NOT QUITE LIKE EYRAUD.

Staten Island Thinks It Was the French Murderer's Body.

There is much mystery as to the identity of the suicide who was found dead on the Willowbrook road, at Staten Island, last Thursday night, with a bullet wound in the mouth and a five-chamber revolver by his side.

After many efforts at an identification of the body Coroner Wood is working on a theory that the suicide is Eyraud, the French strangler, who murdered Marshal Gouffe at Paris last July.

The suicide resembled Eyraud in several ways, and the matter impressed the Coroner to such an extent that he notified Inspector Byrnes, and waited until last evening before sending the body to the County House for burial.

Coroner Wood was seen this morning at his home in Port Richmond by an EVENING WORLD reporter.

"The case is certainly a peculiar one," said he, "and one which the New York authorities should look into. The suicide appeared in Willowbrook on Thursday. He had a foreign accent. He said he had come over from Bergen Point, and stopped in several saloons, where he drank soda.

"He left Mulvaney's saloon about 5.30 o'clock in the afternoon, and instead of starting in the direction of the depot, went the other way. A little later he was discovered lying in the road. He was dead.

"The man was about forty-seven years, 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighed about 175 pounds; he had light eyes and scanty, grayish hair, and was partially bald. He also wore a brownish gray mustache. Generally speaking this answers Eyraud's description.

"The revolver which he used was of the 'Marquis of Lorne' pattern and was an old one. The bag he carried it in was worn out at the bottom. At the inquest Monday night the witnesses said the man spoke with a French accent.

"One of the witnesses, named Dreyer, who lives out on the road, exhibited a picture of Eyraud, and said he thought the suicide was the man who has been tracked half way across the earth.

"There is a striking resemblance between the suicide and the picture. The eyes and nose are very much alike, and the general appearance is the same.

"The suicide, however, was more bald than Eyraud is represented to be, and he lacks the extraordinary large and strong hands which Eyraud is said to have possessed."

Coroner Wood added that he had notified the New York Police, but having received no reply, he had sent the body out to the county farm for burial.

TERRIFIC POWDER EXPLOSION.

Marquette County, Mich., Shaken as by an Earthquake.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

NEGAUNEE, Mich., April 23.—Fire broke out in the mill of the Anthony Powder Company last night, and shortly after 9 o'clock the whole mill blew up with such a terrific shock that all Marquette County was shaken.

Stores and houses in the immediate vicinity were badly shaken, fronts being blown in, windows broken and considerable other damage done.

At Marquette, eleven miles from here, the shock was distinctly felt, many thinking it was an earthquake.

At 1 o'clock the fire was still raging, threatening some of the packing-houses of the Company.

As far as can be learned but one person was killed, that being the night watchman at the powder mill.

Interesting Census to Be Taken To-Night in the Fifteenth.

Primary elections will be held to-night by the Business Men's Republican Organization in the Fifteenth Assembly District, where that political faction has secured a footing. Members of the Campaign Committee will be chosen.

The result of the primaries will be watched with great interest to determine just how many active members this boastful organization has.

It claims 8,000, and its leaders will exert themselves to get every one out to vote, with a view to impressing the machine organization with the greatness and power of its opposition.

CITY OF BERLIN FREE TO SAIL.

The Inman line people appeared before Collector Erhardt this morning and gave an indemnity bond for the steamship City of Berlin, which was threatened with seizure for unloading her cargo without a permit, and the vessel will sail at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The goods will be released to the merchants to-day. The Inman people express deep regret over the affair, and say it was occasioned by a thirty-six hour delay at Liverpool.
