furnished.

I will address the people at Watertown, on Monday, the 14th; at New Middleton, on Tuesday, the 15th; at Alexandria, on Wednesday, the 16th; and at Liberty, on Thursday, the 17th instant.

Come on, boys, let us preserve our homes and save the Union.

WM. B. STOKES.

General Order, No. 16.

HEADQUARTERS U. S. FORCES,
Nashville, July 3, 1862.

All United States soldiers in this city and the country around, who are entertained at private hospitals, hotels, boarding houses, or private houses, and not under treatment at a United States Hospital, will report themselves at these Headquarters without delay, or be considered deserters.

In cases of serious disability from wounds or sickness which may prevent obedience to this order, the soldier must furnish a certificate of a physician of good standing, describing his case.

By command,
COL. JNO. F. MILLER,
Commanding Post.

Headquarters, District of the Ohio.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 5, 1862.

Col. LEWIS D. CAMPBELL, 69th Ohio Volunteers, Provost Marshal, &c.

COLONEL: A paper is on file in this office, in the hand writing of Capt. Dutton, Second Tennessee Volunteers, acknowledging the receipt of twenty-five dollars from two soldiers, in consideration of which he promises to get them discharged, and to furnish them with complete sets of "Discharge papers."

The Second Tennessee Volunteers is not in the U. S. service, and he is not, therefore, entitled to a Court Martial.

His military offence is an infamous one, and demands an infamous punishment. You will have his insignia of rank and buttons of his coat stripped from him by a private soldier, in front of the Regiment—paraded—and then cause him to be marched, by a file of the Guard, to the tune of the rogue's march, to the gate of the enclosure to the Provost Barracks, where you will have a Policeman stationed to receive him, and turn him over to the civil authorities, to answer for a violation of the laws of the State of Tennessee, in obtaining money under false pretenses. I am, Sir,

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
O. D. GREENE,
A. A. G.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NASHVILLE UNION.

THE NASHVILLE UNION was commenced a few weeks since, for the purpose of opposing the Rebel Southern Confederacy, and of advocating the restoration of Federal authority, without any abatement, over all the States which have attempted to secede. It holds as friends all who support, and as foes all who oppose the Union of the States. It has no watchword but FREEDOM AND NATIONALITY.

With rebels and traitors it has no compromise to make. It contends for the Federal Constitution and the Laws made in pursuance thereof as the SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND, anything in the Constitution and laws of any of the States to the contrary notwithstanding.

It contends for the Union of the States, because without it the preservation of our liberties and institutions and the organization of society itself are wholly impossible. Therefore, whatever stands in the way of crushing out the rebellion and restoring the Union must perish, no matter by what name it be called.

To the people of Tennessee, ever renowned for their devotion to Liberty and Union, until they were betrayed to the rebel despotism at Richmond by a perfidious Governor and corrupt Legislature, and who have felt so heavily the awful curse of treason and anarchy, we appeal for support. Let the names of rebel office-holders, Vigilance Committees, and Minute Men, who have filled our borders with mourning, be pilloried before the world. Let those ambitious and unprincipled men who have plotted our ruin for their aims, no matter how high their position in society. Let it be shown how the self-styled defenders of "Southern Rights" are now leading marauding bands of free-booters and moss-troopers over our State, kidnapping negroes, stealing horses and cattle, breaking into houses, burning railroad bridges and cars, and murdering unarmed citizens in cold blood. Let the truth, so long excluded by the Southern conspirators, now circulate freely through every neighborhood, and our cause will assuredly triumph. Will not loyal men everywhere aid us in the dissemination of facts and the advocacy of Free Government?

DR KING'S DISPENSARY FOR PRIVATE DISEASES.

DR. KING, formerly of New York, for the last four years of Louisville, and who has devoted his attention to the treatment of private diseases for 30 years, satisfies himself, having attended to practice for so many years, and cured so many thousands, he is enabled to cure all diseases of a private nature, no matter how bad they may be from injudicious medical treatment, or from neglect of their own. Dr. King's Dispensary is No 23 Deaderick street, between Cherry and the Square, second story, where he cures all diseases of a private nature.

Gonorhea cured without nauseous medicines or interference with business.

Stictures of old or recent date, effectually cured in a few days, by an operation which causes no pain. Where a Stricture exists health cannot be enjoyed. Perhaps no disease causes more mischief and undermines the constitution so much.

Syphilis, with all the diseases of the skin, growing out of neglect or bad treatment, can be effectually cured in a few days.

Seminal Weakness.—Particular attention having been given to this disease, and all the consequences growing out of it, brought on in many cases by the destructive habits of inconsiderate youths, and excessive indulgence of the passions, a neglect of which will undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unfit for business or society, and causing premature old age.

Females who may be laboring with any difficulty o the Womb may rest assured immediate relief.

Persons residing abroad, by writing and stating their case, with a fee enclosed, direct to Dr. A. King, No. 23 Deaderick street, Nashville, Tenn., will have the necessary medicines sent to their address. Office hours 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 in the evening.
