Special Notices.

☞ Card.—In consequence of the various articles which have recently appeared in the public prints, the DIRECTORS of the PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY deem it incumbent on them to announce that they have not authorized any combination with any party for the purpose of establishing higher rates of freight and passage money between the Atlantic ports and California—nor do they contemplate any such combination—their purpose being to confine their attention solely to their own business, and to the transportation of passengers and specie in the safest and cheapest manner practicable.

The time consumed by land carriage across the Isthmus of Panama has been lengthened by the greatly increased bulk of the mails and the measures necessary for the safeguard of the specie. A remedy for this will be provided by the early completion of the Panama Railroad—and with this consequent saving of time the Directors have always anticipated a reduction in cost of freight and passage between California and Atlantic ports. By order of the Board of Directors,

New-York, July 1, 1853. WM. H. DAVIDGE, Secretary.

☞ Crystal Palace, New-York, July 5, 1853.—Exhibitors, or their agents, who have not already done so, are urgently requested to appear at the Crystal Palace, and prepare their space for exhibition; and all exhibitors, foreign and domestic, are informed that all the packages in the building can now be opened, and their contents arranged for exhibition.

MAZE GARDEN.—Situated on 5th av., opposite the entrance to the Croton Reservoir, and in the vicinity of the Crystal Palace.
The Garden occupies two acres of ground, covered with a luxuriant growth of deciduous and evergreen trees and shrubs, adorned with Antique Fountains, and Vases, interspersed by serpentine walks, and surrounded by grassy slopes—effectively combining the beauties of Nature and Art. In the main building upon the premises are two fine Refreshment Saloons, commodious Piazzas, and a LADIES' TOILET-ROOM, with constant attendants.
The most attractive feature of the Garden, is the MAZE, or LABYRINTH. This is constructed after the plan of the celebrated one in Hampton Court, London, formed in the early part of King William's reign, and is the only one in this country. Its intricacies will be a source of great amusement and enjoyment.
The Proprietors would also respectfully inform the citizens of New-York, and all strangers visiting the city, during the "Exhibition of the Industry of All Nations," that they have completed arrangements which will enable them to serve the best to ladies and gentlemen who may honor the Maze Garden with their patronage; having made arrangements with Mr. BENJAMIN M. BRIARE, (the eminent confectioner of the Capitol City—Albany—whose celebrity for the finest Cream, Ices, and Confectionery, is as well known in this country,) for some of the best artisans from his establishment, they feel assured that, with the prompt attendance of good waiters, they will give full satisfaction to their patrons.
CREAM, ICES, AND OTHER REFRESHMENTS,
NO SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS OR INTOXICATING BEVERAGES WILL BE SERVED.
To be open EVERY DAY, on and after the first day of July, 1853, from 8 A. M. until sunset.
☞ The Fifth-av., Madison-av., and Fortieth-st. Stages pass on three sides of the Garden, and the Sixth-av. Cars are within two minutes' walk.
☞ Entrance to the Garden FREE. MITCHELL & Co.
Schiebele's National Brass Band will be in attendance on Thursday, July 7, at 3 P. M. If stormy Thursday, on Friday.
LATTING OBSERVATORY, NEW-YORK, July 2, 1853.

LATTING OBSERVATORY NOW OPENED to the PUBLIC.—This Observatory, situated on 42d and 43d sts., between 5th and 6th-avs., (entrance on 42d-st.,) in this city, possesses many points of interest to the public generally, not only in being constructed upon a new and novel principle in architecture, but from its great strength and perfect symmetry of form, together with the many conveniences attached, rendering it one of the most attractive places of resort in the city. From its various landings, New-York and its environs, for a vast distance in every direction, is distinctly visible, and many of the most exquisite views of land and sea to be found on this continent are unfolded to the gaze of the beholder. The tiers of the Observatory is 300 feet, with a base of 75 feet. It is probably one of the strongest erections that can possibly be constructed of wood and iron.
The Board of Directors are now having constructed an immense Drummond Light, of sufficient power to light up the Harbor of New-York, which they intend to place upon the top of the Observatory. Upon the upper landing will be placed a monster Telescope, with which the visitor will be enabled to see in every direction for a distance of 40 to 60 miles. Upon the other landings, numerous glasses can be found for the free use of visitors. In other parts of the Observatory will be placed Dissolving Views, Cosmoramas, Scientific and Optical Instruments, Works of Art, and many other objects of interest, useful and attractive in the Observatory. It is the intention of the Directors not only to make this Observatory the highest structure upon this continent, but to make it an object of special interest to all. Admittance 25 cents. CHAS. P. GROSVENOR, Secretary.

New Publications.

TENTH VOLUME—INGRAHAM'S GREAT SEA NOVEL—
LAFITTE, THE PIRATE OF THE GULF. By J. H. Ingraham, author of Cort. Ryd. &c. Price 50 cents.
The Press from all parts of the country, speak of this work as one of great power.
With all his faults of style Ingraham is the only natural, vivid and truthful writer of Sea Romances since Cooper and Al ar Cunningham. He shares also with Cooper the rare merit of drawing the subject of his romances from our own national history. Of all the brilliant and startling characters which the poetical and romantic history of America has produced, Lafitte is the most exciting. There is about it that interest which nothing else possesses and which calculated to enchain the attention of the reader. Such is Lafitte. [Niagara Democrat.
Lafitte resembles Ranse, in point of literary merit, with the advantage of the Sea Cooper, and Sir Walter Scott's Pirate. The description of the battle of New Orleans, and the part taken in it by Lafitte and his band, is one of the most splendid things we have ever read. [Frederick Advertiser.
The wild daring and exciting adventures of Lafitte and his associates exceed anything that Cooper has ever succeeded in drawing from history or inventing from his own darling genius. [Daily Republican.
This novel is one of the best written by Prof. Ingraham. [Philadelphia Bulletin.
Lafitte is a work of no little power and interest, full of striking characterizations, and sure to enchain the attention of the reader until the last chapter is finished. [Poughkeepsie Telegraph.
This sea Romance, by the popular writer, Ingraham, has a wider extent and great reputation, and is claimed by many to be equal in the descriptions of scenes at sea to Cooper or Sir Walter Scott. [Washington Republic, D. C.
The Life of Lafitte is full of striking incidents, which have been woven together with consummate skill and elegance by Prof. Ingraham. [Baltimore Republican.
We could fill a volume with the encomiums of the Press.
A new edition of CAPTAIN KYD, by the same author, now ready.
DEWITT & DAVENPORT, Publishers, Nos. 160 and 162 Nassau-st.

THE BIBLE IN THE COUNTING-HOUSE.—A Course of Lectures to Merchants, by H. A. Boardman, D. D., author of "The Bible in the Family," &c. One volume, 12mo. Price $1.
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
"We know of no book where the mercantile class will find more cleanly and truthfully delineated their temptations, dangers, and duties—or where they will meet with more to compliment them on their position and prospects in the world—their counting-house, the streets, and the marketplace, for every day use. Such a volume ought to be particularly valued by young men who are setting out on the hazardous journey of business life." [Presbyterian.
"These lectures are now before us in an elegantly printed octavo. They constitute the most thorough manual for the moral and religious guidance of a commercial man that has yet been published. We have rarely met with a more impressive writer than Dr. Boardman." [Evening Bulletin.
"We heartily wish it may find its way into every counting-house and store and place of business in our city." [Boston Daily.
"It is a creditable and favorable presentation of the moralities of commerce, and a safe guide through the perplexities and perils incident to a mercantile career, than we have ever before seen. It is eminently judicious and practical, and forms a worthy supplement to the great work of Dr. Chalmers on the same subject, adapted to the more modern modes of doing business." [N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.
"These lectures are replete with sound sense, broad and lofty views, and abound in eloquence." [Portland Eclectic.
"We trust that copies of this truly valuable volume will find their way into every counting-house, and that the truths they embody will be deeply impressed on all who read them." [North American and U. S. Gazette.
"Dr. Boardman is evidently a business man in the pulpit. The lectures are eleven in number, kind in spirit, but truthful and pointed. Their circulation cannot fail to be extensive and their influence happy." [Christian Intelligencer.
Just published by LIPPENCOTT, GRAMBO & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by CARLTON & PORTER, APPLETON & Co., A. D. F. RANDOLPH, and NEWMAN & IVISON, New-York.
