LEGAL NOTICES.

SUPREME COURT.—In the matter of the application of the Mayor Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York relative to the opening of Lexington-avenue, from 41st st. to 86th st in the Nineteenth Ward of said City. The commissioners, Commissioners of Estimate and Assessment in the above entitled matter, appointed by a rule of the Supreme Court, entered on the 23d day of March, 1850, give notice, pursuant to the requirements of an Act of the Legislature of the People of the State of New-York, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled an Act relative to the Collection of Assessments and Taxes in the City and County of New-York, and for other purposes, passed May 14, 1840," passed May 7, 1841, to the owner or owners, occupant or occupants of all houses, and improved or unimproved lands affected thereby, that they have completed their estimate and assessment; and that all persons whose interests are affected thereby, and who may be opposed to the same, are requested to present their objections in writing to Nicholas C. Evans, Comptroller of said Commissioners, at his house, No. 115 Franklin st, the Chambers of said Commissioners, within thirty days from the date of this Notice. And that the limits embraced by the assessment are as follows, that is to say: All those lots, pieces or parcels of land, between the northerly line or side of 41st st. and the southerly line or side of 86th st. and the easterly and westerly lines or sides of Lexington avenue—excepting therefrom, all those streets or parts of streets within said limits, which have already been opened. And also, all the lots, pieces or parcels of land, lying on both sides of said Lexington-avenue, bounded on the north by the southerly line or side of 86th st. and the south by the northerly line or side of 41st st. the east by the center line between the Third avenue and the said Lexington-avenue, and on the west by the center line between the Fourth avenue and the said Lexington-avenue, and comprising all the lots or pieces of land within those limits, fronting on the said Lexington avenue, and the intersecting streets—excepting therefrom, those streets or parts of streets which have already been opened. And also, all the lots, pieces or parcels of land, situate on the easterly side of said Lexington-avenue and the intersecting streets, between the northerly line or side of 41st st. and the southerly line or side of 42d st. and extending easterly about one hundred feet, be the same more or less from the easterly line or side of said Lexington-avenue. And also, all the lots, pieces or parcels of land, situate on the westerly line or side of said Lexington-avenue and the intersecting streets, between the northerly line or side of 41st st. and the southerly line or side of 42d st. and extending westerly from said westerly line or side of said Lexington-avenue, about one hundred feet, be the same more or less. And the said Commissioners further give notice, that their report in the above matter, will be made and presented to the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, at a Special Term of the said Court, to be held at the City Hall of the City of New-York, on Saturday, the 1st day of February, 1851, at the opening of the Court on that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard. Dated New-York, November 18, 1850. NICHOLAS C. EVERETT, WILLIAM DODGE, HENRY SEEKMAN, Commissioners. n18 (F)
