PATENT COPPER PADDLE CO.

THE attention of the public is respectfully invited to this new and important operation. The subject for which it is intended is to prevent persons from being for any length of time, without bathing, any sensation of fatigue or discomfort in consequence of the weight of any thing they may carry on their backs. The weight of any thing can not be carried by persons who have to go long distances, without fatigue, if a Paddle is used, and among those who have been consulted it has met an warmest approbation of the first class of their friends, and several of similar nature and other have been given for some considerable length of time, and have proved successful in operation. By employing the Copper Paddle, persons who have to labor in the sun, or in cold of winter, or in the rain, or to make suitable preparation for inclement weather, can be the use of this machine, perhaps from for weeks in a perfectly uninjurious state, allowing all to go upon their business.

The undersigned is secure of the patent for Marion county of Indiana, and will open a shop in this place. It can be used in the house with all the least inconvenience, and if it does not give satisfaction, no charges will be made. This apparatus can be seen and will be sold by the undersigned, in the office of Calvin Fletcher, at his old stand, sign of the Eagle, Washington street, Indianapolis.

J. L. SPROTCHER.

N. B. The undersigned has two houses and carriages, and employed and careful hands in his employ; so that, if it should be necessary to be absent on professional duty, that all business of a similar character, will be attended to in a good style, and as punctually, as though he himself was there. The undersigned would state that when professionally absent, no person will take the Paddle, he wishes his friends and the public to understand, that they can be attended to by those in his employ, to their satisfaction. Ready made coffins always on hand. 2d door south of the office. 21tf

LEONARD SCOTT & Co.'S LIST OF FOREIGN PERIODICALS.

The London Quarterly Review,
The Edinburgh Review,
The Westminster Review,
The North British Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

THE above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British Steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact facsimile of the Edinburgh edition.

The prices of the Reprints are less than one-third of those of the foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the American over the English reader.

TERMS: PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN ADVANCE.

For any one of the four Reviews,	3,00 per annum.
For any two, do.	5,00 "
For any three, do.	7,00 "
For all four of the Reviews,	8,00 "
For Blackwood's Magazine,	3,00 "
For Blackwood and the four Reviews,	10,00 "

Remittances and Communications must be made, in all cases, without expense to the Publishers. The former may always be done through a Postmaster, by handing him the amount to be remitted, taking his receipt, and forwarding the receipt by mail, postpaid; or the money may be enclosed in a letter, post-paid, directed to the publishers.

 All communications should be addressed (post-paid) to
