A prepayment of any sum less than the full rate is not allowable.

Newspapers sent from the United States must be prepaid two cents each, and pamphlets and magazines one cent in advance or they will be charged double. The United States postage on all foreign packets leaving to be paid at the point of delivery. Our English packets cross the Continent by the United States and Prussian line, the whole postage, United States and foreign, to be prepaid.

Unpaid letters and newspapers and magazines prepaid as above, for any of the following countries, may also be sent by the Bremen line viz:

Austria,	Italy and eastern towns of,
Belgium,	Norway,
Constantinople,	Prussia, or Cronstadt,
Denmark,	Russia,
Greece,	Sardinia,
	Switzerland.

The exact rates to these countries so soon as ascertained will be given in the Herald, and additional payment thus avoided to the public.

All letters to and from foreign countries, the British North American Provinces excepted, are to be charged with single rate of postage, if not exceeding the weight of half an ounce; double rate, if exceeding half an ounce, but not exceeding an ounce; quadruple rate, if exceeding an ounce but not exceeding two ounces; and so on, charging two rates for every ounce or fractional part of an ounce over the first ounce.

NOTE—The "Table of Postages to Foreign Countries" of May 24, 1858, remains unchanged, except in regard to Bremen and the books or pamphlets and magazines to all foreign countries, with the exception of Great Britain, the British North American Provinces and the west coast of South America, by whatever line, is now one cent an ounce instead of two cents.
