The City and Vicinity

All the news all the time in THE GAZETTE-TIMES, 50c per month.

R. J. Smith, the jeweler, has returned from Portland where he had been to select his stock of holiday goods.

B. W. Moore, a Linn county farmer, is missing. He started for Portland by boat on Nov. 21, taking four horses for sale. Moore is 70 years age, and no word has been heard from him.

This afternoon Rev. Henry A. Gabriel left for Beaverton intending to return next Monday morning. Meanwhile Rev. Father Dimier will remain in Corvallis and hold the usual services next Sunday.

The Cauthorn Hall Club will give Coach Metzger and the O.A.C. team a reception, testimonial, or something of that sort, next Saturday evening. The Cauthorn Hall bunch never does anything by halves, so the affair is certain to be a jolly one.

Interest in the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight is more than casual among some of the lovers of the "manly art" here. The G.-T. has it on reliable authority that Manager Lowe, of the Independent Telephone Co., has just bet Jack Milne five to one that Johnson will beat Jeffries before the tenth round. Mr. Lowe is not exactly in love with the "niggah," but as an old Tennessean with first-hand knowledge of the colored man's prowess he has confidence that in Johnson the honorable Mr. Jeffries will meet his Waterloo, and not his watermelon.

A stranger said to answer to the name "Tennessee" Wyatt will appear before Judge Denman tomorrow at 9 o'clock on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The story is that he has done some tall talking about what he would do to Chief Wells, and showed some young fellows an old blunderbuss with which expected to do his work. So Wells picked him up. It is thought that this is the fellow who recently brought a buggy full of Albany booze to Corvallis.

The Christian church people, who have made such handsome improvements in their property the past year, are planning to have a gloriously good time at the church next Sunday. They will re-dedicate the church and themselves to the Great Cause and will have the assistance of most of the ministers at one of the services. The Christian church property is now commodious, and attractive in appearance, a real credit to the city. Mr. Hubbell and his congregation have done a great and acceptable work.

Wallace, star tackle on the O. A. C. team the past season, has been elected captain of team for next year. This is the young man's Senior year at O. A. A. but he expects to return next year for special work, hence acquiesced in the will of his team mates. Wallace has played two years and made an enviable record. Last year he played at guard and was a success. At tackle this year he loomed up in proper shape and because of his headiness and the general favor of his mates he was given the position of honor. Wallace will make good.

The Washington, D. C., Times of Nov. 20 contains pleasant mention of Miss Edna James Sheehy, who is pleasantly remembered here as a former instructor in music at O. A. C. Miss Sheehy has been selected as soprano for the Washington Symphony Orchestra, and at a recent concert demonstrated her ability to satisfy her friends and critics, her success in her first number bringing her out in Ethelbert Nevin's charming folk-song, "Mighty Lak a Rose." Miss Sheehy was greatly appreciated while here and friends are ever pleased to read pleasant words of her.

A telegram has been received from Rev. Harry E. Mason, of Dayton, Wash., announcing the fact that he will be here next Sunday to supply the pulpit at the First Congregational church, both morning and evening. Rev. Mason has just resigned his pastorate at Dayton and comes to look over the field and advantages here. He is spoken of by fellow pastors as being a man of more than ordinary ability as a speaker, and of commanding appearance, and it is desired that he be greeted by a large congregation at both services.

One of the bright spots in this seasons theatrical calendar will be the production of Samuel E. Rokk's brilliant musical extravaganza "The Land of Nod," which will appear at the opera house next Thursday, December 9th. It is a fairy story set to music. It's heroine, a little girl known as "Bonnie," falls asleep in the garden of her own home and dreams that she has been transported to Nod, where she meets with many surprising and amusing adventures. The cast to be seen here is practically the same as presented the piece on Broadway. There is an unusually large chorus, which is said to include some stunning young women who can sing and dance.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor

Beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman, writes Mrs. O. Rhinevaut, of Vestal Center, N. Y., "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and jubilant health. It quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting dizzy spells; soon builds up the weak, ailing and sickly. Try them. 50 cents at all druggists.
