DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Following a funeral service at his home on Mechanic street Friday morning the body of Joseph Lusignan was buried in Holy Cross cemetery. The bearers were Alphonse Champagne, Joseph Labelle, Joseph Gendron, Alphonse Maindon, Vertume Lagasse and Nicholas Belanger. Louis E. Kennedy was the funeral director. A requiem mass for Mr. Lusignan will be sung at St. James' church at a later date.

A woodchopper who died suddenly in Canterbury, where he had been employed in the western part of the town, has been identified as Henry Lavallee, age about 55. Little is known about him or his history and efforts made during the day to locate relatives failed. The body is at the undertaking rooms of L. E. Kennedy and will be buried today (Saturday) in Brooklyn.

April 8 at 2 p. m. has been set as the time for the hearing before the selectmen relative to the petition of 53 residents of Danielson that 14 shade trees on Reynolds street at the southerly side of Davis park be cut down in order that the street may be widened and other and younger trees be given more freedom for growth. The hearing is to be held in the office of the selectmen and from present indications should bring out a considerable number of persons, favoring or opposed to the tree cutting plan.

Good Friday services in the churches of Danielson were attended by large numbers of persons. The day was very quietly observed here, although business was not generally suspended, as was the rule in some other places in this vicinity.

Saturday specials: Bulk chocolates, 49 cents lb.; Blackstone and Murat cigars, 10 cents, at Mose the Druggist, the Rexall store.—adv.

Easter Sunday services in local churches will be featured by special musical programs, choirs having made special preparations for the day. At the Baptist church the following program will be given Sunday evening at 7 o'clock:

There will be a special Easter service at the Attawaugan Methodist church. The usual morning service is to be held at 10:45, while at the evening service a cantata will be sung. The Boy Scout orchestra will assist at the evening service, which will be at 6:30 o'clock.

Kenneth C. Michie, who has been at the head of the finishing department at Dayville for more than five years has resigned and will come to Danielson to engage in business.

The Larkin Reed company is so crowded with orders that some night work is being done at the plant. This happy condition of affairs reflects the revival of activity in the textile trades, tek local concern making reeds for mills in many parts of New England.

Mrs. Jane Thompson, 95, Dayville's oldest woman, was painfully but not seriously injured when she fell from her chair and received a cut back of the ear.

A number of Danielson people have been invited to attend the farewell reception being arranged by the people of the village in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Boys and their family, who are going to Putnam to live in the near future.

Dr. Wobbler's Barefoot Bitters. Ever heard of it? Well, if not, it may be stated that its otherwise known as Jakey or Jamaica ginger, but its effective powers to knock one for a goal has earned it the new titled, evolved by a local man.

Special demonstration of La Resista corsets, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday at the Alice-Eleanor Shop.—adv.

Strictly fresh eggs were quoted as low as 38 cents a dozen in Danielson on Good riday. Others were asking 40 cents, but 38 was the prevailing price.

Edward Carlson, who has been on a South American cruise with Captain H. D. Mason of the steamship James McGee, has returned to his home in Brooklyn.

Loretta Nadeau, student at a private school in Woonsocket, is spending the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. Clara Nadeau of School street.

Henri I. Baer of Rosedale, L. I., said while here this week that he is now the owner of the largest breeding kennels in the world. He has a part of his establishment at East Killingly and a part on Long Island. Mr. Baer specializes in police dogs and sells them all over the United States and in Canada, Cuba and Porto Rico.

James C. Calliday of Providence was a visitor with friends in Danielson Friday.

There will be a special Easter musical program at St. James' church Sunday.

Howard Tillinghast of Connecticut Agricultural college, is spending the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Tillinghast.

Miss Clara Armstrong, student at Boston university, is spending the Easter vacation at her home in Danielson.

PUTNAM

Good Friday was unusually quiet in this city, in keeping with the most solemn period of the penitential season. Hundreds attended church services afternoon and evening, there being especially large congregations at St. Mary's church. Business throughout the city was practically suspended during the afternoon.

When the annual banquet and election of the Men's club of the Congregational church is held in April, the Glee club and orchestra of Brown university will be a principal attraction. The Glee club and orchestra is made up of 65 college students.

More than one trout fisherman felt his palms itch Friday when a boy, sporting a birch pole and a piece of string and a hook as a fishing outfit hauled a fine big trout out of Little river while fishing for perch or any other small fish that might bite. The boy, of course, and in truth, was not fishing for trout and didn't expect to catch one, but he did—and, well, the trouters can barely await the coming of next Friday.

Miss Maude Carpenter, who teaches in the high school at Durham, is spending the Easter period here. She is accompanied by her mother, who has been spending the winter with her. Miss Mary Carpenter of the Boston school of physical culture also is spending the Easter vacation in Putnam.

It is announced by the matron of the Day Kimball hospital, that, beginning April 1, the hours for visiting ward patients will be from 2.30 to 4 p. m. The request also is made that this rule be observed by those who wish to visit sick friends or relatives.

Under William F. Fenny a revival of enthusiasm for the organization is being manifested by the Boy Scouts of the city. Mr. Fenny, recently named as scoutmaster, is working out a plan for the spring season of activities and the hope is expressed that arrangements may be made for having a Scout room in the down town business section.

Arrangements are practically completed for launching next week's drive for funds that will be devoted to relief work in Ireland. The drives underway for this cause in many towns and cities of the state have met with such success that it is believed that Putnam will also make a splendid showing.

Miss Wilhelmina Frost will give the program at a piano recital next Wednesday evening at Frederick Very's studio in Providence.

Easter Saturday services will be held today at St. Mary's church.

Health Officer Peter Gardner has given notice that certain regulations are now in force relative to disposing of refuse at the city dump, near the Quinebaug river. The dump has been put in shape by the street department men. Ties have been placed where trucks and wagons can back up and deposit their loads. Mr. Gardner gives fair warning that any person who does not so back up his vehicle and deposit the load back of the row of ties will be prosecuted.

Members of the Putnam Country club are polishing up their golf sticks and making ready for the opening of the links. Almost any day now well known members of the organization may be seen taking practice swings with their clubs or conferring over new equipment. A campaign is going on for new members, and there is special activity in Danielson to recruit membership from that section, now well represented in the organization.

Wednesday evening, April 6, Hoover banquets will be held at various churches, in aid of the drive that will be underway here that week for Near East Relief. On Tuesday evening, April 5, Ivan Rossiter, a veteran who served with the Canadian forces in the World war, will deliver an address, narrating his experiences in Central Europe.

Members of Putnam grange are to be entertained next Thursday evening at a card party at the home of Miss Chrystobel Gifford of Ring street, this being one in a series of such parties that have proved so popular with grange members the past winter.

Mrs. Grace Willey, of Norwich, president, and Mrs. Hutchins, vice president, and Hrs. Lovett, Willimantic, deputy president, will be among the grand assembly officers of the state organization of Rebekans who will come to attend the meeting of the local organization, April 13.

Thomas F. Roche, electrical instructor, has been named as manager of the State Trade school baseball team that is being organized. It is expected that this year's tea mwill be the best that has ever represented the institution. Games with the State Trade school team may be booked by communicating with Mr. Roche.

A practically new suit of clothes, a brand new portable typewriter and other articles stolen some time since from the room occupied by Malcolm M. Willey at Columbia university were recovered in a New York pawn shop. The typewriter had been pawned for four dollars.

State road crews are making the most of the excellent weather of the early spring to do patching work on state highways throughout this section of the state. The roads did not break down so badly the past winter as they did a year ago, but many small holes have become worn in the surfaces and these are being given attention.

Favorable reports relative to the condition of Peter Murphy of Pomfret continue to come from Norwich, and this is very pleasing to his great number of friends, who hope to see him well and at home again at an early date.

At the meeting of Putnam grange scheduled for Monday evening next the third and fourth degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates. The degree team has been giving time to rehearsals and a surprise is promised to those who view the degrees as they will be given Monday next.

Rev. J. Spencer Voorhees, of Pomfret, was the speaker at a Good Friday service at the church in Thompson. Rev. S. J. A. Rook, pastor of the Methodist church of this city, spoke at the Thursday service at the Thompson church.

A number of Putnam people will be at Goodyear this evening to attend a reception to be given by the people of that place in honor of Robert W. Boys, who is coming here within a few days to be the agent of the Manhasset Manufacturing company.

A. M. Bowen of Eastford has been called for service as a juror in the federal court sitting at Hartford.

An Easter concert is to be given at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

There will be a sunrise service at the Congregational church Easter morning at 7 o'clock.

The Patriot fund for the Day Kimball hospital has been increased to $5640.

Travel out of this city Friday was increased by numbers of persons going away to spend the Easter season.

Danbury.—Mayor William C. Gilbert, who has been seriously ill at his home on Stevens street for several weeks, is stated to have shown much improvement during the last 24 hours.

THIS WOMAN SUFFERED

Mrs. H. A. Leaman, Sturgin, Col., writes: "I suffered with bladder and kidney trouble for years. Doctored and tried everything. No help. Finally a friend sent me Foley Kidney Pills. They helped me so much I used seven bottles. Now I feel fine. Spent sleepless night. Suffered so it seemed I hardly could live. Recommend Foley Kidney Pills to all who suffer from kidney trouble as I did." Lee & Osgood Co.
