MISCELLANEOUS.

For the Indiana State Sentinel.

A Fragment.

Whether on peopled strands or desert shores,
Among the ennobling sons who love thee well,
'Tis where o'er all her glowing spirit pours,
Dearest of earth, there would I with thee dwell.
Of man's creation's years the rain tell,
Sure thou, whose spirit never is enchained;
Through the long night of ages the far swell
Of thy departing voice, has ever reigned
Upon the solitude, ere thy full mead was gained.
The snow clad Alps confess thy mountain home!
The sportive chamois on the darkened peak,
Even find a purer freshness as they roam
Through the free air; and there man best may speak
Of countless things whereon his hands would wreak
His vengeance; but the giant's glory's flight
Now wears a glow of beauty—with the weak,
A portion of thy loveliness and light,
To gaze on, till the glorious dawn of scenes more bright.

July 1, 1846. J. G. R.

EMIGRATION FROM EUROPE.—In spite of the slanders heaped upon the people and the government of the United States by the government organs of Europe, there is something in Republican institutions, and the growing greatness, prosperity, and ultimate destiny of our country, that has a charm of great force for the people of the old world, which is drawing them in unprecedented numbers from their own homes in the East, to new ones in the wild, free, and illimitable West. A letter addressed to the Washington Union states that the number of emigrants from Europe to the United States, during the present year, will amount, it is believed, to not less than 200,000—a third more than ever embarked in any previous year. The Dublin Post estimates that 300,000 will leave Ireland alone, most of whom are substantial farmers, and that they will carry with them at least £600,000, or $3,000,000. In England the number will be still larger, and confined principally to farmers, who are frightened by the probable abrogation of the corn-laws. Many families in affluent circumstances are also quitting Holland for our shores—a country which, for a long time, has been less of an emigrating turn than any in Europe. Twenty thousand persons, chiefly French and Swiss, will embark at Havre. Forty thousand Germans, at the lowest computation, will sail from Bremen, three or four thousand from Hamburgh, as many from Rotterdam, and four or five thousand from Antwerp. Besides the increase of our wealth from this addition to our population, by its industry, it carries with it an actual capital exceeding $20,000,000. With such additions by emigration, joined to the natural increase of our population, the end of the next twenty years, if peace should be preserved, and the energy and enterprise of our people be directed to their own improvement, will see us the most prosperous and powerful nation on the face of the earth.—Phil. Ledger.

GEN. SCOTT NO MORE!—We picked up (says the Cincinnati Enquirer,) the following epitaph, on Gano street, upon the late Gen. Scott, which we trust E. D. Mansfield will insert in the second edition of his last little book:

DIED
Without resignation,
And with much suffering
And Complaint,
GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT:
Who having escaped
The British at Lundy's Lane;
The Ballet of De Witt Clinton;
The wrath of General Gaines;
The pen of E. D. Mansfield;
Fell
At last a victim to
A plate of soup.

FANNY FORRESTER.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Mirror writing from Utica says: The Baptist portion of the community at this place and at Hamilton are somewhat divided in opinion on the subject of Dr. Judson's recent marriage with Miss Emily Chubbuck. 'The unco guid' are a little scandalized that so holy a man should have been smitten with a variety of fiction, while others are no less astonished that a lady of so much note, so agreeable, and under 80, should have accepted a gentleman near 60, with the condition of spending her days in Burmah. They sail from New York shortly.

"TAKE MY HAT."—At Port Hope, Canada, a gentlemanly looking man recently fell into the Lake while attempting to land from the boat. After going down once or twice, by considerable exertion on the part of the Rochester firemen, who worked right lustily, he was rescued from his perilous situation, and placed safely upon the boat. Shaking the water from his well-soaked garments, he turned to the spot which came so near being a watery grave to him, and with the most doleful countenance imaginable, exclaimed, "There, my hat's in the Lake!"

ILLINOIS.—A letter from the Governor states that there are thirty thousand dollars in the treasury as the proceeds of the interest tax, which sum will be paid to the bond holders—we believe on the first of July.

CENSUS OF ILLINOIS.—The census of Illinois in 1845 has been prepared by the Secretary of State, and published in the State Register. The result is as follows:—White males, 318,135; white females, 308,798; total negroes, 4,902. Grand total, 662,125.

NOT BAD.—The printers of Pittsburgh have struck for higher wages, as they receive but fifteen cents per thousand. The Detroit Free Press says that they may well strike, but that under the circumstances they ought to kick their employers.

There is said to be an aristocracy among the slaves of the South, who, when they wish to be very severe on each other say, "go along, half price nigger! you wouldn't fotch fifty dollars, and I'm wuth a thousand!"

A HERMIT.—A man has lived in a small hut near New Hampton, N. H., for the last fifty years quite alone. He commenced this mode of life at the age of 21. He has no stock, and not even a dog or cat for a companion.

"My Uncle," says Irving, in Ralph Ringwood, was a little whimsical of a man, one that in Kentucky we would not call even an "individual," nothing more than a "remote circumstance."

APPROPRIATE.—In his work on Mexico, Brantz Mayer says that "Darkness hangs upon both extremes of the history of Mexico."

An unmarried girl was arrested in New York, dressed in men's clothes. She was sent home after promising that she would not wear the breeches again until she got married.

It is now positively declared that the main ingredient of Gen. Scott's "hasty plate of soup" was that excellent delicacy, snapping turtle.

☞At Troy, Wisconsin, two hundred thousand acres of broom corn were planted last year, and upwards of eighty thousand brooms manufactured for a special market, Liverpool.

☞The value of the real and personal estate in the city of Boston for 1845 was $135,948,700—increase over 1844, $11,366,100. Amount of taxes, $811,333 19, or $7 08 to each inhabitant.

The lady of Mr. Charles Wiggin, of Knox, Me., last week gave birth to four children—two boys and two girls! The children, we regret to say, died in about an hour after their birth; the mother is doing well.

The Ohio Statesman is very bitter upon some political opponent, whom it terms, most expressively, "the man with the hang dog look and ticklish neck."

The Improved Indian Vegetable Pills.

(MADE BY A REGULAR PHYSICIAN.)

A most excellent, pleasant, and never failing Medicine, for the cure of Fevers, Ague, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Costiveness, Foul Stomach, Head Ache, Influenza, Impure Blood, Want of Appetite, Worms, Coughs and Colds, Liver Complaint, General Debility, Pains of all kinds, Female Complaints, and all Diseases that Pills, of any kind, can possibly cure.

NEED NOT FORCE THEM DOWN—Those who have conscientious scruples will please read the following, never before published—facts regarding the Sugar Coated Improved Indian Vegetable Pills for Consumption, Colds, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Fevers.

Having been attacked some months since, with a bad cough, weakness in my chest and loss of appetite, I used Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, but grew worse; with cold sweats at night—could not sleep, and believed I was in a consumption. I procured a box of Dr. Smith's Sugar coated Improved Indian Vegetable Pills, which restored my health within six days, and I believe them to be the best remedy I ever used. GEORGE W. GRANGER.

Cambridge, October 19, 1844.

Extract from A. G. Page's letter, dated Bath, January 1 1845.

The Sugar Coated Indian Vegetable Pills you sent me sell well and give good satisfaction. They sell better then any I have had.

Extract from Levi Barrett's letter, dated Canaan, Maine, February 3, 1845.

The Pills which I received from you have given such universal satisfaction where they have been purchased, and the sale has been so uniform, that I thought best to request you to send me on some more of them immediately, &c.

Extract from William N. Packard's letter, dated Monson, Massachusetts, January 22, 1845.

Sir—Enclosed is the payment for the last Pills. You will please send me by express another lot, say four dozen. They give good satisfaction. I have not on hand more than 6 boxes, and do not wish to be cut out of them one day.

Extract from Daniel Taft & Son's letter, dated Taftsville, Vermont, February 6, 1845.

Your Pills were received a few days since, and we have sold some of them, some have used some of them ourselves and think very favorably of them, and they are liked by those who have used them.

Mr J P Smith of Gloucester states that he has sold all and wishes 8 dozen more immediately; and they give such universal satisfaction that he has determined to sell no other kind of Pills.

Mr A Allen of Palmer Depot, states that he cannot express very thankful he was appointed agent, as his wife has been an invalid for some time, and a box of these pills immediately cured her, also that they had performed alike wonderful cures in the town, and was entirely out and wanted some immediately—was agent for other pills, but should only recommend these."

Extract from J B Danforth's letter, dated Barnard, Vermont, January 11, 1845.

Please send me immediately 6 dozen Smith's Sugar Coated Indian Vegetable Pills. These you sent a short time since are nearly all sold and give universal satisfaction.

The following letter from the South shows in what high estimation these pills are held:

Harper's Ferry, Virginia, April 21, 1845.

Dr H W Andrews—Sir—I am in want of more Sugar Coated Indian Vegetable Pills. I have not one in store. There has been much sickness, and as I have been much engaged, the pills run out before I was aware of it. They are well liked here.
