FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE.

WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.

Never again will you be able to secure such bargains in Furniture as we are now giving, that all the samples of the season's styles may be cleared from our warerooms.

The advance in Oak will make new goods cost much more, and, of course, they must start at cost of making, or we would not be able to long supply below the regular retail cost rate.

The assortment is still good, but the bargains are disappearing.

Harrison vs. Cleveland.

Who wins?.....Fair Trade or Protection?.....High Tariff or Tariff for Revenue?.....Here is merchandise bought under present conditions that ought to suit both parties.....One will claim that prices of labor must be very much depressed — the other, with equal justice, argue that if such values can be given, why change?

Both Arguments Are Good.
BUT THE PRICES ARE VERY, VERY LOW.
