DAILY STATE SENTINEL.

National Democratic Platform of 1864.

THE UNION—THE CONSTITUTION—PEACE—PUBLIC LIBERTY—PRIVATE RIGHTS—FREE ELECTIONS—A FREE PRESS—FREE SPEECH—TRIAL BY JURY—THE RIGHT OF ASYLUM—JUSTICE TO OUR SOLDIERS.

Resolved, That in the future, as in the past, we will adhere with unwavering fidelity to the Union under the Constitution as the only solid foundation of our strength, security and happiness as a people, and as a framework of government equally conducive to the welfare and prosperity of all the States, both Northern and Southern.

Resolved, That this Convention does explicitly declare, as the sense of the American people, that after four years of failure to restore the Union by the experiment of war, during which, under the pretense of military necessity or war power higher than the Constitution, the Constitution itself has been disregarded in every part, and public liberty and private right alike trodden down, and the material prosperity of the country essentially impaired, justice, humanity, liberty and the public welfare demand that immediate efforts be made for a cessation of hostilities with a view to an ultimate convention of the States, or other peaceable means, to the end that at the earliest practicable moment peace may be restored on the basis of the Federal Union of the States.

Resolved, That the direct interference of the military authorities of the United States in the recent elections held in Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri and Delaware, was a shameful violation of the Constitution, and a repetition of such acts in the approaching election will be held as revolutionary, and resisted with all the means and power under our control.

Resolved, That the aim and object of the Democratic party is to preserve the Federal Union and the rights of the States unimpaired, and they hereby declare that they consider that the administrative usurpation of extraordinary and dangerous powers not granted by the Constitution, the subversion of the civil by military law in States not in insurrection, the arbitrary military arrests, imprisonment, trial and sentence of American citizens in States where civil law exists in full force. The suppression of freedom of speech and of the press, the denial of the right of asylum, the open and avowed disregard of State rights, the employment of unusual test oaths, and the interference with and denial of the right of the people to bear arms in their defense, is calculated to prevent a restoration of the Union and the perpetuation of the Government deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed.

Resolved, That the shameful disregard of the Administration to its duty in respect to our fellow citizens who are, and long have been, prisoners of war in a suffering condition, deserves the severest reprobation on the score alike of public policy and common humanity.

Resolved, That the sympathy of the Democratic party is heartily and earnestly extended to the soldiery of our army and sailors of our navy who are and have been in the field and on the sea, under the flag of their country, and in the event of its attaining power, they will receive all the care, protection and regard that the brave soldiers and sailors of the republic have so nobly earned.

Official Vote for Governor in 1864, and Vote for Secretary of State in 1862.

NEW YORK, October 29.—Owing to the storm last night, the proceedings in the case of the election frauds on the soldiers could not be transmitted over the wires.

The following is a brief summary of the proceedings:

Donahue, one of the prisoners, admitted that he had signed certain blanks with the names of C. G. Arthur, capt., and A. D. C. and no others, but claimed that it was no crime, as there was no such officer in the service. He also denied the jurisdiction of the commissioner.

The Judge Advocate claimed that the court had jurisdiction.

O. K. Wood was sworn on the part of the Government.

He was an agent of the Union committee of his county. He had his suspicions aroused while on a visit to Fort McHenry, and finally went to Mr. Ferry, State Agent, representing himself as a McClellan agent. He soon learned that when Lincoln votes were sent there from the soldiers, they were changed for McClellan votes, and he was assured there was more of this done than he thought of.

The witness then detailed the operation of filling up the blanks, &c.

Much other information, showing systematic fraud was elicited.

While in Ferry's office two soldiers came in and signed a power of attorney, and each placed a Union electoral ticket, with the State Democratict ticket in envelopes, but Ferry abstracted the Union and substituted Democratic electoral tickets. Wood then informed the Provost Marshal of the business.

A number of letters, &c., seized in Ferry's office were exhibited. The letters were all enigmatical and contain no open admissions of frauds. The names of Peter Cogge, of Albany, and E. Newcomb frequently occur in the letters.

After an advice by the Judge Advocate the case of Donahoe was announced as closed, and the room cleared for the commission to deliberate upon it. The decision was announced in an hour, and it goes to the President for approval before being made public.

Mr. Newcomb, under oath, made a statement that he was commissioned by Gov. Seymour to take votes in Baltimore and Washington. He saw Donahoe, Wood and Ferry writing out powers of attorneys and proxies at Ferry's office in some cases. He saw officers names put in at Donahoe's request. Donahoe made a statement in which he said that what he had done was foolishly done without any knowledge or idea of the consequence. He appealed to the court to view his case with lenience.

There is a rumor that Hancock lost 1,000 men in his movement.

The Commercial's Washington special says: The President is in the most cheerful mood today, in view of the military situation. It is thought there is good news in his possession which will speedily be made public.

The Times has the following special from Nashville of the 29th:

Gen. Gilham has just had a sanguinary battle with Breckinridge's forces in East Tennessee, completely routing and driving them in confusion many miles. The fighting was of the live character, our cavalry using the sabre. We captured nearly 500 prisoners, including Col. Ross, commanding a brigade. The celebrated McClury's battery was captured entire, being one of the most glorious things. The rebels in their flight threw away their arms and abandoned most of their property. The rebel killed and wounded were left in our possession. Gen. Gilham is still in vigorous pursuit.

The extra session of the Legislature, called to provide for a more thorough defense of the State, adjourned without accomplishing anything.

The Mobile News says the only thing the Legislature attended to was increasing their own salaries for the approaching regular session.

The Mobile Advertiser says the Legislature refused to do anything towards raising money or men for the support of the Confederate cause or defense of their own State. We believe a thousand men in arms could not do a tithe of the injury that the introduction of these resolutions will do.

The Macon Confederacy says the health of Hood's army is excellent. Straggling has almost entirely ceased.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 26th says: The army is strongly entrenched. It would seem like madness for either to attack the other in front. In some places they are 400, in others not more than 100 yards apart. They may remain in their respective positions till winter, or any morning or night may bring on a collission.

The Senthel of the 26th says the rebel States should be rapidly united and decline separate negotiations for peace; that it would be unconstitutional, and that nothing would be more fatal.

Nothing later from Gen. Grant than was telegraphed to day.

Dispatches from the Shenandoah Valley report all quiet.

Guerrillas between Martinsburg and Winchester are very bold, and strong guards are necessary to protect trains and persons passing through.

There are reports that the rebels are preparing for an extensive raid toward New Orleans.

The Herald's special from New Orleans says that Gov. Allen has already commenced conscripting negroes for the rebel army in several parishes. His cavalry are scouting the country for the purpose of
