No. 669.

An Ordinance to regulate the Levee dues and wharfage on ships and vessels arriving from sea, and on steamboats, flatboats, etc., arriving at the port of New Orleans:

Article 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of New Orleans, That from and after the 1st of January, 1853, the Levee or Wharfage dues on ships, and other decked vessels, and steamships, arriving from sea, shall be fixed as follows: On all vessels of 1000 tons and under, twenty cents per ton; and excess of tonnage over 1000 tons, fifteen cents per ton. On all steamships navigating the Gulf of Mexico or the ocean, fifteen cents per ton.

Art. 2. Be it further ordained, That from and after the 1st of January, 1853, the Levee dues on all steamboats which shall moor or land in any part of the port of New Orleans, shall be fixed as follows: Ten cents per ton, if in port not over five days; and five dollars per day after said five days shall have expired. Provided that boats arriving and departing more than once in each week shall pay only seven cents per ton each trip.

Art. 3. Be it further ordained, That from and after the 1st of January, 1853, the Levee dues on flatboats, barges, etc., fully or in part laden with produce, materials, or merchandise of any kind, shall be as follows: Flatboats, not measuring more than eighty feet, eight dollars; eighty to one hundred feet, ten dollars; one hundred feet and over, thirteen dollars. On each barge, measuring less than seventy feet, and not over twenty tons, eight dollars. On each steamboat hull, used as a barge, twenty-five dollars. On each scow, or coasting pirogue, two dollars.

Art. 4. Be it further ordained, That so much of all existing ordinances as are inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and are hereby repealed.

SAM'S OYSTER SALOON.—The finest and most recherche Saloon in the city. A saloon greatly superior to any other establishment of the kind in the South, is just opened at 121 NEW ORLEANS, CHARLES STREET.
Mr. Weir, better known as "SAM," has been connected with the business in this city for the last 10 years, and has commenced with Mr. Hoicomb, when he established the Saloon of Saloons in the Bayou City, and is pleasantly associated with him till his death, and has conducted all the business ever since. With such experience, he feels confident in his intention to serve the public faithfully with the best in the line. "Sam" will cater to the wants of the epicure in every variety of oysters, have just been received in fine order, and will be served up in every style of the art, with the CHOICEST LIQUORS that can be procured. SEA-TURTLE, will appear in its season, and other delicacies, have just been received in the very best Conks. The LARDER will always be supplied with the CHOICEST FISH AND GAME, and the Proprietor will spare no expense or pains in the establishment, in short, no expense or trouble will be spared to render this Saloon worthy the patronage of all those who appreciate good eating.

STRONGS.—The undersigned respectfully announces to the public that he has opened a HOUSE under the above name, adjoining the St. Charles Theatre, in style and uniformity by everything to come has been spared to make it the most recherche house of the kind now in St. Charles street. With good rooms and good fare, and with the attention to business which has ever been the public patronage so liberally bestowed on this establishment at the Crescent. He will be always glad to see his old friends and the public generally. There will be a good LUNCH every morning.
HENRY STRONG, Proprietor.
