GEORGE P. NELSON,

☞ Card.—In consequence of the various articles which have recently appeared in the public prints, the DIRECTORS of the PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY deem it incumbent on them to announce that they have not authorized any combination with any party for the purpose of establishing higher rates of freight and passage money between the Atlantic ports and California—nor do they contemplate any such combination—their purpose being to confine their attention solely to their own business, and to the transportation of passengers and specie in the safest and cheapest manner practicable.

The time consumed by land carriage across the Isthmus of Panama has been lengthened by the greatly increased bulk of the mails and the measures necessary for the safeguard of the specie. A remedy for this will be provided by the early completion of the Panama Railroad; and with this consequent saving of time the Directors have always anticipated a reduction in rate of freight and passage between California and Atlantic ports. By order of the Board of Directors,
New-York, July 1, 1853. WM. H. DAVIDGE, Secretary.

NEW-YORK, May 31, 1853.

☞ The Directors of the Association for the Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations, give notice that the Exhibition will be opened on the 15th day of July.

In making this announcement, the Directors avail themselves of the opportunity to state that the Building, which they have erected, and the Exhibition which they have prepared, will, they believe, fully meet the just expectations of the Public.

It is proper that it should be known that, in order to afford ample scope for the inventive talent and skill of our Countrymen in machinery and agricultural implements, we have increased the size of the Building by adding nearly one-fourth to its area, beyond what was originally contemplated, so that we have now for the purposes of Exhibition two hundred thousand square feet, or nearly five acres.

Not limiting their plans to a display merely curious or attractive, the Directors have organized a Department of Mineralogy and Geology in which some of the best scientific talent of the country has been employed; and the foundation is thus laid of a most valuable national collection of the mineral resources of the Country.

The Directors had hoped to open the Exhibition at an earlier period, but the novelty and intricacy of the style of construction and the high standard of architectural beauty, which it has been the object of the Association to attain, have produced delay, and it has been impracticable for the Directors, notwithstanding their utmost vigilance, and their most earnest desire, to announce the opening at an earlier day.

In regard to the general character of the Exhibition, the result promises to be most gratifying and not unworthy of the confidence manifested toward it by the Government of the United States, a confidence which has elicited a cordial response from the Governments of foreign countries. It will, unquestionably, be the most attractive and interesting collection of the works of art, the results of science and the productions of industry that has ever yet been made in this country, and will tend to increase the active emulation of the age in every branch of intellectual development.

The sole charge of the interior of the building, its division, arrangements, classification and police, has been confided to two officers of the Navy of the United States, Captains S. F. DUPONT and C. H. DAVIS; and the sanction of the Government given to the appointment of these gentlemen, who have so much distinguished themselves in the public services in which they have been employed, affords proof of the confidence reposed and the interest felt, by the highest authorities of the country, in the general objects of the enterprise.

These gentlemen have organized their Department as follows:
J. M. BATCHELDER—Secretary of the Superintendent.
SAMUEL WEBBER—Arrangement of Space and Classification:
Prof. B. SILLIMAN, Jr.—Mineralogy and Chemistry;
B. P. JOHNSON—Agricultural implements;
JOSIAH E. HOLMES—Machinery;
EDWARD VINCENT—Textile Fabrics;
FELIX PIATTI—Sculpture.

The Official Catalogue and the Illustrated Weekly Record of the Exhibition are to be published in the Building, by Messrs. G. P. Putnam & Co., under the supervision of the Association.

The Directors have sensibly felt the confidence reposed in them by their fellow-citizens in all parts of the country, and they will continue to make every effort to satisfy their just expectations.

FATHER GAVAZZI'S LECTURES in NEW-YORK—Reported in full by T. C. Leland, Phonographer.
Also, THE LIFE OF FATHER GAVAZZI, Corrected and Approved by Himself; together with Reports of his ADDRESSES in ITALIAN to his COUNTRYMEN in NEW-YORK. Translated and Revised by Miss Julie de Marguerittes.
The Publishers have now ready the LECTURES OF FATHER GAVAZZI, with a BIOGRAPHY, Corrected and Revised by Himself. This publication has been prepared with general care, and is confidently offered as being one of the most valuable works of its class published in modern times. The force and truthfulness of the arguments and facts contained in these Lectures, (which are substantially the same as those delivered in Montreal and Quebec) appeal powerfully to the Protestant Public of America, and must create a profound and lasting impression throughout Christendom.
The Publishers are gratified in being able to lay before the public the following eminent testimonials of the fidelity with which these Lectures are presented in their publication:
The following highly commendatory notices have been received:
FROM REV. SAMUEL H. COX.
Messrs. DEWITT & DAVENPORT.
GENTLEMEN: Your reprint of the Life and Lectures of Gavazzi I have received; and though I have not yet read it all, yet I am free to say, and to allow you to use my name in this relation, that I consider the work timely, useful, peculiar, adapted to benefit our country, and even to improve some of its popular phases of Religion. Rome and Romanism are religiously the Great Antichrist of the Apocalypse; and, as the excellent Cecil declares, their system, instead of being Christianity, is the great masterpiece of Satan; a truth which some Christian Protestants most much learn and inwardly digest before they can become sound Christians, as it seems my duty and the duty of others to testify.
SAMUEL H. COX.

FROM REV. NICHOLAS MURRAY, D. D. (the celebrated "EUBULUS") Author of "Romanism at Home," a Series of Letters to Hon. Judge TANEY, Chief Justice of the United States.
Messrs. DEWITT & DAVENPORT.
GENTLEMEN: I thank you for the Life and Lectures of Gavazzi. I have read them with interest. The abuse of this Italian orator cannot be otherwise than extremely useful. He is a witness called to a Providence from the Valley and Shadow of Death, to tell of all that he witnessed there; and so truthful, graphic, and powerful are his delineations, as to carry conviction with them to all unbiased minds. He has studied Popery as to its claims, doctrines, assumptions, and influences, profoundly. He has been at the heart of the system, and understands all its pulsations. And because of his vivid imagination, his glowing emotions, his great sympathy with the true and the free, and his great boldness, he is the fearless and successful denunciation against the doctrines, the claims, the idolatries of Popery, and the vile corrupt and corrupting practices of its priesthood. He is just the man for his mission, which I esteem a very important one. Believing that none can read his Life and Lectures without instruction and benefit, and especially without being convinced of the abominable abominations of Romanism, I greatly desire for your present volume a very wide circulation.
Truly yours, N. MURRAY.

FROM REV. EDWIN F. HATFIELD, D.D., Pastor of the Seventh Presbyterian Church, Broome-st., New-York.
Messrs. DE WITT & DAVENPORT: I am pleased to see the Lectures of Gavazzi in print, together with the Life. The sketches of them that have already appeared, and have been widely circulated, have been of great service. The testimony of such a man, so familiar with all the inner workings of Popery, that "mystery of iniquity,"—so convenient with the designs of Rome, and so gifted in eloquent description, will be heeded. May God raise up many more such champions for the Truth from the ranks of the Papacy!
Yours truly, EDWIN F. HATFIELD.

FROM REV. S. MARTINDALE, Presiding Elder of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the New-York District.
Messrs. DE WITT & DAVENPORT.
GENTLEMEN: I have very much wished to see the Lectures of Father Gavazzi published in book form. The contents are valuable and seasonable; and will be new to many readers. All sincere inquiries after Truth will say, give us Light. I hope the book will have a wide circulation, and be calmly and dispassionately read.
With sentiments of high respect, I am, gentlemen, yours,
S. MARTINDALE.

In addition to the above, we have received highly commendatory notes from the following distinguished clergymen of different denominations, which our limits would not permit us to publish in full:

THE BIBLE IN THE COUNTING-HOUSE.—A Course of Lectures to Merchants, by H. A. Boardman, D. D., author of "The Bible in the Family," &c. One volume, 12mo. Price $1.
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
"We know of no book where the mercantile class will find more clearly and truthfully delineated their temptations, dangers, and duties, or where they will meet with more thoughts which will tend to be received with them on the counting-house, the streets, and the marketplace, for every day use. Such a volume ought to be particularly valued by young men who are setting out on the hazardous journey of business life." [Presbyterian
"These lectures are now before us in an elegantly printed volume. They constitute the most thorough manual for the moral and religious guidance of commercial men that has yet been published. We have no more forcible or more impressive writer than Dr Boardman." [Evening Bulletin.
"We heartily wish it may find its way into every counting-house and store and place of business in our city." [Boston Traveller.
"It is a clearer and more forcible presentation of the moralities of commerce, and a safer guide through the perplexities and perils incident to a mercantile career, than we have ever before met with. It is eminently judicious and practical, and forms a worthy supplement to the "Bible in the Family" by the same author on the same subject, adapted to the more modern modes of doing business" [N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.
"These lectures are replete with sound sense, broad and lofty views, and abound in eloquence." [Portland Eclectic.
"We must that copies of this truly valuable volume will find their way into every counting-house, and that the truths they embody will be deeply impressed on all who read them." [Boston American and U. S. Gazette.
"Dr. Boardman is evidently a business man in the pulpit. The lectures are eleven in number, kind in spirit, but truthful and pointed. Their circulation cannot fail to be extensive and their influence happy." [Christian Intelligencer.
