☞ Comfort for the Aged.—The Montreal Transcript, one of the best papers in Canada, speaking of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, June 19, 1858, says: "We believe it to be generally recognized as a useful medicine by medical men, and we can state with which we are more intimately acquainted—that of an old gentleman at least eighty years of age, residing a few miles from this city, and who is troubled at times with an asthmatical complaint, the most decided relief is obtained whenever he makes use of the Balsam; this at the advanced period of life which he has arrived at, may be considered an unanswerable proof of its virtues."

From the Boston Daily Bee.

"From some little experience of our own, we testify to the superiority of the Balsam of Wild Cherry, and we have been repeatedly assured by quite a number of our personal friends who have used it with success in pulmonary complaints, the tisic, asthma, night-sweats, &c. that they regard it as one of the most beneficent remedial agents of the time." Seth W. Fowle, Druggist, 138 Washington-st. Boston, Mass. is the sole proprietor of the original receipt for the manufacture of the genuine medicine, and supplies both at wholesale and retail, and of whom agencies can be obtained.

Look out for imitations and counterfeits. Remember the original and only genuine article always bears the written signature of I. BUTTS upon the outside wrapper.

For sale by A. B. & D. Sands, 100 Fulton-st.; also, at the Astor and Irving House Drug Stores, Broadway; at Haviland, Keese & Co. Maiden-lane; at William Rogers, Cortlandt-st.; and by the Druggists generally throughout the United States and Canada.

☞ We are Wonderfully Made!—When it is known that each human being throws out several pounds of the refuse of animal matter every day, through the pores of the skin, the condition under which these functions are placed, become subjects for serious consideration. The best articles suited to impart health and vigor to the whole outward system, are Bogle's Hyperion Fluid for the hair,—Hebeiolus for removing tan and eruptions of the skin,—and "Amole," for shaving. This last is a most delicious article, and leaves the face as smooth as a piece of satin, and all of them operate to purify the skin, and to protect it against the influences of change to the climate.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at A. B. & D. SANDS'S, 100 Fulton-st. and of the proprietor, Wm. Bogle, Boston.

The tract commences at about 25 miles above the flourishing towns of Vernon and Fremont, and is said to comprise, at its upper extremity, the best location on the river for a town, at the head of steam navigation. It commands an extensive mining region, and the land is admirably suited for agricultural purposes. It is known as the Jimento Grant. The title is indisputable, having been transferred by the original grantees (native Californians) to the present proprietors before the Mexican War. Upon it is a rancheria of Bute Indians, who have been and may still be advantageously employed in collecting gold and tilling the land. The tract is capable of sub-division into farms, which would sell readily to emigrants, as its location is in that section of California which is now becoming most rapidly settled. The great overland emigration trail from the Eastern States runs on the opposite bank of the river, and the Oregon trail runs through the tract. For further particulars apply to WARD & PRICE,

NOW READY,
THE
"THE AMERICAN MONTE CHRISTO,"
WILFRED MONTRESSER.
OR
THE SECRET ORDER OF SEVEN.
Complete in 2 vols. Price $1

"FROM THE TITLE OF 'SECRET ORDER OF SEVEN,' we were led to suppose we had got hold of some romance of the ancient world; but the work before us is a genuine American novel, written with much power, and truth to nature. It possesses this great advantage over all other local romances, that of a tolerably large portion of the portraits of vulgar life, which has been lavished almost without an exception, upon those who in period to the boundary line between the Old World and the New, have spent all home in the higher and lower grounds of the human heart. There are scenes in this work fully equal to anything in 'Oliver Twist' or 'St. Giles and St. James.' We more particularly allude to the scene where Hooker murders Tracy; there is a quiet humor about it which pleases from a perusal of that of 'Nancy Sykes.' The character of Mr. Owen Tracy is faithfully drawn. Considering the number of Martyrs, the book is worthy of a place in Mr. Graham's & Mr. Neal's Home Library.
