New Publications.

KATE CLARENDON, by Emmerson Bennett, is published this day: price 50 cents.

This is a beautiful romance, and one that will never fail to please the reader. The scene is laid on the bank of the beautiful Ohio, some five or six miles above Cincinnati, at a time when that now great city contained only a few log cabins, and when the great forests stretching away on either hand were alive with wild beasts and murderous savages. As a faithful picture of the early times, when danger hung upon every step of the bold pioneer, it cannot be excelled. The description of the scenery is accurate; and thousands, since reading the work, have been induced to visit the spot where the scene is located, and have viewed it with all the interest of classic ground.

SECOND EDITION READY THIS MORNING—

CARLINGTON CASTLE;

A TALE OF THE JESUITS.

By C. G. H., author of Curate of Linwood, Amy Harrington, etc. etc. Price, in cloth binding, 45 cents; paper, 50 cents.

"Carlington Castle" is a thrilling picture of the sufferings and trials of one, whose tender frame might well have yielded to a fearful accumulation of horrors, had not an abiding faith and an exalted moral courage preserved her through her trials. It is impossible to become acquainted with instances of such lofty fortitude as evinced by the heroine of this book without a thrill of admiration; and it is also impossible to read of the atrocities and cruelties, both physical and mental, that were inflicted upon her, without a feeling of almost vehement indignation.

PATENTS for INVENTIONS procured in all parts of Europe, and delivered here, or at my several Agencies in London, Paris, Prussia, Vienna, &c. Patents in Great Britain, and also in several other countries, may be taken as importations, and such have as good title as if taken in the name of the inventor. This should be borne in mind, in reference to expense of inventions, when parties have now abandoned the idea of securing Foreign Patents. J. F. PIRSSON, No. 5 Wall-st.

PERSONAL—If the young Lady who spoke with a Gentleman on Wednesday afternoon, on the corner of William and Fulton-sts., will inclose her address to HENRY D. EGUE, City Post-Office, he will forward to it an important letter he has for her.

PERHAM GIFT TICKETS.—All persons holding Gift Tickets, wishing them taken to Georgetown, must hand them in on or before 4 P. M. THIS DAY, Thursday.

J. L. BURNETT, No. 214 Broome-st., near the cor. of the Bowery, opposite Harlem R. R. Office.

REJECTED APPLICATIONS, &c.—The undersigned respectfully gives notice that he is at all times prepared to pay special attention to the prosecution of rejected applications for Patents; also to contested and interfering cases. In some instances he will undertake to prosecute contested cases, according to compensation only after Patent is granted.

Patent business of every description, whether before the United States Commissioner or the Circuit and United States Supreme Courts, promptly attended to.

He has representative being represented at the seat of Government by William E. Elliot, Esq., formerly of the American Patent Office, who is ready for immediate reference to the patented models, drawings, records, assignments, and other official matters. Examinations for particular inventions at the Patent Office made on moderate terms.

Persons desiring free information or advice relative to Patents or Inventions, may at all times consult the undersigned without charge, either personally at his office, or by letter. To those living at a distance, he would state that all the needful steps necessary to secure a Patent, can be arranged by letter, just as well as if the party were present, and the expense of a journey be thus saved. All consultations strictly confidential. The expense of Patents in the United States is small. ALFRED E. BEACH,

Editor of the People's Journal,
Solicitor of American and Foreign Patents,
People's Patent Office, No. 26 Nassau-st., New-York.

THE PEOPLE'S JOURNAL of Science, Mechanics, Inventions, Agriculture, &c., profusely illustrated, high scientific encouragement, $1 a year. ALFRED E. BEACH, Editor and Proprietor.
