THE TOPEKA STATE JOURNAL guarantees every day it is printed to give a local circulation more than double that of any other Topeka paper, and by far above that of any other Shawnee county paper. This makes this paper the cheapest as well as the best daily advertising medium in Topeka, the classified advertisements below costing but

or 25 cents a line for a week; 50 cents by the month.

City circulation everyday exceeds 5,000—total circulation over 8,000.

Sworn detailed statements of circulation present on application.

☞ Call and see any afternoon between 4 and 5, the hard earned hours, the most perfect piece of printing machinery in Kansas—a Web Perfecting press, which prints from two to three complete 8-page papers a second.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FREE.

*Boxes north of river.

Fire alarms are sounded upon the tower bell at department headquarters by striking the number of the signal station nearest the fire, in this manner: If for box 4, four distinct strokes and repeated; if for box 13, one stroke, a short pause, then three strokes, and repeated, thus, 1-111, 1-111, etc. "22" is sounded for all fires within the district bounded by Fifth, Ninth, Jackson and Quincy streets.

TEN STROKES, and repeated, followed by the number of the signal station nearest the fire, is the SECOND ALARM—for a serious fire.

THREE STROKES, followed by TWELVE, and repeated, is the GENERAL ALARM for a very dangerous fire, and calls out the entire department with a detail of police.

TWO STROKES, slowly, indicates FIRE IS OUT. Owning whistle from water works, for fires south of river. Three whistles from same, for fires north of river.

THE MOTOR CYCLE.

Power Furnished by Coal Oil and Takes the Place of Carriages.

The latest conception of the inventive geniuses who cater to the requirements of the wheel world is the motor cycle. The novelty is intended to take the place of buggies and carriages, and is designed to be of service at all seasons of the year and in every kind of going.

The tires are fully four inches in diameter, and vibration is reduced to a minimum. The motive power is produced by coal oil, and as soon as the rider takes his seat securely the machine does the rest. A gallon of oil will drive the single-seat motor 200 miles, while twice the quantity will send the new four-wheeled contrivance a similar distance with three passengers on board.

The four-wheeler seems destined to a long lease of popularity. It practically consists of two ladies' bicycles connected by a carriage seat in which three passengers can seat themselves comfortably. The speed can be controlled at the operator's will, but just how fast a "scorcher" may send it along will not be known with any degree of accuracy until the practical speed trial is held on some date in the near future.

The designer has been long before the public with his air-ship theories, and now that he has got down to terra firma the chances are that his ideas will be found of practical utility. Experts who have examined the two types of cycle think they are destined to play a prominent part among the seasons inventions. Should at the of the inventor's hopes be realized, the public must be prepared to see citizens gliding along with far less waste of energy than is required to climb an elevator stairs or sprint from the sidewalk to catch a surface car. With a motor cycle, a gallon of coal oil and a box of matches the veriest cripple will be able to hold his own with the most muscular prodigy bestriding a wheel.

IT COST $10,000,000.

George Gould's Hunting Lodge in the Catskill Mountains.

George Gould's mountain luxury, Furnough Lodge, cost $10,000,000 and an expenditure of upward of $1,000,000 a year is necessary to maintain it. The lodge, which is located in the Catskill mountains, stands on a 1,000-acre tract of very expensive land. The tract is surrounded with a barbed wire fence ten feet high. With in this inclosure is the finest pigeon warren in the world, and the richest pheasantry. There is an immense deer park, a small herd of buffalo and foxes that run wild all the year around, inviting visitors to shoot them.

To take care of this great supply of game there are ten men employed all the year around. And these are under the direction of a head gamekeeper, who is personally responsible for a supply of things to be shot when Mr. Gould and his friends come up for a holiday. The winter supply of horses is always seventeen, and the summer supply twice that number.

The Russian dogs, with Czarain, the famous foxhound, at the head of the kennel, and the kennels of all other rare, hardy winter dogs, have their special keepers; and, all told, the place is kept on as large a scale and as luxuriantly as any royal estate. No one else on earth spends as much on a shooting box.

Aluminum.

Experiments are being conducted at the armory in Springfield, Mass., in the use of aluminum for the bayonet scabbards for the new rifle. While the metal works well in bending and is about fifty per cent. lighter than the steel scabbards, no satisfactory method has been devised for soldering the edges together.

An Algerian Product.

Eggs of the Algerian locust have been found to yield a thick oil resembling honey in appearance. It burns well, and mixed with alkali makes a good soap.

Kicks Instead of Kisses.

Down to the present century a part of the marriage ceremony in Hungary consisted in the groom giving the bride a kick to remind her of her subjection.
