LIFE AT A CONVENT SCHOOL.

Here Is a Famous Institution, of Which Little Is Known.

The Convent of the Sacred Heart, at One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street and St. Nicholas avenue, is the leading educational institution of the Catholic Church, and within its walls have been educated the daughters of the leading families in New York and other great cities of the United States.

CONVENT OF THE SACRED HEART.

Very little information about the rules and customs of this school for girls has ever been published. "The Sunday World" will present a complete and carefully written article, which will interest all teachers, scholars and heads of families of whatever faith they may be. The difference between a boarding-school and the Convent of the Sacred Heart will impress the reader very favorably.

FROM THE NEW YORK WORLD:

Hosea Higgins is probably as well known as any man in New York, and the name of the institution over which he presides has spread all over the country. The invariable and pronounced success that has followed his methods in teaching the art of dancing has made it the largest establishment of the kind in the world. To the better class of people "Our Own" is an ideal institution; its facilities are unequaled, the floor space is enormous, the music provided is above criticism, while his staff of lady and gentleman teachers stand at the head of their profession.

Mr. HOSEA HIGGINS, in his class lessons, gives individual instruction in a room separate from the general class room. Different people find this method a great advantage. He GUARANTEES THE WALTZ IN SIX PRIVATE LESSONS, MAKING NO FAILURES.
