Horace Waters' modern improved Pianos, with or without iron frames, have, in their new scale and improved action, a power and compass of tone equalling the grand, with the beauty and durability of the square piano. The Press and first Music Masters have justly pronounced them equal if not superior to any other make. They are guaranteed to stand the action of every climate.

"Having inspected a large number of the Horace Waters' Pianos, we can speak of their merits, from personal knowledge, as being of the very best quality."—Christian Intelligencer.

"The Horace Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material. From all we can learn of this establishment—said to be the largest in the United States—we have no doubt that buyers can do as well, perhaps better, at this than at any other house in the Union."—Christian Advocate, Memphis, Tenn.

"Mr. Waters has been long established and favorably known. We speak from experience when we assure our readers that his prices are below those usually charged for articles in his line."—Jacksonian, New Jersey.

"The treble is clear, pure, powerful, and very melodious, the base is deep, rolling, and sonorous; the middle part is rich, and sympathetic, and possessing the power of singing, i. e. of uniting the sound of each tone, in a degree but rarely achieved."—HENRY C. WATSON.

"For power of tone, depth of base, and brilliance of treble, together with accuracy of touch, they are equal to any make I am acquainted with, and I cordially recommend them to those wishing to purchase.—V. C. TAYLOR.

"Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of music and of pianos to be found in the United States, and we urge our southern and western friends to give him a call whenever they go to New York."—Graham's Magazine.

We consider them worthy of special attention, from the resonant and exceedingly musical tone which Mr. Waters has succeeded in attaining."—N. Y. Musical World and Times.

"The Horace Waters Pianos are pronounced by musical amateurs as a decidedly superior article in all the requisites of this instrument, and it is fast superseding those of other manufacturers."—N. Y. Evening Post.

The New York Evening Post says: "The Horace Waters Pianos are excellent as well as cheap; but he has those of other makers, as well as second-hand ones, capitally adapted to limited means."

The Albany Spectator, reaches us with the following: "This gentleman is one of the most extensive music-dealers in the Union. His pianos and melodeons have obtained great celebrity for their excellent tone and durable quality."

Says the Valley City Advertiser: "We have taken a piano which he has just received from the celebrated establishment of Horace Waters, and must say that for tone and beauty of finish, it surpasses any we ever saw for the price."

Horace Waters' Piano Fortes are of full, rich, and even tone, and powerful.—N. Y. Musical Review.

Why is the Demand so Great for DR. MANN'S AGUE BALSAM?

Because it will, in all cases, safely and effectually cure that much dreaded scourge of the West—Chills, Fever and Ague—without fail, and in cases will counteract the poison of Malaria, of which fact thousands do testify, and, unlike all other nostrums, it is only recommended for one class of diseases, and as a tonic it is unsurpassed. We will offer a few evidences of its worth, by our influence and standing.

Princeton Ill., Sept. 20, 1857.

DR. MANN—DEAR SIR: For several years past I have used your Ague Balsam in my family, and have closely observed its effects in hundreds of cases, and in no case has it failed to produce the most happy effect. I can most cheerfully recommend it as a certain specific for chills, fever and ague, and malarious diseases.

Yours,
H. AUSTIN, M. D.

Marshall, Mich. Feb. 11, 1857.

Dr. MANN & Co.: I have sold a large amount of your Ague Balsam in this vicinity, and from my personal knowledge of it, I believe it is the best remedy for chills, fever and ague that has ever been sold in our State. Respectfully Yours,

O. A. HYDE.

Ashtabula, Ohio, January 1st 1858.

MESSRS. S. K. MANN & CO.—Gents: In canvassing the States of Ohio and Michigan for the sale of the different remedies of which we have control, our attention has been called to observe the great name that your Ague Balsam has gained for itself in every place where sold. It really seems to be the peoples' own remedy, and its sales more rapid than any other medicine introduced to supercede it on the market.

Very Truly Yours, A. C. KEPDRY.

New York, Feb. 23 1858.

MESSRS. S. K. MANN & CO.—Gents: I have been in business in St. Louis solely, and have observed the effects of your Ague Balsam, and have no hesitation in saying, I do not know any personal acquaintance in the world of medicines, every time, and I can give it the testimony of many families I had been in the habit of using before I knew of your Balsam, and what is well known to all, and will testify, that it is a case but what it has given perfect triumph over the disease, and I have the season. I have no hesitation in recommending it as a perfect triumph over chills and fever, and all malarious diseases.

Respectfully Yours,
