MERROW

The Sunday school class of Rev. W. C. Darby, pastor of the Federated church of Tolland, met in the church parlors Saturday evening, May 13th for a social time. The class consists of young ladies and young men. During the evening a loud knock was heard at the door and Ira Wilcox and Miss Helen Reynolds were requested to step to the door. There they found a generous sized May basket filled to overflowing with many useful and beautiful things with which newlyweds would be delighted. Mr. Wilcox and Miss Reynolds are to be married July 4th at the bride's home in Eagleville, that date being Miss Reynolds' twenty-first birthday. The May basket was a beautiful creation of pink and white, pink being the prospective bride's favorite color.

Mrs. A. T. Burdick attended the funeral of her uncle, Adelbert W. Barrows, in New London May 18th. Returning from that city to Willimantic, she spent the night and next day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Russ.

I. F. Wilcox has had hardwood floors laid in his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green of Willimantic are to spend the week-ends with Mrs. Green's brother here for the remainder of the summer.

MOOSUP

George Lacroix who has had charge of the mending and burling department of the American Woolen Co. mill here for several months, finished work there a week ago. Miss Minnie Kerr presented Mr. Lacroix $25 in gold as a testimonial from his associates. He has recently purchased a farm near Baltic and will soon take charge of it.

Hartford.—Ignace J. Midura, who until a short time ago was thought to be doing a good business as a steamship ticket agent and who held the confidence of a large number of people of foreign birth, for whom he handled the transfer of money to relatives in Europe, has been bound over to the next term of the superior court by Judge Elmer, in the police court. Bond was fixed at $1,285. He is charged with the embezzlement of $400 entrusted to him by one of his clients.
