MAZE GARDEN—Situated on 5th av., opposite the entrance to the Croton Reservoir, and in the vicinity of the Crystal Palace.

The Garden occupies two acres of ground, covered with a large growth of deciduous and evergreen trees and shrubs, adorned with Arbors, Fountains, and Vases, intersected by serpentine walks, and surrounded by grassy slopes—effectively combining the beauties of Nature and art. In the main building upon the premises are two fine Refreshment Saloons, commodious Piazzas, and a LADIES' TOILET-ROOM, with constant attendants.

The most attractive feature of the Garden, is the MAZE, or LABYRINTH. This is constructed after the plan of the celebrated one in Hampton Court, London, formed in the early part of King William's reign, and is the only one in this country. Its intricacies will be a source of great amusement and enjoyment.

The Proprietors would also respectfully inform the citizens of New-York, as well as strangers visiting the city, during the "Exhibition of the Industry of All Nations," that they have completed arrangements which will enable them to serve the best to ladies and gentlemen who may honor the Maze Garden with their patronage. Having made arrangements with Mr. BENJAMIN M. EBRIRE, (the eminent confectioner of the Capitol City—Albany—whose celebrity for the finest Cream, Ices, and Confectionery, is so well known in this country) for some of the best articles from his establishment, they feel assured that, with the prompt attendance of good waiters, they will give satisfaction to their patrons.

CREAM ICES, AND OTHER REFRESHMENTS,

No intoxicating or intoxicating beverages will be served.

To be open EVERY DAY, on and after the first day of July, 1853, from 8 A. M. until sunset.

☞ The Fifth-av., Madison-av., and Twelfth-st. Stages pass on three sides of the Garden, and the Sixth-av. Cars are within two minutes' walk.

ESOTERIC ANTHROPOLOGY—A Comprehensive and Confidential Treatise on the Structure, Functions, Physical Attractions, and Perversions, True and False Physical and Social Conditions, and the most Intimate Relations of Men and Women.

BY T. L. NICHOLS, M. D.

"I recommend this book as containing more of the philosophy of life and health, more of our true relations to God and each other, and more practical rules for the enjoyment of health and recovery from disease, than any other work that I have ever read."

[Mary S. Gove Nichols.

"I look upon it, after a careful perusal, as the most wonderful book ever written. It marks a new era in literature and social life."

[Dr. Stephens, of Forest City.

"This book contains more that is weighty in fact, and sound in philosophy, more that is useful in medical science, and effective in medical art; more that is purifactive and elevative of man, than any one work in volumes few or many that has every graced the Literary Mart of works of civilization."

[Dr. Dodge, of Oswego.

"My judgment is, that this is not only the best book on the subject on which it treats, but the only true and satisfactory one ever written."

[Alonzo Lewis, of Lynn.

"Your Esoteric Anthropology is truly an inspired work, vital in every part, refreshing every nerve and woman's soul that reads it with a most grateful sense of its truth and importance. I know of no work in the world like it, or comparable with it."

[Dr. Farrar, Portland.

THE ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE ALPS, SWITZERLAND, SAVOY AND LOMBARDY—PART II. Published this day, June 25.

ASCENT OF MONT BLANC—Alexander Montgomery, of 17 Spruce-st., has just got out a splendid number of Gilbert & Harvey's magnificent Illustrations of Mont Blanc, the Alps, Savoy, and Lombardy. The part now before us is indeed a gem, containing as it does so much of the picturesque and useful, the beautiful and informative, and the price being, for so rare a work, so low none need debar themselves from enjoying at least a look at land replete with patriotic and soul-stirring interest. To the lover of art, the eye of compilation, and car of discernment, Montgomery's new work is a treasure. [N.Y. Dutchman.

ALEX. MONTGOMERY, No. 17 Spruce-st., New-York, and all Booksellers.

THE ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE OF ART, No. 7. ALEXANDER MONTGOMERY, Publisher, No. Spruce-st.

This number (July) commences the Second Volume, and is more rich in premise than any one that has preceded it. This is saying a great deal. The leading matter is instructive and pleasing. The articles illustrations are confessedly in the highest style of art. Thirty in a fine view of the interior of the great Industrial Exhibition at Dublin, Jangen Castle, the supposed birthplace of the Duke of Wellington, Stores in Ireland, and the works of Jacob Jordaens and Prudier, are exceedingly fine.

There is a new feature in this number which we are happy to notice, because it will afford the humblest laborer the means of elevating his taste by intercourse with the works of the great artists. The Proprietor has determined to incorporate with The Magazine of Art the History and Works of the Painters of All Nations. If this be done, while the already hundred circulation of The Magazine of Art is one earth, we shall be greatly mistaken. No family should be without it.

THE MOST MAGNIFICENT WORK of the class which has ever appeared.

THE ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE OF ART.

The number published on the 1st of July, being the commencement of a new volume, affords an excellent opportunity for new subscribers to commence the work.

The numbers already published of The Illustrated Magazine of Art, have at once placed it at the head of the Magazines, or any publication of the day, and no expense will be spared to render it in every respect worthy of its name—a Magazine of Art. To render this more certainly apparent, the Proprietor has determined to incorporate with The Magazine of Art "The History and Works of the Painters of all Nations." This in lindid Series includes Biographical Notices of various Painters of celebrity, descriptive Catalogues of their performances, and beautifully engraved Copies of their chief works. One of these will appear in each Monthly Part.

The Engravings preparing for future numbers are in the hands of the first Artists of America, England, France and Germany. A series of Tales of the most intense interest and description are in the course of publication, including "The School of Life," written and illustrated by Anna Mary, daughter of William and Mary Howitt, with Engravings, from Drawings made expressly by the Authoress. Also, an historical novel, entitled "The Dean Bridal," illustrative of the most interesting period in the history of the Venetian Republic, by Jonathan Freke Slingsby, of "The Dublin University Magazine" and contributions from William and Mary Howitt, Percy B. St. John, and other writers of distinction in America and Europe.

Each monthly Part contains at least thirty superb Engravings, four of which are printed separately, on superfine plate paper.

The greatest care is taken in every department of production. The Paper is of the first manufacture, the Inks are the best from the celebrated Printing Ink establishment of Messrs. Lawson & Co., of Paris. Six of the monthly portions, when completed, form a volume, which, for interest, originality, value, and beauty, defy competition. It is not only an interesting family book, but a rich ornament for the drawing-room table, and a pleasant companion in the study.

The Parts appear on the first of every month, at 25 cents each.

 The first volume is now ready, handsomely bound, $2; gilt edges, $2 25.

CRITICAL NOTICES.

"The Illustrated Magazine of Art, published in New-York by A. Montgomery, No. 17 Spruce-st., still maintains its prominence among the pictorials of our country. Each monthly part contains sixty-eight large octavo pages of excellent reading matter, with upward of thirty finely executed engravings. These give us representations of (1) the number (1) of the portraits and leading works of some great master; (2) of the foremost men and women of the age; (3) of great architectural works, cathedrals, palaces, &c.; (4) historical events; (5) of animals, birds, fishes, &c.; (6) machinery, inventions, manufacturing processes, &c., illustrated throughout their several stages; (7) patterns of useful and ornamental work for ladies, &c. All this variety, with solid, well-written papers accompanying, gives the subscriber a good monthly supply of amusement and instruction for the small pittance of twenty-five cents. The present June number completes the first volume of six parts, and is even richer than its predecessors. It leads off with an article on Sir Edwin Landseer, with half a dozen of spirited engravings from his inimitable pencil; a sketch of life, Scenes in Ireland on the Danube, in Naples, in the life of Columbus, in the interior of a French Artist's studio, in the London Post-Office, a portrait and memoir of Henry Ward Beecher, a minute description with wood-cuts of House's Printing Telegraph, and other interesting matters follow. We understand it is the determination of the publisher to increase the interest of the Magazine still further, and to incorporate in the forthcoming volume, the other compilation certain, the "History of the Painters of All Nations," by Charles Blanc."
