DAILY SENTINEL

National Democratic Platform of 1864.

THE UNION—THE CONSTITUTION—PEACE—PUBLIC LIBERTY—PRIVATE RIGHTS—FREE ELECTIONS—A FREE PRESS—FREE SPEECH—TRIAL BY JURY—THE RIGHT OF ASYLUM—JUSTICE TO OUR SOLDIERS.

Resolved, That in the future, as in the past, we will adhere with unswerving fidelity to the Union under the Constitution as the only solid foundation of our strength, security and happiness as a people, and as a framework of government equally conducive to the welfare and prosperity of all the States, both Northern and Southern.

Resolved, That this Convention does explicitly declare, as the sense of the American people, that after four years of failure to restore the Union by the experiment of war, during which, under the pretense of military necessity or war power higher than the Constitution, the Constitution itself has been disregarded in every part, and public liberty and private right alike trodden down, and the material prosperity of the country essentially impaired, justice, humanity, liberty and the public welfare demand that immediate efforts be made for a cessation of hostilities with a view to an ultimate convention of the States, or other peaceable means, to the end that at the earliest practicable moment peace may be restored on the basis of the Federal Union of the States.

Resolved, That the direct interference of the military authorities of the United States in the recent elections held in Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri and Delaware, was a shameful violation of the Constitution, and a repetition of such acts in the approaching election will be held as retributionary, and resisted with all the means and power under our control.

Resolved, That the aim and object of the Democratic party is to preserve the Federal Union and the rights of the States unimpaired, and they hereby declare that they consider that the administrative usurpation of extraordinary and dangerous powers not granted by the Constitution, the subversion of the civil by military law in States not in insurrection, the arbitrary military arrest, imprisonment, trial and sentence of American citizens in States, where civil law exists in full force. The suppression of freedom of speech and of the press, the denial of the right of asylum, the open and avowed disregard of State rights, the employment of unusual test oaths, and the interference with and denial of the right of the people to bear arms in their defense; is calculated to prevent a restoration of the Union and the perpetuation of the Government deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed.

Resolved, That the shameful disregard of the Administration to its duty in respect to our fellow citizens who now are, and long have been, prisoners of war in a suffering condition, deserves the severest reprobation on the score alike of public policy and common humanity.

Resolved, That the sympathy of the Democratic party is heartily and earnestly extended to the soldiery of our army and sailors of our navy who are and have been in the field and on the sea, under the flag of their country, and in the event of its attaining power, they will receive all the care, protection and regard that the brave soldiers and sailors of the republic have so nobly earned.

The Difference in the Character of of the two Men.

The following extracts from the acceptances of the Presidential nomination by LINCOLN and McCLELLAN, aptly illustrate the difference in the character of the two men. Read them:

LINCOLN.

[From the official report, telegraphed from Washington.]

I have not permitted myself, gentlemen, to conclude that I am the best man in the country, but I am reminded in this connection of the story of an old Dutch farmer who remarked to a companion once that it was not best to swap horses when crossing a stream.

[The prolonged laughter which followed this characteristic remark should have been heard. It was unanimous.]

McCLELLAN.

[From the official report, telegraphed from New York.]

I realize the weight of the responsibility to be borne, should the people ratify your choice. Conscious of my own weakness, I can only seek fervently the guidance of the Ruler of the Universe, and, relying on His all-powerful aid, do my best to restore Union and peace to a suffering people, and to establish and guard their liberties and rights.

FOREIGN NEWS.

From New York.

NEW YORK, November 2.—The Tribune's correspondent on the left of the Army of the Potomac under date of the 30th, has the following:

The new angle of a mile and a half west and a mile and a half south west, acquired on our left by the recent strategic demonstration, is being strongly fortified, and I understand that the army line is to be immediately pushed out to the left two or three miles beyond its present terminus. The way that this important extension of our fortified line came to be so easily and cheaply made, was by the enemy's weakening their line of battle at this point, to intercept what they took to be a flank movement around their extreme right; but while they were massing against the 2d and 5th corps, on our extreme left, the 9th corps shoved in at this point and took a line of their works, which was reserved and now forms our new left angle.

Probably not during the war has so important an extension of a fortified line been made with so little fighting. It is true that there was considerable marching and countermarching in the operation, but that was a mere frolic for the boys, who had been confined so long in camp, and this, like every other movement recently made on either side, has demonstrated the growing weakness of the rebel army. In wildly striving to defend themselves at a distance, they have allowed another fatal and irreparable approach to be made near a vital point. Their consternation along the entire line on Thursday, is represented by deserters and our own escaped prisoners as unprecedented.

The Tribune's Washington special says of the soldiers' election fraud: Ferry and Donahue have been sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The Secretary of War has approved the sentence, and it will be carried out immediately, but the New York prisons will not be selected. Marvin Jones, Col. North's chief assistant, confined with him at the Old Capitol, has made a full confession of his complicity in forging votes, and that the business has been carried on at Col. North's agency much more extensive than anything done at Baltimore. It is understood that Gov. Seymour's special commissioners are staggered by this complete implication of Col. North in the frauds. The end is not reached.

Messrs. Parker, Allen and Kelly were again present at the military court to-day, and every facility was extended them to prepare the defense of Col. North, which they improved. This occupied the attention of the court until it adjourned. They expect to resume the examination of the papers seized and the consideration of the case to-morrow, but it is not expected that they will be prepared to put Col. North on trial before Friday or Saturday. Newcomb, who was relieved, was in court this morning to testify. Among the papers seized at the New York State Agency is an application from New York for a place in Col. North's office as clerk. He writes: "I have been discharged by the Sanitary Commission for disloyalty." His discrimination was rewarded by Col. North, and he was immediately employed at $10 a month more than he received from the Commission.

The Tipps' special says a careful examination of the facts and papers in the case has convinced Judge Parker and his associates that the matter is a much more serious one than they expected or anticipated prior to their arrival, and it assumes with them the proportions of a grave crime against the purity of the ballot box and the rights of electors.

The case of Col. North and his conspirators was to-day again adjourned till to-morrow, to enable him and his advisers to prepare for his defense. All his assumed carelessness is gone, and he is exerting himself seriously to clear himself from the accumulated evidence.

Hon. Ransom H. Gillett has been retained as counsel for North, who will be defended with all the zeal and ability that can be brought to bear in his behalf.

The steamer Persia, from Liverpool, is coming up the bay.

The Wilmington Journal of the 22d says:

Great preparations are making here for the defenses of the place, and all non-combatants are required to leave.

The Charleston Mercury of the 22d says: A movement is on foot in this vicinity to wrench Atlanta from Sherman, and intimates that it will be done with a column of from 6,000 to 10,000 men.
