[illegible] Celebrated Letter to William H. Seward in 1854.

The following is published in the New York [illegible] as the identical letter which Greeley wrote to Seward in 1854:

New York, November 3, 1854.

To the Hon. William H. Seward—Sir: I desire [illegible] to you that the firm of Seward, Weed & [Greeley] is from this day dissolved by the withdrawal of the junior member of the firm.

[illegible] I edited the Jeffersonian, at Albany, you and your friends acknowledged the effect of my [labors] in the cause, in elevating you to the office [of] Governor and United States Senator. For my [labors] in sustaining you I only received ten dollars [a week] to support my wife, self and child.

[illegible] you was Governor of this State, with great [patronage] in your hands, no office of any position [illegible] me was ever made. When General Harrison was elected President, you had full control of the federal patronage in this State, and I received [no] consideration at your hands. When General Taylor was elected President, you also had the [principal] direction of the federal patronage, and, [in] connection with Mr. Weed, you made Hugh [Maxwell] Collector of this port, a man who was [never] admitted to the confidence of the Whig party. [illegible] of [illegible] men who had faithfully adhered to Henry Clay and to you, such men as Zeno [illegible] King, an outcast from Nova Scotia, was appointed surveyor of the port; David A. Bokee was [appointed] [illegible]; William V. Brady, postmaster; [illegible] H. Leroy, naval agent; Hiram Fuller, [illegible]; John Young, sub-treasurer, [illegible] was selected for United States Marshal [illegible] know I cannot share; and yet, while [illegible] I had lost every dollar that I possessed [illegible] the Galway line of steam packets, to [illegible] Ireland and yourself, no offer was made [illegible] or place.

[illegible] it was understood by my friends [that I should] be the candidate of our party for [Governor], and your consent was given; but instead [of supporting] me, you and your friends nominated [illegible] and little villain Raymond for Lieutenant [Governor], who was of no advantage to our [party], and a man whom to know is to detest.

[illegible] all the positions I have labored to place you, [illegible] and the honors have been divided [between] yourself and Weed.

[illegible] have now to say that any support you may [hereafter] receive from me will be because it is necessary for the party, but not from personal considerations. Yours, etc.,

HORACE GREELEY.

[REPLY] LETTERS FROM THE CHAMPIONS.

To the Editor of the Times—Sir: Ever since the appearance in your paper of May 7, of the [letter] of Tom Sayers, I have endeavored, by [every] means in my power, to ascertain from him [in an] official way, guaranteed by the presence [of] the editor of Bell's Life, whether he intends to [abide] by the date recently fixed for us by that [gentleman] for the champion's belt and stakes. The [editor] of Bell's Life, in view of the sentiments of [that] letter, acknowledged the propriety of such [a] question on my part, and also of such proposed [action] on the part of Sayers, and did what he [could] by letters and telegraph dispatches to get [him] to answer. Until Saturday, however, [it was] impossible for him to ascertain, with certainty, even in what part of England Sayers then [was], and finally, through the failure of such efforts, [he had] information on Sunday from the editor [illegible], that he would not interfere farther in [the matter].

[illegible] as I am left as it were "all at sea," [illegible] was yesterday stated in Bell's Life that [illegible] of bringing the matter to arbitration [illegible] with Sayers, I will state what [illegible] to do.

[I am] willing, first of all, to accept of the proposition made by a writer in Bell's Life, that [Sayers] and I should have "a belt apiece," to [be] got up by public subscription, provided that [the] champion's belt remain in the hands of [the] editor of Bell's Life, to be fought for again, [illegible] best man to take it. If that be not agreed [to], I will accept the proposition put forth in [illegible], viz: to divide the belt—I to take one half, [and] Sayers to keep the other half. I will then [open] a subscription to provide a new half to his, [and] in this way I think good feeling may be preserved on both sides.

[If neither] of these propositions (proceeding, as [they] do, from English sources) are allowed me, [then I] shall claim that Sayers meet me on neutral [ground], where our late battle may be properly [decided]. Though I am not yet quite ready to [become] a member of the Peace Society, I will [willingly] vary my propositions somewhat to suit [him].

[As] the belt may be said to be equally owned by [both] of us, I will agree to run him a footrace from [five] yards to five miles for the stakes and belt, or I [will] wrestle with him for the belt, or I will row him [illegible], I will swim a mile with him for the [belt], or I will take hold of hands and jump from a [house]top with him for the belt. If all these offers [be] not accepted, I will agree in two months to be ready [to] fight the four best men that can be produced in [England], beginning with Sayers, at intervals of [thirty] days apart, for the belt. I was told, if I [beat] him, I could have it; I would rather fight for it [than] anything else; but I am willing, under the [present] state of public feeling to accept of half of [it]. If that be denied me, and through the exceptionable action of the British authorities I be denied the privilege of another meeting, I shall have [no] alternative but to go home, refusing all English [testimonials] and subscriptions, and shall hereafter [feel] at liberty—nay, justified by all the equities of [the] late transaction—to sign myself the "Champion [of] the World."

I remain, sir, your obedient servant,

JOHN C. HEENAN.

[illegible] Hotel, Snowhill, London, May 14.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir—In answer to Mr. Heenan's letter, which appears in the Times of [this] day, I beg, first, to observe that I have not been hiding myself as he would insinuate. I called, [with] my backer, at the office of Bell's Life in London on Tuesday, the 8th of May. I told him that my backer and I were going out of town until Saturday. I visited Tunbridge on Wednesday, Maidstone on Thursday, Tonbridge and Hastings on Friday, and Brighton on Saturday. My movements were well known, and a letter or telegram addressed to "Tom Sayers," or "The Champion of England," would have found me at either of these places, but none came to hand.

The ridiculous suggestion, put forward by Mr. Heenan, of mutilating the belt, I laugh to scorn, and could afford to treat it with the contempt it merits, but that some good friends of mine—of the Peace Society—have, innocently enough, patronized the notion.

The belt, sir, I have fought hard to obtain—striving for that prize I have within the last three years defeated some of the best men of my country—and without intending to cast the slightest slur on my gallant opponent, I say that no American citizen, nor foreigner from any other land, however flowery and smooth, shall bear it, or the buckle of it, from Old England while my arm and heart are capable of defending it. I am as ready for Mr. Heenan to fight again, and repudiate with indignation the insinuation that I am not. In a very short time the Champion's belt will be mine by indefeasible right; and even if Mr. Heenan had defeated me it would not be his. He would have to do as I have done—meet every aspirant to the honor of wearing it for three years before he would become the lawful possessor of the trophy.

What, then, becomes of the assertion made in Mr. Heenan's letter, that the belt is equally owned by both of us? There is no such equality; but I will do him the justice he appears desirous of denying me, by admitting his equality in valor.

To run, swim, or wrestle for the belt or the prize ring is a challenge so eminently absurd that one can hardly imagine it emanates from a sane man, and the evidence of abberation of mind is greatly strengthened by the proposal to jump off a house top. The same proposition was once made by a lunatic who met his medical attendant alone on the roof of the asylum. "Let us," said the mad patient, seizing the doctor with a firm grasp, "jump down!" but the medical man, with great presence of mind, replied, "Any, anybody could jump down, let us go into the street and jump up." Like Teddy the Tiler, I know something of the roofs of houses, and their foundations also, and while I unquestionably admit that Heenan is a "brick," I hope always to be able to say with truth, as I do now, that I am a bricklayer. The offer to fight four men, at intervals of 30 days, savors of bounce, and is unworthy of John Heenan. He should remember that it might take him the first month to vanquish

TOM SAYERS.

Our Country Disgraced in Sicily.—Letters from Italy, received by the Arabia, report that Mr. Henry H. Barstow, the American Consul at Palermo, has been guilty of an act of perfidy which will forever brand him with infamy. This misrepresentative of a land of liberty was instrumental in betraying Father Ottavio Lanza, one of the noblest of men and purest of patriots, into the hands of the agents of the vilest and most tyrannical despotism on the globe. The accounts state that on the 11th of April Palermo was startled with the report of the arrest of Father Lanza, by American intervention, on board of a merchant vessel, bearing the "stripes and stars," and that the act was committed by the agency of Mr. Barstow, the American Consul. The diplomatic corps of Palermo have refused to hold any further communication with the traitor against humanity—this aider and abetter of the despotism of the second Bomba, who thus prostitutes his official position. If one-quarter part of the stories reported about this Barstow are true, he should at once be dismissed from the service of a free republic, and suffer the official as well as the social disgrace awarded to renegades. # VALUABLE REMEDIES.

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

THE ONLY DISCOVERY WORTHY OF ANY CONFIDENCE FOR RESTORING The Bald and Gray!

Many, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his Restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. Read the following:

Bath, Maine, April 18, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: The letter I wrote you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous inquiries touching the facts in the case.

The inquiries are—first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order, and of a natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for forty years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is, that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continued to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old, and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful.

I gave it to my friends, and thereby induced them to try it; many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty, as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who inquire of me of my unshaken opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

Aaron's Run, Ky., Nov. 30, 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to all the world the wonderful, as well as the unexpected, result I have experienced from using ONE bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of restorative extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will, therefore, take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity for it. Respectfully yours,

Rev. S. ALLEN BROCK.

P. S. This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited; but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert it, if you wish. If not, destroy it, and say nothing. Yours, etc., Rev. S. A. B.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium and small. The small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle. The medium bottle holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, and retails for two dollars per bottle. The large holds a quart, forty per cent. more in proportion, and retails for three dollars a bottle. O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and 11 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.; and sold by all good druggists and fancy goods dealers.

Dr. Hoofland's

GERMAN BITTERS,

—And—

Dr. Hoofland's

BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

The great standard medicines of the present age have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases, and the people have pronounced them worthy.

LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, DEBILITY OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are speedily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The BALSAMIC CORDIAL has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant. It will cure, without fail, the most severe and long-standing COUGH, COLD OR HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, INFLUENZA, CROUP, PNEUMONIA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of CONFIRMED CONSUMPTION!

A few doses will also at once check and cure the most severe DIARRHEA proceeding from Cold in the Bowels.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON & Co., No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle. The signature of C. M. Jackson will be on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

In the Almanac published annually by the proprietors, called EVERYBODY'S ALMANAC you will find testimony and commendatory notices from all parts of the country. These Almanacs are given away by all our agents.

J. WRIGHT & CO., Agents,
21 and 151 Chartres street.

Mothers.

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of

DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

and why? because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sensibilities. For this reason it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for Children Teething, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind-Cold in the Head and Croup, also for Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation, Regulating the Bowels, and Relieving Pain. It has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsion or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which all other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions accompany each bottle. Prepared only by

CHURCH & DUPONT,
No. 409 Broadway, New York.

Blood Food.

Healthy Human Blood upon being ANALYZED, always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives, of course, the True Standard. Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, etc., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies and you are made well. The Blood Food is founded upon this Theory—hence its astonishing success. There are adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, or any affection whatever of the Throat or Lungs inducing Consumption, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all Chronic Complaints arising from Over-Use, General Debility, and Nervous Prostration. No. 2, for Liver Complaints. No. 3, for Dyspepsia. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by drops, and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for Female Irregularities, Hysteria, Weaknesses, etc. See special directions for this. For Salt Rheum, Eruptions, Scrofulous, Kidney and Bladder Complaints, take No. 5. In all cases the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the Blood Food $1 per bottle.
