LIFE ASSURANCE. — NATIONAL LOAN FUND LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF LONDON.—General Agent's Office, 71 Wall-st. New-York, 1st May, 1851. Capital $2,500,000, and Surplus $412,271.
The withdrawal table of the Society affords to the Assured who may take out their policies under these tables the greatest possible present and prospective advantages, that can be conferred by Life Assurance. Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad.
$350,000 SEVEN PER CENT. MORTGAGE BONDS.—Sealed proposals will be received by the subscribers until Saturday, the 31st day of May, instant, for THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS of the first and only Mortgage Bonds of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad Company, bearing seven per cent per annum interest, and redeemable at the Merchants' Bank, in the City of New-York, on the 1st of August, 1869.
These Bonds are in sums of $1,000 each, with Coupons attached, payable at the Merchants' Bank, in the City of New-York, on the 1st of each February and August.
These Bonds are issued under authority of special acts of the Legislatures of Virginia and North Carolina, and are secured by a mortgage executed to John I. Palmer, Esq., of the City of New-York, in trust for the Bondholders.
This mortgage covers the entire line of the Road from Norfolk, Virginia, to South Gaston on the Roanoke river in North-Carolina, a distance of 90 miles, which will have cost, when completed, including the original outlay, over $1,500,000—and the trustee is empowered, in case of sixty days default in the payment of interest or principal of the bonds to take possession of, use and sell the whole or any part of the same, including the franchises, income and property of the Company of every description, now acquired or hereafter to be acquired.
The whole amount of the Bonds authorised to be issued is four hundred thousand dollars, of which the amount now offered for sale has been issued by the Company in payment principally for the heavy T rails with which the Company is now relaying their track.
This heavy T rail for the whole distance, 90 miles, is now on hand—50 miles are laid and in operation—and the company is actively engaged in laying down the remainder so as to complete the line to Weldon, 80 miles, in July of the present year, and to South Gaston, 90 miles, by the close of the year.
The Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad forms part of the Great Southern Route from New-York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore to New-Orleans, in connection with the line of Steamers now running from Baltimore to Norfolk.
A line of Steamers is now running from Philadelphia to Norfolk.
Two lines of Steamers are now being built to run from New-York to Norfolk, to commence running early in July next. One of these lines is to be of the first class of passenger steamers, 1,100 tuns burden, and the other a line of propellers.
The connections of this Road are such as to secure for it an ample amount of business; it unites at Weldon with the Railroad to Wilmington, 160 miles in length, which has just been re-laid with a heavy T rail; it unites at South Gaston with the Railroad to Raleigh, 85 miles long, which is also about to be re-laid with a heavy T rail.
At South Gaston it will receive the immense production of the extensive and fertile valley of the Roanoke, which are brought to that point by the Roanoke Navigation Company, who have expended over four hundred thousand dollars in improving the navigation of the Roanoke and its tributaries.
The harbor of Norfolk and Portsmouth is well known to be one of the best in the United States, and will thus be connected by the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and its connecting lines, with an ample extent of territory, which will ensure to the road an abundant business.
A map exhibiting these connections, showing also other lines now in rapid course of construction, by which a continuous line of railway will soon be extended from Norfolk to Mobile and New-Orleans on the South, and to the Valley of the Mississippi at Memphis on the West, may be obtained of the undersigned.
An "Exhibit," giving a full account of the road and its affairs, copies of the bond and mortgage, and the legal opinions of Judge John Y. Mason, of Virginia, &c accompanies the map, and may be obtained upon application to John I. Palmer, Esq., at the Merchants' Bank, or to Messrs Winslow, Lanier & Co., by mail or otherwise, who will furnish any further information which may be desired.
It is confidently believed that the Bonds now offered for sale afford one of the safest and most desirable securities in the market.
THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS are now offered for sale.
The entire amount offered will be disposed of absolutely and without reserve to the highest bidder.
Sealed proposals for any amount not less than $1,000 will be received at the office of Messrs. Winslow, Lanier & Co until 3 o'clock on the thirty first day of May, 1851.
Proposals to be addressed to WINSLOW, LANIER & CO., 52 WALL-ST., NEW-YORK, and endorsed "Proposals for S. & R. R. Bonds."
Parties whose bids are accepted will be required to pay twenty per cent upon the amount awarded to them immediately upon being notified of the acceptance of their bids, and the remainder in equal amounts on the first days of July, August, September and October next; but any party will be at liberty to pay in full at once. Interest will commence from the day of payment.
